Guns and Society in Colonial Nigeria Saheed Aderinto, 2018-01-06 Guns are an enduring symbol of imperialism whether they are used to impose social order create ceremonial spectacle incite panic or to inspire confidence In Guns and Society Saheed Aderinto considers the social political and economic history of these weapons in colonial Nigeria As he transcends traditional notions of warfare and militarization Aderinto reveals surprising insights into how colonialism changed access to firearms after the 19th century In doing so he explores the unusual ways in which guns were used in response to changes in the Nigerian cultural landscape More Nigerians used firearms for pastime and professional hunting in the colonial period than at any other time The boom and smoke of gunfire even became necessary elements in ceremonies and political events Aderinto argues that firearms in the Nigerian context are not simply commodities but are also objects of material culture Considering guns in this larger context provides a clearer understanding of the ways in which they transformed a colonized society

A Cultural History of Firearms in the Age of Empire Karen Jones, 2016-03-16 Firearms have been studied by imperial historians mainly as means of human destruction and material production Yet firearms have always been invested with a whole array of additional social and symbolical meanings By placing these meanings at the centre of analysis the essays presented in this volume extend the study of the gun beyond the confines of military history and the examination of its impact on specific colonial encounters By bringing cultural perspectives to bear on this most pervasive of technological artefacts the contributors explore the densely interwoven relationships between firearms and broad processes of social change In so doing they contribute to a fuller understanding of some of the most significant consequences of British and American imperial expansions Not the least original feature of the book is its global frame of reference Bringing together historians of different periods and regions A Cultural History of Firearms in the Age of Empire overcomes traditional compartmentalisations of historical knowledge and encourages the drawing of novel and illuminating comparisons across time and space

Cracks in the Dome: Fractured Histories of Empire in the Zanzibar Museum, 1897-1964 Sarah Longair, 2016-03-09 As one of the most monumental and recognisable landmarks from Zanzibar's years as a British Protectorate the distinctive domed building of the Zanzibar Museum also known as the Beit al Amani or Peace Memorial

Museum is widely known and familiar to Zanzibaris and visitors alike Yet the complicated and compelling history behind its construction and collection has been overlooked by historians until now Drawing on a rich and wide range of hitherto unexplored archival photographic architectural and material evidence this book is the first serious investigation of this remarkable institution Although the museum was not opened until 1925 this book traces the longer history of colonial display which culminated in the establishment of the Zanzibar Museum It reveals the complexity of colonial knowledge production in the changing political context of the twentieth century British Empire and explores the broad spectrum of people from diverse communities who shaped its existence as staff informants collectors and teachers Through vivid narratives involving people objects and exhibits this book exposes the fractures contradictions and tensions in creating and maintaining a colonial museum and casts light on the conflicted character of the colonial mission in eastern Africa 2006 Massimo

Collecting Food, Cultivating People Kathryn Michelle De Luna,2016-01-01 A rich analysis of the complex dynamic between food collection and food production in the farming societies of precolonial south central Africa Engaging new linguistic evidence and reinterpreting published archaeological evidence this sweeping study explores the place of bushcraft and agriculture in the precolonial history of south central Africa across nearly three millennia Contrary to popular conceptions that place farming at the heart of political and social change political innovation in precolonial African farming societies was actually contingent on developments in hunting fishing and foraging as de Luna reveals A Companion to

Mangan, Callum McKenzie, 2013-10-18 The late Victorian and Edwardian officer class viewed hunting and big game hunting in particular as a sound preparation for imperial warfare For the imperial officer in the making the bloody hunting ritual was a visible hallmark of stirring martial masculinity Sir Henry Newbolt the period poet of subaltern self sacrifice typically considered hunting as essential for the creation of a masculine sporting spirit necessary for the consolidation and extension of the empire Hunting was seen as a manifestation of Darwinian masculinity that maintained a pre ordained hierarchical order of superordinate and subordinate breeds Militarism Hunting Imperialism examines these ideas under the following five sections martial imperialism the self sacrificial subaltern bloody the middle class martial male the imperial officer hunting and war martial masculinity proclaimed and consolidated martial masculinity adapted and adjusted This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport

Operation Lock and the War on Rhino Poaching John Hanks, 2015-05-08 The aggressive poaching of rhinos needs to be countered with equal aggression So argued Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands the founder president of the World Wide Fund for Nature WWF at a 1987 meeting with John Hanks conservation expert and WWF's head in Africa The result was Operation Lock a secret initiative funded by Prince Bernhard and staffed by former SAS operatives Operation Lock set up headquarters in Johannesburg and extended its reach into neighbouring states Namibia Zambia Botswana Swaziland and Mozambique Its operatives planned to train game rangers to pose as rhino horn traders in order to entrap buyers and to expose the kingpins who were driving the trade It was a controversial approach all the more because it was working within apartheid South Africa in the late 1980s When the existence of the project was finally leaked WWF denied any involvement and John Hanks took the fall In Operation Lock and the War on Rhino Poaching John Hanks finally tells the story of these explosive events from 25 years ago As a leading international authority on conservation he also deals with the scourge of rhino poaching up to the present and gives powerful and controversial criticism of some of the current policies to curb poaching Hunting Africa Angela Thompsett, 2015-10-12 This book recovers the multiplicity of meanings embedded in colonial hunting and the power it symbolized by examining both the incorporation and representation of British women hunters in the sport and how African people leveraged British hunters dependence on their labor and knowledge to direct the impact and experience of hunting Memories and Silences Haunted by Fascism Daniela Baratieri, 2010 Fascist and colonial legacies have been determinant in shaping how Italian colonialism has been narrated in Italy till the late 1960s This book deals with the complex problem of public memory and discursive amnesia The detailed research that underpins this book makes it no longer possible to claim that after 1945 there was an absolute and traumatic silence concerning Italy's colonial occupation of North and East Africa However the abiding public use of this history confirms the existence of an extremely selective and codified memory of that past The author shows that colonial discourse persisted in historiography newspapers newsreels and film Popular culture appears intertwined with political and economic interests and the power inscribed in elite and scientific knowledge While readdressing the often mistaken historical time line that ignores that actual Italian colonial ties did not end with the fall of Fascism but in 1960 with Somalia becoming independent this book suggests that a new post Fascist Italian identity was the crucial issue in reappraisals of a national colonial past Animal Kingdoms Julie E. Hughes,2013-03-01 Animal Kingdoms reveals the far reaching cultural political and environmental importance of hunting in colonial India Julie E Hughes explores how Indian princes relied on their prowess as hunters of prized game to advance personal status solidify power and establish links with the historic battlefields and legendary deeds of their ancestors African Futures ,2022-02-28 The essays in this collection are written to make readers re consider what is possible in Africa The essays shake the tree of received wisdom and received categories and hone in on the complexities of life under ecological and economic constraints Yet throughout this volume people do not emerge as victims but rather as inventors engineers scientists planners writers artists and activists or as children mothers fathers friends or lovers all as future makers It is precisely through agents such as these that Africa is futuring rethinking living confronting imagining and relating in the light of its many emerging tomorrows Nature's Noblemen Monica Rico,2013-07-16 DIV In this fascinating book Monica Rico explores the myth of the American West in the nineteenth century as a place for men to assert their masculinity by roughing it in the wilderness and reveals how this myth played out in a transatlantic context Rico uncovers the networks of elite men British and American who circulated between the West and the metropolises of London and New York Each chapter tells the story of an individual who by traveling these transatlantic paths sought to resolve anxieties about class gender and empire in an era of profound economic and social transformation All of the men Rico discusses from the well known including Theodore Roosevelt and Buffalo Bill Cody to the comparatively obscure such as English cattle rancher Moreton Frewen envisioned the American West as a global space into which redemptive narratives of heroic upper class masculinity could be written div New Trends in Tourism ,2025-03-05 Tourism in the 21st century has undergone a profound transformation As mass tourism fades modern travellers increasingly seek unique meaningful experiences that resonate on a deeper personal level This book explores the rise of niche tourism a dynamic multifaceted phenomenon that rejects traditional sun sea sand offerings in favor of specialized travel experiences like ecotourism heritage tourism and spiritual journeys It delves into the motivations driving today s tourists who yearn for authenticity and self discovery amidst the alienation of modern life The book s first section examines tourism s complex impacts offering insights into sustainable practices and the emergence of innovative niches It highlights destinations and businesses challenges from economic pressures to balancing competing interests while showcasing sustainable initiatives that redefine success in the tourism industry In the second section the focus shifts to the interplay between tourists and locals introducing concepts like the domestic zoo syndrome and exploring how exoticism shapes both traveller perceptions and local empowerment Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork from Brazil and Fiji it uncovers how informal tourism and creativity reshape cultural power dynamics and foster mutual growth The final section tackles the disruptive effects of COVID 19 and climate change analyzing their implications for tourism To illustrate the role of management in times of crisis this section presents a case study of dealing with change by examining the cruise tourism industry in the port of Ibiza Finally the third section explores the transformative role of technology from AI and VR to mobile apps which redefine travel experiences and raise ethical considerations By investigating these trends the book offers a glimpse into tourism s future questioning whether technological advancements can enhance authenticity and personal connection A must read for students professionals and curious travellers alike this book provides a glimpse at the evolving landscape of tourism and its main drivers in an increasingly complex world

Nature Unbound Dan Brockington,Rosaleen Duffy,Jim Igoe,2012-07-26 Nature Unbound is an examination of the rise of protected areas and their current social and economic position in our world It examines the social impacts of protected areas the conflicts that surround them the alternatives to them and the conceptual categories they impose Ivory Keith Somerville,2019-10-30 Comprehensive exploration of history and politics of ivory in Africa Producing Predators Michael D. Wise,2016-08 In Producing Predators Michael D Wise argues that contestations between Native and non Native people over hunting labor and the livestock industry drove the development of predator eradication programs in Montana and Alberta from the 1880s onward The history of these anti predator programs was significant not only for their ecological effects but also for their enduring cultural legacies of colonialism in the Northern Rockies By targeting wolves and other wild carnivores for extermination cattle ranchers disavowed the predatory labor of raising domestic animals for slaughter representing it instead as productive work Meanwhile federal agencies sought to purge the Blackfoot Salish Kootenai and other indigenous peoples of their so called predatory behaviors through campaigns of assimilation and citizenship that forcefully privatized tribal land and criminalized hunting and its related ritual practices Despite these colonial pressures Native communities resisted and negotiated the terms of their dispossession by representing their own patterns of work food and livelihood as productive By exploring predation and production as fluid cultural logics for valuing labor rather than just a set of biological processes Producing Predators offers a new perspective on the history of the American West and the modern history of colonialism more broadly
