Black Swan White Raven:

Black Swan, White Raven Ellen Datlow, Terri Windling, 2008-06 Offers contemporary retellings of traditional fairy tales including Gregory Frost's Sparks The Dog Rose by Sten Westgard and other works by Jane Yolen Joyce Carol Oates Nancy Kress and John Crowley

Black Swan, White Raven Ellen Datlow, Terri Windling, 2014-09-30 Dark and decidedly grown up stories inspired by fairy tales from New York Times bestsellers Karen Joy Fowler Joyce Carol Oates Susanna Clarke and more This collection from World Fantasy Award winning editors Ellen Datlow and Terri Windling proves that fairy tales don't have to be for little children and that happily ever after doesn't necessarily mean forever Here the plights of Sleeping Beauty Snow White Rapunzel and others are reimagined by some of today's finest literary talents Hansel and Gretel make several appearances not the least being at their trial for the murder of a supposedly helpless old woman The real shocking reason for Snow White's desperate flight from her home is revealed And the steadfast tin soldier made flesh and blood pays a terrible price for his love and devotion The twenty one stories and poems in this collection run the gamut from triumphant to troubling to utterly outrageous like Don Webb's brilliant merging of numerous tales into one wild hallucinogenic trip in his Three Dwarves and 2000 Maniacs All in all they mine the fantastical yarns we loved as children for new and darker gold Includes stories by Michael Cadnum Karen Joy Fowler Michael Blumlein Nalo Hopkinson Esther M Friesner Joyce Carol Oates Steve Rasnic Tem Garry Kilworth Anne Bishop Gregory Frost Sten Westgard Midori Snyder Harvey Jacobs Don Webb Bruce Glassco Pat Murphy John Crowley Nina Kiriki Hoffman Susanna Clarke Nancy Kress and Jane Yolen

Patterns, Thinking, and Cognition Howard Margolis, 1987 What happens when we think How do people make judgments While different theories abound and are heatedly debated most are based on an algorithmic model of how the brain works Howard Margolis builds a fascinating case for a theory that thinking is based on recognizing patterns and that this process is intrinsically a logical Margolis gives a Darwinian account of how pattern recognition evolved to reach human cognitive abilities Illusions of judgment standard anomalies where people consistently misjudge or misperceive what is logically implied or really present are often used in cognitive science to explore the workings of the cognitive process The explanations given for these anomalous results have generally explained only the anomaly under study and nothing more Margolis provides a provocative and systematic analysis of these illusions which explains why such anomalies exist and recur Offering empirical applications of his theory Margolis turns to historical cases to show how an individual's cognitive repertoire the available cognitive patterns and their relation to cues changes or resists changes over time Here he focuses on the change in worldview occasioned by the Copernican discovery not only how an individual might come to see things in a radically new way but how it is possible for that new view to spread and become the dominant one A reanalysis of the trial of Galileo focuses on social cognition and its interactions with politics In challenging the prevailing paradigm for understanding how the human mind works Patterns Thinking and Cognition is certain to stimulate fruitful debate

When Dreams Came True Jack Zipes, 2013-08-21 For centuries fairy tales have been a powerful mode of passing cultural values onto our children and for many these stories delight and haunt us from cradle to grave But how have these stories become so powerful and why Until now we have lacked a social history of the fairy tale to frame our understanding of the role it plays in our lives With the publication of When Dreams Came True Jack Zipes fills this gap and shifts his focus to the social and historical roots of the classical tales With coverage of the most significant writers and their works in Europe and North America from the sixteenth century to the beginning of the twentieth century When Dreams Came True is another important contribution by the master of fairy tales From the French Charles Perrault to the American L Frank Baum and the German Hermann Hesse Zipes explores the way in which particular authors used the genre of the fairy tale to articulate their personal desires political views and aesthetic preferences in their particular social context At the core of this magical tour through the history of the fairy tale is Zipes desire to elucidate the role that the fairy tale has assumed in the civilizing process the way it imparts values norms and aesthetic taste to children and adults His journey takes us to the familiar and the exotic in the great classical tales by Perrault the Brothers Grimm and Hans Christian Andersen and in such fascinating works as Pinocchio The Thousand and One Nights The Happy Prince and The Wonderful Wizard of Oz Throughout Zipes reveals the historical dimensions of the tales and demonstrates their continuing relevance in our lives today

Flannery O'Connor And Go Like This creeps in from Datlow's Year's Best the Wild Turkey of horror anthologies Plus There's a bibliography an author bio and of course our Outspoken Interview the usual cage fight between candor and common sense

The Ladies' Repository, 1874 The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well-printed little magazine contained well-written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a piece of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40,000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741-1900 The Black Tulip Alexandre Dumas, 1870
