Black Quest For Identity:

Black Quest for Identity Patricia W. Robinson, 1978-01-01

Black Soul, White Artifact Jock McCulloch, 2002-05-16

These papers examine the intellectual legacy of the political psychologist Frantz Fanon

Reading Resistance:

Intersections of Race, Gender and Class Parul Chauhan, 2025-04-05 The book unfolds the saga of struggle resistance and reclamation of Blacks identity through examining the works of African American women playwrights It brings to the forefront the viewpoint of black Americans in the literary world by presenting their experiences with the purpose of highlighting what has been either misinterpreted or left out It investigates the key elements like historical rewriting identity black pride and dignity The book also focuses on the Blacks endeavours to foreground the issue of subjugation of African American women who are not pushed to the periphery by racism alone but also by sexist and class biases It explores how hope sustains the existence of the marginalized and how they are determined to fulfil their dream of having a congenial and prosperous life in the midst of the racial tensions of the particular era

The Ocean-Hill Brownsville Conflict Glen Anthony

Harris, 2012-01-01 The history of Black Jewish relations from the beginning of the twentieth century shows that while they were sometimes partners of convenience there was also a deep suspicion of each other that broke out into frequent public exchanges During the twentieth century the entanglements of both groups have at times provided an important impetus for social justice in the United States and at other times have been the cause of great tension The Ocean Hill Brownsville Conflict explores this fraught relationship which is evident in the intellectual lives of these communities The tension was as apparent in the life and works of Marcus Garvey Richard Wright and James Baldwin as it was in the exchanges between blacks and Jews in intellectual periodicals and journals in the 1940s 1950s and 1960s The Ocean Hill Brownsville conflict was rooted in this tension and the longstanding differences over community control of school districts and racial preferences

In the Almost Promised Land Hasia R. Diner, 1995-10 Seeking the reasons behind Jewish altruism toward African Americans Hasia Diner shows how in the wake of the Leo Frank trial and lynching in Atlanta Jews came to see that their relative prosperity was no protection against the same social forces that threatened blacks Jewish leaders and organizations genuinely believed in the cause of black civil rights Diner suggests but they also used that cause as a way of advancing their own interests launching a vicarious attack on the nation that they felt had not lived up to its own ideals of freedom and equality

Themes Out of School Stanley Cavell, 1988-08-15

In the first essay of this book Stanley Cavell characterizes philosophy as a willingness to think not about something other than what ordinary human beings think about but rather to learn to think undistractedly about things that ordinary human beings cannot help thinking about or anyway cannot help having occur to them sometimes in fantasy sometimes as a flash across a landscape Fantasies of film and television and literature flashes across the landscape of literary theory philosophical discourse and French historiography give Cavell his starting points in these twelve essays Here is philosophy in and out of school understood as a discipline in itself or thought through the works of Shakespeare Moli re Kierkegaard Thoreau Brecht Makavejev Bergman Hitchcock Astaire and Keaton

Black Identity and Black Protest in the Antebellum North Patrick Rael,2003-01-14 Frederick Douglass Sojourner Truth Martin Delany these figures stand out in the annals of black protest for their vital antislavery efforts But what of the rest of their generation the thousands of other free blacks in the North Patrick Rael explores the tradition of protest and sense of racial identity forged by both famous and lesser known black leaders in antebellum America and illuminates the ideas that united these activists across a wide array of divisions In so doing he reveals the roots of the arguments that still resound in the struggle for justice today Mining sources that include newspapers and pamphlets of the black national press speeches and sermons slave narratives and personal memoirs Rael recovers the voices of an extraordinary range of black leaders in the first half of the nineteenth century He traces how these activists constructed a black American identity through their participation in the discourse of the public sphere and how this identity in turn informed their critiques of a nation predicated on freedom but devoted to white supremacy His analysis explains how their place in the industrializing urbanizing antebellum North offered black leaders a unique opportunity to smooth over class and other tensions among themselves and successfully galvanize the race against slavery

The Emergence of Post-modernity at the Intersection of Liberalism, Capitalism, and Secularism Matthew McManus,2022-09-07 This book is a systematic and thorough analysis of what post modernity is and how it emerged It distinguishes between those who regard post modernity as a theoretical approach and those who regard it as a culture and argues that interpreting post modernity as a culture is more fruitful It discusses the three factors which led to its emergence namely liberalism capitalism and secularism highlighting their respective influence in generating the culture of post modernity within neoliberal societies The volume provides a lengthy analysis of neoliberal post modernity in practice arguing that post modernism is the cultural condition of neoliberal societies in the late 20th and early 21st centuries Until recently it seemed that neoliberal post modernity was here to stay framed by relationship to freedom and time which stressed individual agency but precluded the possibility of historical change at the political level However the Great Recession of 2008 opened new spaces for agitation and transformation which has resulted in the discordant politics of the last decade This book will be of interest to scholars working in a number of fields including economic policy cultural analysis political theory and social critique

Cultures in Babylon Hazel V. Carby,2024-03-12 For a decade and a half since she first appeared in the Birmingham Centre s collective volume The Empire Strikes Back Hazel Carby has been on the frontline of the debate over multicultural education in Britain and the US This book brings together her most important and influential essays ranging over such topics as the necessity for racially diverse school curricula the construction of literary canons Zora Neale Hurston s portraits of the Folk C L R James and Trinidadian nationalism and black women blues artists and the necessity for racially diverse school curricula Carby s analyses of diverse aspects of contemporary culture are invariably sharp and provocative her political insights shrewd and often against the grain A powerful intervention Culture in Babylon will become a standard reference point in future debates over race ethnicity and gender The Stones that the Builders Rejected Walter E. Fluker,1998-09-01 Six eminent black scholars women and men examine the black church s distinctive socio cultural location and long history of producing quality leadership affirming the church tradition as a prime candidate for offering leadership to the world Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill,2012-11 Schweitzer s goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle Black Identities Mary C. Waters,2009-07-01 The story of West Indian immigrants to the United States is considered a great success Many of these adoptive citizens have prospered including General Colin Powell But Mary Waters tells a very different story about immigrants from the West Indies especially their children She finds that when the immigrants first arrive their knowledge of English their skills and contacts their self respect and their optimistic assessment of American race relations facilitate their integration into the American economic structure Over time however the realities of American race relations begin to swamp their positive cultural values Persistent blatant racial discrimination soon undermines the openness to whites the immigrants have when they first arrive Discrimination in housing channels them into neighborhoods with inadequate city services and high crime rates Inferior public schools undermine their hopes for their children s future Low wages and poor working conditions are no longer attractive for their children who use American and not Caribbean standards to measure success Ultimately the values that gained these first generation immigrants initial success a willingness to work hard a lack of attention to racism a desire for education an incentive to save are undermined by the realities of life in the United States In many families the hard won relative success of the parents is followed by the downward slide of their children Contrary to long held beliefs Waters finds those who resist Americanization are most likely to succeed economically especially in the second generation A Quest for Black Identity Josephine D. Jones,Mathew Wikander,2000 Navigating Multiple Identities Ruthellen Josselson,Michele Harway,2012-04-17 In our increasingly complex globalized world people often carry conflicting psychosocial identities This volume considers individuals who are navigating across racial minority or majority status various cultural expectations and values gender identities and roles The authors explore how people bridge loyalties and identifications International Journal of Applied Linguistics & English Literature Editor,2012-07-12 International Journal of Applied Linguistics and English Literature IJALEL is a peer reviewed journal established in Australia Authors are encouraged to submit complete unpublished and original works which are not under review in any other journal The scopes of the journal include but not limited to the following topic areas Applied Linguistics Linguistics and English Literature The journal is published in both printed and online versions The online version is free access and downloadable Vol 1 No 2 The Case against Afrocentrism Tunde Adeleke, 2011-01-05 Postcolonial discourses on African Diaspora history and relations have traditionally focused intensely on highlighting the common experiences and links between black Africans and African Americans This is especially true of Afrocentric scholars and supporters who use Africa to construct and validate a monolithic racial and culturally essentialist worldview Publications by Afrocentric scholars such as Molefi Asante Marimba Ani Maulana Karenga and the late John Henrik Clarke have emphasized the centrality of Africa to the construction of Afrocentric essentialism In the last fifteen years however countervailing critical scholarship has challenged essentialist interpretations of Diaspora history Critics such as Stephen Howe Yaacov Shavit and Clarence Walker have questioned and refuted the intellectual and cultural underpinnings of Afrocentric essentialist ideology Tunde Adeleke deconstructs Afrocentric essentialism by illuminating and interrogating the problematic situation of Africa as the foundation of a racialized worldwide African Diaspora He attempts to fill an intellectual gap by analyzing the contradictions in Afrocentric representations of the continent These include multiple conflicting and ambivalent portraits of Africa the use of the continent as a global unifying identity for all blacks the de-emphasizing and nullification of New World acculturation and the ahistoric construction of a monolithic African Diaspora worldwide Bridges and Boundaries African Americans and American Jews Jack Salzman, Adina Back, Gretchen Sullivan Sorin, 1992 While no single volume can fully explain this issue Bridges and Boundaries African Americans and American Jews provides us with a means to challenge and perhaps even to verify our sense of the past and in so doing to better understand the present Fifteen critical essays by leading historians scholars and political and religious figures of this century provide historical overviews of the relationships between African Americans and American Jews They also represent the diverse attitudes within the two groups and reflect the multiple voices that have themselves shaped these attitudes A visual essay that follows links texts and images of more than one hundred works of art and artifacts first seen in an exhibit at The Jewish Museum to explore the historical places at which the paths of African Americans and American Jews have crossed in meaningful ways during this century Mind, Body, and Consciousness in Society Paul C. Mocombe, 2018-12-21 This book explores the nature of learning and development in the philosophy of phenomenological structuralism which represents an effort to resolve the structure agency problematic of the social sciences within structurationist sociological theory Through the analysis and critique of structurationist sociology the book outlines the underlying tenets of this problematic It goes on to synthesize Haitian ontology and epistemology phenomenology Althusserian structural Marxism quantum mechanics and Ludwig Wittgenstein's notion of language games As such it offers an alternative reading of the structure agency problematic which holds on to the notions of structure duality dualism and the individual's rational ability to choose to account for the constitution of the individual and society in and as the resource framework of the earth In the final analysis the study outlines the implications for this social ontology in the domain of learning and development It utilizes two case studies black America and Haiti to highlight its conclusions that learning and development in this phenomenological structuralism are both Vygotskyian and Chomskyian A synopsis of the book by Paul can be seen here https://youtu.be/2A_OCxQeUW4 Language, Literacy, and Pedagogy in Postindustrial Societies Paul C. Mocombe, Carol Tomlin, 2013-01-17 In postindustrial economies such as the United States and Great Britain the black white achievement gap is perpetuated by an emphasis on language and language skills with which black American and black British Caribbean youths often struggle This work analyzes the nature of educational pedagogy in the contemporary capitalist world system under American hegemony Mocombe and Tomlin interpret the role of education as an institutional or ideological apparatus for capitalist domination and examine the sociolinguistic means or pedagogies by which global and local social actors are educated within the capitalist world system to serve the needs of capital i e capital accumulation Two specific case studies one in the United States and one in the United Kingdom are utilized to demonstrate how contemporary educational emphasis on language and literacy parallels the organization of work and contributes to the debate on academic underachievement of black students vis a vis their white and Asian counterparts
