Blackstock's Collections Gregory L. Blackstock, 2006-08-03 Modern life is an ever accelerating barrage of people buildings vehicles creatures and things How much can a curious mind take in And what can it do with all the data Gregory L. Blackstock a retired Seattle pot washer draws order out of all the chaos with a pencil a black marker and some crayons Blackstock is autistic and an artistic savant He creates visual lists of everything from wasps to hats to emergency vehicles to noisemakers In the spirit of the Outsider art of Henry Darger and Howard Finster Blackstock makes art that is stirring in its profusion and detail and inspiring in its simple beauty He has never received formal artistic training yet his renderings clearly and beguilingly show subtle differences and similarities enabling the viewer to see for example the distinctive features of a dolly varden a Pacific Coast steelhead cutthroat and fourteen other types of trout Each collection is lovingly captioned in Blackstock's unique hand with texts that reflect facts from his research as well as his passions and preferences Blackstock's Collections contains over 100 extraordinary examples of his splendidly original taxonomy offering a unique look inside the mind of a man making sense of life through art Monsters of the Deep Major Forestry Pests The Great Cabbage Family The Spatulas The World War II U S Bombers The Buoys King Sized Jails Monsters of the Past Classical Clowns Great Italian Roosters Our State Lighthouses The Irish Joys

Violent Crime Darnell F. Hawkins, 2003-02-24 Analysts have long noted that some societies have much higher rates of criminal violence than others They have also observed that the risk of being a victim or a perpetrator of violent crime varies considerably from one individual to another In societies with ethnically and racially diverse populations some ethnic and racial groups have been reported to have higher rates of violent offending and victimization than other groups This series of essays explores the extent and causes of racial and ethnic differences in violent crime in the United States and several other contemporary societies

Electron Spin Resonance Bruce C Gilbert, N M Atherton, M J Davies, 2007-10-31 Specialist Periodical Reports provide systematic and detailed review coverage of progress in the major areas of chemical research Written by experts in their specialist fields the series creates a unique service for the active research chemist supplying regular critical in depth accounts of progress in particular areas of chemistry For over 80 years the Royal Society of Chemistry and its predecessor the Chemical Society have been publishing reports charting developments in chemistry which originally took the form of Annual Reports However by 1967 the whole spectrum of chemistry could no longer be contained within one volume and the series Specialist Periodical Reports was born The Annual Reports themselves still existed but were divided into two and subsequently three volumes covering Inorganic Organic and Physical Chemistry For more general coverage of the highlights in chemistry they remain a must Since that time the SPR series has altered according to the fluctuating degree of activity in various fields of chemistry Some titles have remained unchanged while others have altered their emphasis along with their titles some have been combined under a new name whereas others have had to be discontinued The current list of Specialist Periodical Reports can be seen on the inside flap of Social Inequality Kathryn Neckerman, 2004-06-18 Inequality in income earnings and wealth has risen dramatically in the United States over the past three decades Most research into this issue has focused on the causes global trade new technology and economic policy rather than the consequences of inequality In Social Inequality a group of the nation s leading social scientists opens a wide ranging inquiry into the social implications of rising economic inequality Beginning with a critical evaluation of the existing research they assess whether the recent run up in economic inequality has been accompanied by rising inequality in social domains such as the quality of family and neighborhood life equal access to education and health care job satisfaction and political participation Marcia Meyers and colleagues find that many low income mothers cannot afford market based child care which contributes to inequality both at the present time by reducing maternal employment and family income and through the long term consequences of informal or low quality care on children s educational achievement At the other end of the educational spectrum Thomas Kane links the growing inequality in college attendance to rising tuition and cuts in financial aid Neil Fligstein and Taek Jin Shin show how both job security and job satisfaction have decreased for low wage workers compared with their higher paid counterparts Those who fall behind economically may also suffer diminished access to essential social resources like health care John Mullahy Stephanie Robert and Barbara Wolfe discuss why higher inequality may lead to poorer health wider inequality might mean increased stress related ailments for the poor and it might also be associated with public health care policies that favor the privileged On the political front Richard Freeman concludes that political participation has become more stratified as incomes have become more unequal Workers at the bottom of the income scale may simply be too hard pressed or too demoralized to care about political participation Social Inequality concludes with a comprehensive section on the methodological problems involved in disentangling the effects of inequality from other economic factors which will be of great benefit to future investigators While today s widening inequality may be a temporary episode the danger is that the current economic divisions may set in motion a self perpetuating cycle of social disadvantage The most comprehensive review of this quandary to date Social Inequality maps out a new agenda for research on inequality in America with important implications for public policy WALNECK'S CLASSIC CYCLE TRADER, MARCH 1995 Causey Enterprises, LLC, Wenatchee National Forest (N.F.), Plum Creek Checkerboard Access Project, To Grant Permanent Easements, Cle Elum and Naches Ranger Districts,
