Black Working Wives Pioneers Of The American Family Revolution:

Black Working Wives Bart Landry, 2000 Bart Landry's Black Working Wives is a very comprehensive account of the family revolution in America I learned a great deal reading this thoughtful book Landry's discussion of the dual career marriages of black women decades before the feminist revolution and the lessons they provide not only for understanding dynamic changes in American families but also for anticipating the future of the modern two career family is insightful and persuasive William Julius Wilson author of The Bridge over the Racial Divide Bart Landry's Black Working Wives is a perceptive analysis that connects the historical circumstances of Black women to the transformation of modern American family structures This is an important contribution which should engage general readers students and public policy leaders and deepen our understanding of the origins and value of the dual career family Darlene Clark Hine author of Speak Truth to Power Landry blends history demography and contemporary social analysis to illuminate the form and function of African American families over time He does a particularly good job of describing how decades ago middle class black families prefigured the relatively egalitarian two wage earner households that are so common today An incisive and rewarding book Jacqueline Jones author of American Work This is first rate engaging provocative solid scholarship I enthusiastically recommend it Walter R Allen University of California Los Angeles Landry has made a significant contribution to an existing body of literature on the family and race and more important he has advanced a position that is not present in that literature Troy Duster University of California Berkeley and New York University A very important book that contributes vitally to the small but growing literature on African American women and their agency in making lives for themselves and their families and in shaping American society Cheryl Townsend Gilkes Colby College

Davis Jr., 2013-06-17 The late 1980s ushered in a new era of black politics the socioeconomic transition era Coming on the heels of the protest era and politics era the current stage is characterized by the emergence of a new black middle class that came of age after the Civil Rights struggle Although class still isn't a strong factor in the external politics of the black community it is increasingly a wedge issue in the community's internal politics Black politics today is increasingly less about the interest of the larger group and more about the interest of smaller subgroups within the community Theodore J Davis Jr argues that the greatest threat to the social and political cohesiveness of the so called black community may be the rise of a socially and economically privileged group among the ranks of black America This rift has affected blacks ability to organize effectively and influence politics Davis traces the changes in economic status public opinion political power and participation and leadership over three generations of black politics The result is an insightful analysis of black politics today Earning More and Getting Less Veronica Jaris Tichenor,2005 Annotation Shows how historically men derived a great deal of power over financial and household decisions by bringing home all or most of a family s income The author demonstrates how wives instead of using their substantial incomes to negotiate more egalitarian relationships enable their husbands to perpetuate male dominance within the family After Work Helen Hester,Nick Srnicek,2023-07-18 A timely manifesto for a feminist post work politics Does it ever feel like you have no free time You come home after work and instead of finding a space of rest and relaxation you re confronted by a pile of new tasks to complete cooking cleaning looking after the kids and so on In this ground breaking book Helen Hester and Nick Srnicek lay out how unpaid work in our homes has come to take up an ever increasing portion of our lives how the vacuum of free time has been taken up by vacuuming Examining the history of the home over the past century from running water to white goods to smart homes they show how repeated efforts to reduce the burden of this work have faced a variety of barriers challenges and reversals Charting the trajectory of our domestic spaces over the past century Hester and Srnicek consider new possibilities for the future uncovering the abandoned ideas of anti housework visionaries and sketching out a path towards real free time for all where everyone is at liberty to pursue their passions or do nothing at all It will require rethinking our living arrangements our expectations and our cities Families Alex Liazos,2015-12-03 Unlike other family textbooks that mostly emphasize conflicts and problems this book also features the joys and pleasures of family living and its mutually nourishing qualities Its perspective reflects polls surveys and student essays indicating that most people value their families Families everywhere provide love support and sustenance to their members but they do so in many different arrangements Understanding the wide variety of families historically and across cultures gives the student a better basis for understanding how families change and a better grasp of more controversial changes such as the gradual acceptance by Westerners of same sex marriage and child rearing by single people Liazos offers two poignant chapters not found in other texts Family Living Chapter Six focuses on the social value of caregiving and family meals Kin and Community Chapter Seven focuses on relationships among kin and the larger community Houston and the Permanence of Segregation David Ponton,2024-02-06 A history of racism and segregation in twentieth century Houston and beyond Breaking Conventions Patricia Auspos,2023-07-13 This rich history illuminates the lives and partnerships of five married couples two British three American whose unions defied the conventions of their time and anticipated social changes that were to come in the ensuing century In all five marriages both husband and wife enjoyed thriving professional lives a shocking circumstance at a time when wealthy white married women were not supposed to have careers and career women were not supposed to marry Patricia Auspos examines what we can learn from the relationships of the Palmers the Youngs the Parsons the Webbs and the Mitchells exploring the implications of their experiences for our understanding of the history of gender equality and of professional work In expert and lucid fashion Auspos draws out the interconnections between the institutions of marriage and professional life at a time when both were undergoing critical changes by looking specifically at how a pioneering generation tried to combine the two Based on extensive archival research and drawing on mostly unpublished letters journals pocket diaries poetry and autobiographical writings Breaking Conventions tells the intimate stories of five path breaking marriages and the social dynamics they confronted and revealed This book will appeal to scholars students and anyone interested in women s studies gender studies masculinity studies histories of women in the professions and the history of marriage

The Shriver Report: A Woman's Nation Changes Everything Maria Shriver, 2009-10-20 When we look back over the 20th century and try to understand what's happened to workers and their families and the challenges they now face the movement of women out of the home and into paid employment stands out as a unique and powerful transformation At one level everything has changed And yet so much more change is needed Even though we were all witness to the shift of women becoming equal or primary breadwinners over many years these changes seem somehow to have snuck up on us As a result our policy landscape remains stuck in an idealized past where the typical family was composed of a married for life couple with a full time breadwinner and full time homemaker who raised the children herself This report contemplates what a new America should look like after we finally embrace this important new dynamic in our lives and the changes in our homes and businesses it has caused It examines every institution including Health Care Health care and child care must be overhauled to accommodate the 24 hour work day Education With more women acting as equal or primary breadwinners in the family it is critical that there are resources to provide better and up to date education for all ages Business Research shows that corporations with more women in the board room are more successful than those with all male boards With that in mind the report puts forth many recommendations to allow businesses to get the best out of all employees by thinking outside the box of old fashioned models in scheduling benefits and role playing Media The disconnect between how women are portrayed in the media and reality is as present as ever although women are now portrayed as thin well dressed successful stars in their careers and home lives the reality is that women still struggle to have it all The report highlights the many disparities that still exist and calls for specific changes Faith Many religious institutions have resisted the integration of women into the higher ranks of spirituality and many feel that it is to the religious community s detriment Marriage the dynamics of marriage have changed as gender roles have become less clear and there is more flexibility in the division of responsibilities Yet no one is sure what the rules are any more This section which includes candid essays from men about fatherhood and masculinity addresses the tricky balancing act that many couples are engaged in The report will be the cornerstone of the 2009 Women s Conference held in California October 26 27th of 2009 The Women s Conference is the nation s premier forum for women and is hosted by California First Lady Maria Shriver and Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger The Conference also known as The California Governor and First Lady s Conference on Women has grown from a California initiative for working professionals into an international network of women from all walks of life backgrounds and perspectives and a life changing experience for the thousands of women who have attended The mission of The Women s Conference is to inspire empower and educate women to be Architects of Change in their own lives and in the lives of others

A Contested Terrain AnneMarie Brosnan, 2025-03-04 A testament to the resilience and determination of Black North Carolinians to achieve educational equality This book examines the educational experiences of Black North Carolinians during the American Civil War and Reconstruction period 1861 1877 By highlighting the collaborative efforts that led to the growing network of schools for the formerly enslaved people it argues that schooling the Freedpeople was a contested terrain fraught with conflicting visions of Black freedom and the role education should play Although Black men and women emerged as the driving force behind the educational endeavors of this period their work was facilitated by Northern aid and missionary societies the federally mandated Freedmen s Bureau and over 1 400 teachers from various regional and racial backgrounds Yet the educational landscape was far from uniform and the individuals and organizations involved had their distinct visions regarding the nature and purpose of Freedpeople s education Through the use of qualitative and quantitative research methods this book offers new insights into the reasons why Black and white Northerners and Southerners elected to become teachers By examining their diverse motivations and experiences it argues that attitudes toward Freedpeople s education were complex and fluid defying neat characterization Despite mounting obstacles and opposition to their work Black North Carolinians unrelenting quest for education ultimately gave rise to free public schooling for both races the professionalization of Black teachers and an extensive network of Historically Black Colleges and Universities
