One of the fastest growing ethnic populations in many Western societies is that of people of mixed descent However when talking about multicultural societies or mixed race the discussion usually focuses on people of black and white heritage The contributors to this collection rectify this with a broad and pluralistic approach to the experiences of mixed race people in Britain and the USA The contributors argue that people of mixed descent reveal the arbitrary and contested logic of categorisation underpinning racial divisions Falling outside the prevailing definitions of racialised identities their histories and experiences illuminate the complexities of identity formation in the contemporary multicultural context The authors examine a range of issues These include gender transracial and intercountry adoptions in Britain and the US interracial partnering and marriage mixed race and family in the English African diaspora theorising of mixed race that transcends the black white binary and includes explorations of mixtures among non white minority groups and the social and political evolution of multiracial panethnicity Women and Mixed Race Representation in Film

Mullins challenges conventional claims about biracial identification with a concept she calls black sentient mixed race identity Whereas some multiracial organizations can diminish blackness by for example championing the inclusion of multiple race options on census forms and similar documents a black sentient consciousness stresses a perception rooted in blackness a connection to a black consciousness writes the author that does not overdetermine but still plays a large role in one's racial identification By examining the nuances of this concept through close readings of fiction memoir and the public images of mixed race celebrities Dagbovie Mullins demonstrates how a black sentient mixed race identity reconciles the widening separation between black white mixed race and blackness that has been encouraged by contemporary mixed race politics and popular culture A book that promises to spark new debate and thoughtful reconsiderations of an especially timely topic Crossing Black recognizes and investigates assertions of a black centered mixed race identity that does not divorce a premodern racial identity from a postmodern racial fluidity Mixed Race Life Stories Jillian Paragg, 2023-06-30 Framing a new theoretical analysis in a field with limited data Mixed Race Life Stories The Multiracializing Gaze in Canada builds an understanding of the affective lived experiences of mixed race people the different ways they are racialized and how that may impact a politics of mixed race moving forward Race, Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond

Genevieve Fuji Johnson, Randy Enomoto, 2007-06-23 This multidisciplinary volume brings together scholars and activists to examine expressions of racism in contemporary policy areas including education labour immigration media and urban planning While anti racist struggles during the twentieth century were largely pitched against overt forms of racism e g pogroms genocide segregation apartheid and ethnic cleansing it has become increasingly apparent that there are other less visible forms of racism These subtler incarnations are of special interest to the contributors The intent of Race Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond is to probe systemic forms of racism as well as to suggest strategies for addressing them The collection is organized by themes pertinent to political and social expressions of racism in Canada and the wider world such as the state and its mediation of race education and the perpetuation of racist marginalization and the role of the media The contributors argue that in order to effectively combat racism various methodological approaches are required approaches that are reflective of the diversity of the world we seek to understand Between Sisters Evelyn L.
