Sexual Customs of Africa from Prehistory to the Present Day ... Translated by Peter Whigham. With Illustrations. Boris de RACHEWILTZ,Peter Whigham,1964

The Sexual History of the Global South Saskia Wieringa,Horacio Sívori,2013-04-11 The Sexual History of the Global South explores the gap between sexuality studies and post colonial cultural critique Featuring twelve case studies based on original historical and ethnographic research from countries in Africa Asia and Latin America the book examines the sexual investments underlying the colonial project and the construction of modern nation states Covering issues of heteronormativity post colonial amnesia regarding non normative sexualities women s sexual agency the policing of the boundaries between the public and the private realm sexual citizenship the connections between LGBTQ activism and processes of state formation and the emergence of sexuality studies in the global South this collection is of great geographical historical and topical significance Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk,Thomas Hendriks,2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today s globalized media Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide though the quickly expanding literature This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein Scholars working in Africa the U S and Europe reflect on issues of representation health and bio politics same sex relationships and identity transactional economies of sex religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective Heterosexual Africa? Marc Epprecht,2008-08-15 Heterosexual Africa The History of an Idea from the Age of Exploration to the Age of AIDS builds from Marc Epprecht s previous book Hungochani which focuses explicitly on same sex desire in southern Africa to explore the historical processes by which a singular heterosexual identity for Africa was constructed by anthropologists ethnopsychologists colonial officials African elites and most recently health care workers seeking to address the HIV AIDS pandemic This is an eloquently written accessible book based on a rich and diverse range of sources that will find enthusiastic audiences in classrooms and in the general public Epprecht argues that Africans just like people all over the world have always had a range of sexualities and sexual identities Over the course of the last two centuries however African societies south of the Sahara have come to be viewed as singularly heterosexual Epprecht carefully traces the many routes by which this singularity this heteronormativity became a dominant culture In telling a fascinating story that will surely generate lively debate Epprecht makes his project speak to a range of literatures queer theory the new imperial history African social history queer and women s studies and biomedical literature on the HIV AIDS pandemic He does this with a light enough hand that his story is not bogged down by endless references to particular debates Heterosexual Africa aims to understand an enduring stereotype about Africa and Africans It asks how Africa came to be defined as a homosexual free zone during the colonial era and how this idea not only survived the transition to independence but flourished under conditions of globalization and early panicky responses to HIV AIDS Human Sexuality Vern L. Bullough, Bonnie Bullough, 2014-01-14 First Published in 1994 The purpose of an encyclopedia is to gather in one place information that otherwise would be difficult to find Bring together a collection of articles that are authoritative and reflect a variety of viewpoints The contributors come from a wide range of disciplines from nursing to medicine from biology to history and include sociologists psychologists anthropologists political scientists literary specialists academics and non academics clinicians and teachers researchers and generalists Aliens in the Household of God Paul Germond, Steve De Gruchy, 1997 This groundbreaking volume explores and challenges the prejudice and discrimination that gay people experience within South African churches Drawing from a broad and diverse base these stories and essays suggest that heterosexism is the problem Sexual Freedom and Its Impact on Economic Growth and Prosperity Feler Bose, 2024-12-20 Many today believe that all forms of freedom economic political and sexual are inherently beneficial However J D Unwin argues that limiting sexual freedom is crucial for cultural and economic advancement He observed that sexual freedom and economic freedom are substitutes but did not fully explain why In this book Feler Bose aims to provide a causal explanation for what he calls Unwin s thesis Unwin suggests that Pauline absolute monogamy was essential for the sustained economic growth experienced by Northwest Europe particularly England Regarding this the Protestant Reformation played a pivotal role by promoting literacy and Bible reading which helped internalize norms across a broad section of the population This cultural shift contributed to the economic takeoff in the nineteenth century The book also examines various theories on why rapid economic growth occurred in England and argues that these theories are incomplete without considering Unwin s thesis By understanding the relationship between sexual norms and economic development we can gain deeper insights into the factors that drive societal progress This exploration highlights the importance of cultural and moral frameworks in shaping economic outcomes and underscores the complex interplay between different forms of freedom Research on Gender and Sexualities in Africa Tamale, Sylvia, 2017-07-20 This collection comprises a diverse and stimulating collection of essays on questions of gender and sexualities crafted by both established and younger researchers The collection includes fascinating insights into topics as varied as the popularity of thong underwear in urban Kenya the complexity of Tanzanian youth s negotiation of HIV cultures the dialogues between religion and controversial questions in sexualities activism and the meaning of living as a Zimbabwean girl who became HIV positive because her mother had no access to antiretroviral drugs during pregnancy Some pieces deepen contemporary debates others initiate new questions The collection seeks to sustain and invigorate research policy making and continentally focused thought on difficult yet compelling realities The Dialectics of Transformation in Africa E. Bongmba, 2006-03-15 A discussion of political and religious crisis in Africa this book covers such topics as democratic transition good governance civil society and the African renaissance Elias K Bongmba proposes humanistic interventions centred on the recovery of interpersonal relations and seeks to understand the ongoing struggles in Africa Out in Africa Chantal J. Zabus, 2013 Homosexuality was and still is thought to be quintessentially un-African Yet in this book Chantal Zabus examines the anthropological cultural and literary representations of male and female same sex desire from early colonial contacts between Europe and Africa in the nineteenth century to the present Covering a broad geographical spectrum from Mali to South Africa and from Senegal to Kenya and adopting a comparative approach encompassing two colonial languages English and French and some African languages Out in Africa charts developments in Sub Saharan African texts and contexts through the work of 7 colonial and some 25 postcolonial writers The Erotic Margin Irvin C. Schick, 2020-05-05 Gender and sexuality have long held an important place in western attitudes towards the people and regions of the world from the titillating accounts of harem life in the Middle East to terrifying captivity narratives of North America The Erotic Margin is a first attempt to pull together the large disparate and often contradictory literature and view it as a corpus Schick argues that such images served to construct spatial difference and thereby helped Europe represent its own place in the world during an age of rapid geographical expansion Informed by the recent literature on human geography as well as feminist and postcolonial theory The Erotic Margin focuses on erotica and sexual anthropology as well as travel literature in which from the eighteenth century on both traveler and destination were portrayed in unmistakably gendered and sexualized terms Reviewing examples ranging from the New World to India the Near East to black Africa and the South sea islands to the Barbary Coast the book reflects on why foreign women were variously portrayed as alluring or threatening foreign men as effeminate weaklings or dangerous rapists and foreign lands as sexual idylls or hearts of darkness Disgrace Joanna Bourke, 2022-09-26 Looking across time and the globe a critical history of sexual violence what causes it and how we overcome it Disgrace is the first truly global history of sexual violence The book explores how sexual violence varies widely across time and place from nineteenth century peasant women in Ireland who were abducted as a way of forcing marriage to date raped high school students in twentieth century America and from girls and women violated by Russian soldiers in 1945 to Dalit women raped by men of higher castes today It delves into the factors that facilitate violence including institutions ideologies and practices but also gives voice to survivors and activists drawing inspiration from their struggles Ultimately Joanna Bourke intends to forge a transnational feminism that will promote a more harmonious equal and rape and violence free world New Perspectives on African-Centred Education in Canada George

Jerry Sefa Dei, Arlo Kempf, 2013 New Perspectives on African Centred Education in Canada is the first study of African centred schooling in the Canadian context. Starting with an in depth look at the creation of an Africentric public school within the Toronto District School Board it tells the story of the movement behind that school's creation and lays bare a rich history of activism, organization and resistance on the part of numerous African Canadian communities and their allies. The book presents a critical overview of the issues facing racialized students and offers a unique vision of African centred education as a strategy for student engagement and social transformation. The authors, well known public commentators on African centred education in Canada, offer a comprehensive analysis of the media controversy surrounding African centred schools as well as candid reflections on the personal challenges of fighting a largely unpopular battle.

Exploring Black Sexuality Robert Staples, 2006-04-27 In this pioneering nonobjective study a distinguished Black sexologist tackles one of the most controversial aspects of American race relations. The subject of Black sexuality has been widely discussed in every possible popular format for the past four hundred years yet serious scholarship in the area is lacking. While Black sexuality has been a pervasive force in American life it has been too sensitive a topic for Black or white authors to write about in a serious non polemical format. Robert Staples explores same sex attitudes and behavior, interracial sexual relations, rape, prostitution, pornography and the stereotypes of Black sexual superiority in this scholarly yet accessible collection. Staples shows how vaunted and feared sexual differences were the raison d'être of Southern school segregation, race based laws, white flight from the inner cities, the double sexual standard, lynchings and race riots. This groundbreaking study concludes with a speculation on the future of Black sexuality in the 21st century based on our knowledge of current demographic and economic forces.

The Construction of Homosexuality David F. Greenberg, 2008-10-29 At various times homosexuality has been considered the noblest of loves, a horrible sin, a psychological condition or grounds for torture and execution. David F. Greenberg's careful encyclopedic and important new book argues that homosexuality is only deviant because society has constructed or defined it as deviant. The book takes us over vast terrains of example and detail in the history of homosexuality.
