The Black Dress Pamela Freeman, 2010 She is old now and dying but once she was young young and poor and smart and drawn desperately to another life This is the story of an unconventional woman who was born into a time and a religion bound by convention What Mary MacKillop did with her life is part of history What Does it Mean to be a Saint? Josephine Laffin, 2010 In 2010 Mary MacKillop became the first Australian citizen to be officially proclaimed a saint by the Catholic Church This event and the long canonisation process which preceded it has received much coverage in the Australian media Yet confusion persists over what exactly it means to be a saint In this book scholars from the Catholic Theological College of South Australia and the Flinders University School of Theology share reflections from different perspectives historical biblical philosophical theological ethical spiritual liturgical and personal Veneration of St Mary MacKillop is set in the context of a tradition which can be traced back to Christian martyrs in the ancient Roman Empire and which it is argued is still meaningful today Apocryphal and Literary Influences on Galway Diasporic History Gay Lynch, 2010-10-12 Apocryphal and Literary Influences on Galway Diasporic History establishes that apocryphal stories in all their transformations contribute to collective memory Common characteristics frame their analysis irreducible and enduring elements often embedded in archetypal drama lack of historical verification establishment in collective memory revivals after periods of dormancy subjection to political and economic manipulation implicit speculation and literary transformations This book contextualises Unsettled an Australian novel about a convict play derived from the Irish apocryphal story of The Magistrate of Galway and documents previously unpublished primary material including apocryphal stories passed through generations of descendants of settlers Martin and Maria Lynch and The Hibernian Father a play by Irish convict Edward Geoghegan It puts forward new hypotheses that the Irish hero Cuchulain may have provided a template for the archetypal and apocryphal story of the Magistrate of Galway that disgraced Trinity College medical student and aspiring writer Edward

Geoghegan enacted and recounted the same father son archetypal conflict when he was transported to Botany Bay in 1839 and wrote the The Hibernian Father based on the Magistrate of Galway that working class Irish families were marginalised in South east South Australian historical records that oral apocryphal Lynch stories may be true that Kate Grenville's The Secret River 2006 offers an alternative history of the Hawkesbury River settlement by some definitions apocryphal The mystery of Geoghegan's disappearance is solved and knowledge about his life increased French theorist Gerard Genette's notion advanced in Palimpsests Literature in the Second Degree 1997 of all novels being transtextual provides a model for the analysis of relationships between these key apocryphal texts

Women, Religion, and the Gift Morny Joy, 2016-10-19

This book introduces the special dynamics of women and their close relationships with the gift in both past and contemporary religious settings Written from a cross cultural perspective it challenges depictions of women's roles in religion where they have been relegated to compliance with specifically designated gendered attributes The different chapters contest the resultant stereotypes that deny women agency Each chapter describes women as engaged in an aspect of religion from that of ritual specialists to benefactors and patrons or even innovators The volume examines topics such as sainthood and sacrifice so as to refine these ideas in constructive ways that do not devalue women It also examines the meaning of the term gift today embracing the term in both figurative and literal ways Such a collection of diverse women's writings and activities provides a significant contribution to their quest for recognition and also suggests ways this can be understood and realized today

Deep Water Pamela Freeman, 2011-05-05 As unrest stirs across the Eleven domains subversive questions lead to unexpected answers And ghosts of the dead walk in increasing numbers for those few that can see In a land where stonecasters foretell destinies for a fee and gods talk to those who can listen the future is uncertain and is built on a bloodsoaked past So what did happen one thousand years ago when Acton's people came across the mountains Was Acton himself a hero and liberator or a bloodthirsty invader and scourge of the travelling people Wild magic gives Bramble some dangerous insights into a land's disturbed history And why did Ash's Traveller father not teach him the secret songs of his people The ultimate answers to all these questions are hidden in time where perhaps they should stay

Ember and Ash

Pamela Freeman, 2011-05-01 The old ones will have their revenge Two peoples have been fighting over the same land for a thousand years Invaders crushed the original inhabitants and ancient powers have reluctantly given way to newer magics But Ember was to change all this with a wedding to bind these warring people together until her future goes up in flames Ember's husband to be is murdered by a vengeful elemental god who sees peace as a breach of faith Set on retribution she enlists the help of Ash son of a seer Together they will pit themselves against elementals of fire and ice in a last attempt to end the conflicts that have scarred their past They must look to the present as old furies are waking to violence and are eager to reclaim their people

Blood Ties Pamela Freeman, 2011-05-05 Bramble is impetuous with a talent for attracting trouble and she finds it when an accident brands her a criminal But she can expect no mercy Her dark colouring marks her as a

Traveller one of the despised original people of the domains And the local gods are warning her to flee In Turvite where ghosts drift along dark cobbled streets Ash must leave the Road to begin an apprenticeship with the only person who will accept a Traveller His new mistress is devious yet irresistible but the gods have other plans for Ash Death casts Bramble and Ash on separate journeys across valleys and mountains deep into themselves and the dark history of their ancestors The gods have not forgotten and old blood is calling for vengeance Mary Mackillop ,2010 Never See a Need Marie Therese Foale,2016-06-30 Never See a Need is an account of the lives and works of the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart in South Australia from the time of their foundation in 1866 until Mary MacKillop s canonisation in 2010 Much happened during those 144 years There were dark times and bright times times of growth and expansion interspersed with times of decline times of stability and times of change and through it all the members of the Congregation never forgot their call to do what they could to remedy the evils and ills of their society They were educators but they also looked out for the welfare of the poor and disadvantaged in different ways as they moved across the landscape to wherever they were needed always a people on the move but always stable in their devotion to their ministry Evolution of a Movement Mary Cresp,2022-12-01 This is of course a story of how a religious order gave new expression to its distinctive values and tradition in establishing a wider community of lay associates The Sisters of St Joseph from the outset were practical adaptable and relatively informal focused on meeting needs where they saw them and stretching themselves thin to do so Mary Cresp captures these Josephite values beautifully as she unfolds the development of the order s Associates Companions But it s not a book just about the Josephites It s much more a case study in how Catholic communities in several countries have responded to the challenges of the Second Vatican Council and to changing times For that it s well worth a read Peter Cahalan PhD formerly CEO of the History Trust of South Australia In her history of Josephite Associates over 40 years Mary Cresp rsj informs her scholarly experience and thoroughness with documentation and contributions from more than 200 people who were themselves involved in creating that story She describes the evolution of Josephite Associates to Josephite Companions as a story of relationships It is a story with lessons about relationships and formation but also about persistence of vision about living with unresolved questions about fostering the emergence of new leadership and above all about walking together with joy in a shared baptismal mission Anne Benjamin Honorary Professor Australian Catholic University Consultant to Biographical Dictionary of Australian Catholic Educators Journeying with Joseph Mary Cresp,2021-07-15 The essays in this very timely volume each in its own way journey with Joseph The discerning reader will enjoy the richness and variety of Joseph s legacy as seen through the eyes of the writers who bear the title Josephite and who generously share their knowledge experience reflection and prayer of this saint whom Julian Tenison Woods calls the Prince of God s House who was among the poorest of men and hidden with Mary and Jesus 4 September 1887 Sister Laretta Baker rsj Congregational Leader Sisters of St Joseph Lochinvar Who better than the Josephites to give us an inside look at the character who gave early shape to Jesus Jewish life and spirituality When Mary MacKillop and Julian Woods were establishing a new religious group in Australia why did they turn to Joseph as their identity marker Human aspirations Gospel verses and ancient legends all met to sow the seeds that would flourish in this soil and be known with respect and gratitude as the Joeys Professor Mary Coloe pbvm Yarra Theological Union University of Divinity Melbourne It is often said that actions speak louder than words In the case of St Joseph this is so true With no recorded utterances in the Scriptures we have only to rely on his deeds Journeying with Joseph is a timely publication not only for the Year of St Joseph but one which allows us to delve more deeply into how we might draw inspiration from him to follow more closely the path of being a missionary Disciple in a world deeply affected by COVID The net is cast well and wide when you survey the topics contained in this book and these show that while St Joseph may not have spoken any words his deeds were and are profound Patrick O Regan DD Archbishop of Adelaide Josephite Companion

A Priceless Treasure Marie Crowley,2017-01-11 In July 1872 three Sisters of St Joseph and one lay woman arrived at The Vale a village near Bathurst New South Wales They had come from Adelaide in response to an invitation from the Catholic bishop of Bathurst to establish a foundation of the newly founded Congregation in his diocese the first Josephite foundation in New South Wales Sister Teresa McDonald was the leader or Superior of the founding community Born in Scotland in 1838 she had come to Australia with her parents finally settling in Adelaide A friend of both Father Julian Tenison Woods and Mother Mary MacKillop she joined the Sisters of St Joseph in 1867 This book explores her early life and her time as a Sister of St Joseph in Adelaide where she served as the first Provincial of the Congregation in South Australia It also gives particular attention to Teresa s short years at The Vale her struggle with ill health and her death in January 1876 Full

Circle Pamela Freeman,2010-07-01 The gripping final volume of the Castings Trilogy a sweeping fantasy set in a troubled land of warlords and outcasts where the echoes of past atrocities taint the present The road is long and the end is death If we re lucky Saker the enchanter will stop at nothing to destroy the Eleven Domains but has he unleashed a worse evil As he builds his terrifying army of ghosts screams from the nether world torment him foretelling a greater disaster than he can imagine When Ash is forced to acknowledge his true self in the caverns of the Deep he realises that all power is duty bound He helps Bramble raise Acton s ghost although plagued by doubts Who is this ancient warrior murderer or saviour And will he help strangers protect a world he has never known Grieving an impossible love Bramble learns the painful truth behind the demon s prophecy She is a leader born but will she reach Turvite in time to face Saker and save the Domains
