Black Writers In Latin America:

Black Writers and Latin America Richard L. Jackson,1998 In this study the author begins by examining the influence of Africa and Spain upon the literatures of African Americans and Latin Americans He explores the reciprocal exchange of influences among artists of African descent in the United States and in Latin America from established writers to a new generation of writers including women Black Writers in Latin America Richard L. Jackson,1979 Manuel Zapata Olivella and the "darkening" of Latin American Literature Antonio D. Tillis,2005 Black Writers and Latin America Richard L. Jackson,1998 In this study the author begins by examining the influence of Africa and Spain upon the literatures of African Americans and Latin Americans He explores the reciprocal exchange of influences among artists of African descent in the United States and in Latin America from established writers to a new generation of writers including women Black Writing, Culture, and the State in Latin America Jerome C. Branche,2015-11-30 Imagine the tension that existed between the emerging nations and governments throughout the Latin American world and the cultural life of former enslaved Africans and their descendants A world of cultural production in the form of literature poetry art music and eventually film would often simultaneously contravene or cooperate with the newly established order of Latin American nations negotiating independence and a new political and cultural balance In Black Writing Culture and the State in Latin America Jerome Branche presents the reader with the complex landscape of art and literature among Afro Hispanic and Latin artists Branche and his contributors describe individuals such as Juan Francisco Manzano who wrote an autobiography on the slave experience in Cuba during the nineteenth century The reader finds a thriving Afro Hispanic theatrical presence throughout Latin America and even across the Atlantic The role of black women in poetry and literature comes to the forefront in the Caribbean presenting a powerful reminder of the diversity that defines the region All too often the disciplines of film studies literary criticism and art history ignore the opportunity to collaborate in a dialogue Branche and his contributors present a unified approach however suggesting that cultural production should not be viewed narrowly especially when studying the achievements of the Afro Latin world Black Literature and Humanism in Latin America Richard L. Jackson,2008-08-01 In Black Literature and Humanism in Latin America Richard L Jackson explores literary Americanism through writings of black Hispanic authors such as Carlos Guillermo Wilson Quince Duncan and Nelson Estupi n Bass that in many ways provide a microcosm for the larger literature Jackson traces the roots of Afro Hispanic literature from the early twentieth century Afrocriollo movement the Harlem Renaissance of Latin America to the fiction and criticism of black Latin Americans today Black humanism arose from Afro Hispanics self discovery of their own humanity and the realization that over the years they had become not only defenders of threatened cultures but also symbolic guardians of humanity This humanist tradition had enabled writers such as Manuel Zapata Olivella to write of a Latin America from below the slave ship deck and from inside the mind of Africa Though many writers have adopted black literary models in their quest for a poetry of sources of fundamental human values Jackson demonstrates that literature about blacks by blacks themselves is clearly separate from yet instrumental to these other works Relating the vision of Latin American blacks not only to other Latin American writers but also to North American literary critics such as Eugene Goodheart and John Gardner Jackson stresses the universal power of resisting oppression and injustice through the language of humanism

Writing Rumba Miguel Arnedo-Gómez, 2006 Arising in the heyday of the music recently made famous by the Buena Vista Social Club afrocubanismo was an artistic and intellectual movement in Cuba in the 1920s and 1930s that tried to convey a national and racial identity Through poetry this movement was the first serious attempt on the part of mostly white Cuban intellectuals to produce a national literature that incorporated elements from the Afro Cuban traditions of lower class urban blacks One of its main objectives was to project an image of Cuban identity as a harmonious process of fusion between black and white people and cultures The notion of a unified nation without racial conflicts and the idea of a mulatto Cuban culture and identity continue to play a prominent role in the Cuban imagination The first book length treatment of the poetry of this movement Writing Rumba The Afrocubanista Movement in Poetry questions the assumption that the poetry did manage to symbolize racial reconciliation and unification At the same time it reveals a process of literary transculturation by which the dominant literature of European origins was radically transformed through the incorporation of formal principles from Afro Cuban dance and music forms To make his case Miguel Arnedo G mez establishes the nature of the movement s connections to Cuban blacks during this time analyzes the poetry s links with the represented cultures on the basis of anthropological and ethnographic research and explores the thought of leading figures of the movement tying their discourse to specific sociocultural factors in Cuba at the time Relating the poetry to music and dance he further illuminates the interplay of power and culture in a social context Essential for understanding Cuban nationalism and race relations today Writing Rumba will appeal to an interdisciplinary audience not only in regional cultural and anthropological fields but also in the fields of music dance and literature
