Black Docker:

Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France's treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy

The Color of Liberty Sue Peabody, Tyler Stovall, 2003-06-30 DIV Traces the multiple histories of race and racial thinking over time in France and in Francophone areas of the globe div

Black African Cinema Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 2023-09-01 From the proselytizing lantern slides of early Christian missionaries to contemporary films that look at Africa through an African lens N Frank Ukadike explores the development of black African cinema He examines the impact of culture and history and of technology and co production on filmmaking throughout Africa Every aspect of African contact with and contribution to cinematic practices receives attention British colonial cinema the thematic and stylistic diversity of the pioneering francophone films the effects of television on the motion picture industry and patterns of television documentary filmmaking in anglophone regions Ukadike gives special attention to the growth of independent production in Ghana and Nigeria the unique Yoruba theater film tradition and the militant liberationist tendencies of lusophone filmmakers He offers a lucid discussion of oral tradition as a creative matrix and the relationship between cinema and other forms of popular culture And by contrasting new African films with those based on the traditional paradigm he explores the trends emerging from the eighties and nineties Clearly written and accessible to specialist and general reader alike Black African Cinema's analysis of key films and issues the most comprehensive in English is unique The book's pan Africanist vision heralds important new strategies for appraising a cinema that increasingly attracts the attention of film students and Africanists From the proselytizing lantern slides of early Christian missionaries to contemporary films that look at Africa through an African lens N Frank Ukadike explores the development of black African cinema He examines the impact of culture and history and

Black British Culture and Society Kwesi Owusu, 2003-09-02 Black British Culture and Society brings together in one indispensable volume key writings on the Black community in Britain from the Windrush immigrations of the late 1940s and 1950s to contemporary multicultural Britain Combining classic writings on Black British life with new specially commissioned articles Black British Culture and Society records the history of the post war African and Caribbean diaspora tracing the transformations of Black culture in British society Black British Culture and Society explores key facets of the Black experience charting Black Britons struggles to carve out their own identity and place in an often hostile society The articles reflect the rich diversity of the Black British experience addressing economic and social issues such as health religion education feminism old age community and race relations as well as Black culture and the arts with discussions of performance carnival sport style literature theatre art and film making The contributors examine the often tense relationship between successful Black public figures and the media and address the role of the Black intellectual in public life Featuring interviews with noted Black artists and writers such as Aubrey Williams Mustapha Matura and Caryl Phillips and including articles from key contemporary thinkers such as Stuart Hall A Sivanandan Paul Gilroy and Henry Louis Gates Black British Culture and Society provides a rich resource of analysis critique and comment on the Black community's distinctive contribution to cultural life in Britain today The Noir Atlantic Pim Higginson, 2011-06-08 The Noir Atlantic follows the influence of African American author Chester Himes on francophone African crime fiction Ousmane Sembène Samba Gadjigo, 2010-05-06 Samba Gadjigo presents a unique personal portrait and intellectual history of novelist and filmmaker Ousmane Sembène Though Sembène has persistently deflected attention away from his personality his life and his past Gadjigo has had unprecedented access to the artist and his family This book is the first comprehensive biography of Sembène and contributes a critical appraisal of his life and art in the context of the political and social influences on his work Beginning with Sembène's life in Casamance Senegal and ending with his militant career as a dockworker in Marseilles Gadjigo places Sembène into the context of African colonial and postcolonial culture and charts his achievements in film and literature This landmark book reveals the inner workings of one of Africa's most distinguished and controversial figures

The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 The New York City Draft Riots Iver Bernstein, 1991-10-10 For five days in July 1863 at the height of the Civil War New York City was under siege Angry rioters burned draft offices closed factories destroyed railroad tracks and telegraph lines and hunted policemen and soldiers Before long the rioters turned their murderous wrath against the black community In the end at least 105 people were killed making the draft riots the most violent insurrection in American history In this vividly written book Iver Bernstein tells the compelling story of the New York City draft riots He details how what began as a demonstration against the first federal draft soon expanded into a sweeping assault against the local institutions and personnel of Abraham Lincoln's Republican Party as well as a grotesque race riot Bernstein identifies participants dynamics causes and consequences and demonstrates that the winners and losers of the July 1863 crisis were anything but clear even after five regiments rushed north from Gettysburg restored order In a tour de force of historical detection Bernstein shows that to evaluate the significance of the riots we must enter the minds and experiences of a cast of characters Irish and German immigrant workers Wall Street businessmen who frantically debated whether to declare martial law nervous politicians in Washington and at City Hall Along the way he offers new perspectives on a wide range of topics Civil War society and politics patterns of race ethnic and class relations the rise of organized labor styles of leadership philanthropy and reform strains of individualism and the rise of machine politics in Boss Tweed's Tammany regime An in depth study of one of the most troubling and least understood crises in American history The New York City Draft Riots is the first book to reveal the broader political and historical context the complex of social cultural and political relations that made the bloody events of July 1863 possible New Orleans Dockworkers Daniel Rosenberg,1988-01-01 This book investigates the conditions which led to a remarkable instance of interracial solidarity known as half and half an expression used to identify the cooperation and cohesion among 10 000 Black and white dockworkers during the early twentieth century Through interracial agreements which divided work and union leadership equally between Blacks and whites dockworkers reduced the workload and pace imposed by shipping firms and formed the basis for the general dock strike of 1907 described as one of the most stirring manifestations of labor solidarity in American history Rosenberg explores the phenomenon of half and half within the context of progressive segregation as employers encouraged competition between and division of the races Rosenberg also probes the nature of longshore work dockworkers views of Jim Crow and industrial unionist trends as well as the conclusions drawn by dockers after the levee race riots of the 1890s the working of the white and negro races on terms of equality has been the fruitful source of most of the trouble on the New Orleans levee Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi,2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature's development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index Immigrant and Ethnic-Minority Writers since 1945 ,2018-07-17 This study analyses how immigrant and ethnic minority writers have challenged the understanding of certain national literatures and have markedly changed them In other national contexts ideologies and institutions have contained the challenge these writers pose to national literatures Case studies of the emergence and recognition of immigrant and ethnic minority writing come from fourteen national contexts These include classical immigration countries such as Canada and the United States countries where immigration accelerated and entered public debate after World War II such as the United Kingdom France and Germany as well as countries rarely discussed in this context such as Brazil and Japan Finally this study uses these individual analyses to discuss this writing as an international phenomenon Sandra R G Almeida Maria Zilda F Cury Sarah De Mul Sneja Gunew Dave Gunning Kristina Iwata Weickgenannt Martina Kamm Liesbeth Minnaard Maria Oikonomou Wenche Ommundsen Marie Orton Laura Reeck Daniel Rothenb hler Cathy J Schlund Vials Wiebke Sievers Bettina Spoerri Christl Verduyn Sandra Vlasta Under African Skies Charles R. Larson,2025-06-25 Spanning a wide geographical range this collection features many of the now prominent first generation of African writers and draws attention to a new generation of writers Powerful intriguing and essentially non Western these stories will be welcome by an audience truly ready for multicultural voices Undesirable Jennifer Anne Boittin,2022-10-27 Examining little known policing archives in France Senegal and Cambodia Jennifer Boittin unearths the stories of hundreds of women labeled undesirable by the French imperial police in the early twentieth century These undesirables were often women traveling alone women who were poor or ill women of color proclaiming their Frenchness to move throughout the empire or women whose intimate lives were deemed unruly Undesirability often brought alongside it immobility or imposed migration French officials routinely either denied passage throughout the empire or attempted to relocate women as they saw fit To refute the label women wrote impassioned letters to police and ministers throughout France French West Africa and French Indochina Some emphasized their undesirable qualities to suggest that they needed the care and protection of the state to support their movements Others used the empire s own laws around Frenchness and mobility to challenge state interference illustrating their independence Tacking between advocacy and supplication these women summoned intimate details to move beyond contest or confound surveillance efforts and the intrusions of imperial policing bringing to life a practice that Boittin terms passionate mobility In considering how ordinary European Southeast Asian and West African women pursued autonomy security companionship or simply a better existence in the face of police surveillance and control Undesirable illuminates pressing contemporary issues of migration and violence Deleuze and Race Arun Saldanha,2012-11-26 The first collection to theorise race and racism through the philosophy of Gilles DeleuzeIn this volume an international and multidisciplinary team of scholars inaugurates the Deleuzian study of race through a wide ranging and evocative array of case studies Deleuze and Guattari provided new concepts of how humans are differentiated through processes of state formation capitalism madness and desire While sexual difference has received much attention in Deleuze studies racial difference is a thornier problematic As this collection of essays shows Deleuze and Guattari had extremely original things to say about race and the politics of phenotype and origin is never far from any engaged consideration of how the world works Senegal Sean Connolly,2019-02-01 This new thoroughly updated edition of Bradt s Senegal continues to offer far and away the greatest depth of coverage for this increasingly popular part of West Africa With over 350 pages of detailed description and 40 maps this remains the definitive source of information to a country that is often described as the whole of West Africa in microcosm This new edition includes details of the rapidly changing transport situation notably the opening of the new international airport and the first bridge to span the Gambia River All regions of the country are covered including detailed information on access to Senegal s national parks with detailed maps itineraries and practical information on transport accommodation and eating for each region Senegal boasts a variety of landscapes and cultures that belie its compact size Northern desert wilds give way to the rain soaked Casamance fringed by hundreds of kilometres of pristine beaches and the fantastically frenetic capital city Dakar surrounded by ocean and proudly perched at the westernmost point on the African continent This smorgasbord of landscapes is all accessible within a day's travel making Senegal the perfect choice for anyone looking to sink their teeth into West Africa for the first time or the hundredth Natural assets aside Senegal is home to a world of man made delectations Dakar's nightclubs throb well into the morning hours and offer a rare chance to dance yourself silly with superstar musicians on their home turf With one of Africa's most prolific arts scenes Senegal attracts numerous visitors for its cultural attractions and this book provides a thorough and accessible introduction to the music art film and literature of this most creative of countries Beyond the capital Saint Louis charm is an enchanting throwback to the colonial glamour of the 19th century and sleepy le de Gor e is a haunting testament to colonial horror as visitors peer through the door of no return where thousands destined for the Americas glimpsed their homes for the final time With all new first hand research Bradt's Senegal is the only guide ready to take you to all corners of this enchanting land

Francophone Afropean Literatures Nicki Hitchcott, Dominic Thomas, 2014-04-10 This volume explores the concept and possibility of a black European community by analysing the ways in which contemporary Francophone African writers articulate and interrogate their complex relationships with European society culture and history

Sembene David Murphy, 2000 Sembene is one of the major figures of African literature and also one of Africa's foremost film directors This is the first study to give an overview of his work in fiction and on screen This book examines Sembene Ousmane's radical reinterpretation of African history and culture focusing on representations of the African city animism the role of women colonialism and neo colonialism The author argues that Sembene imagines alternatives to the dominant narratives of both Africa in general and Senegal in particular North America Africa World Press
