Black Fatherhood II Black Women Talk About Their Men:

Black Men on Race, Gender, and Sexuality Devon Carbado, 1999-07 A groundbreaking anthology of essays providing commentary on gender and sexuality inclusion in the antiracist movement In late 1995 the Million Man March drew hundreds of thousands of black men to Washington DC and seemed even to skeptics a powerful sign not only of black male solidarity but also of black racial solidarity Yet while generating a sense of community and common purpose the Million Man March with its deliberate exclusion of women and implicit rejection of black gay men also highlighted one of the central faultlines in African American politics the role of gender and sexuality in antiracist agenda In this groundbreaking anthology a companion to the highly successful Critical Race Feminism Devon Carbado changes the terms of the debate over racism gender and sexuality in black America The essays cover such topics as the legal construction of black male identity domestic abuse in the black community the enduring power of black machismo the politics of black male white female relationships racial essentialism the role of black men in black women's quest for racial equality and the heterosexist nature of black political engagement Featuring work by Cornel West Huey Newton Henry Louis Gates Jr A Leon Higginbotham Jr Houston Baker Marlon T Riggs Dwight McBride Michael Awkward Ishmael Reed Derrick Bell and many others Devon Carbado's anthology stakes out new territory in the American racial landscape Critical America A series edited by Richard Delgado and Jean Stephancic

The Assassination of the Black Male Image Earl Ofari Hutchinson, 1997-09-03 A compelling expose of the truth behind society's racial and sexual stereotypes of black men this book offers a wide historical perspective and insights into such recent racially charged events as the Clarence Thomas hearings the O J Simpson trial and the Million Man March Hutchinson brilliantly counters the image of black men as a population entrenched in crime drugs and violence

Men to Men Lee N. June, Matthew Parker, 1996 A powerful collection of essays by black male scholars written to black men on issues that concern them today Titles include Risk and Failure as Preludes to Achievements The Criminal Justice System A Message to Young Black Males Keys to Sound Financial Planning and more Redefining Fatherhood Nancy E.

Dowd, 2000 Down law U of Florida offers a progressive discussion of the economic social and legal aspects of fathering making a case for greater emphasis on the social nurturing behavior involved in parenting to redefine the role men play in the lives of their children She also explores the barriers to such redefinition including concepts of masculinity the interconnections between fathers and mothers male violence and homophobia Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Beyond O.J. Earl Ofari Hutchinson, 1996 Presents a framework for community economic development showing community groups and leaders how to develop and promote ideas and actions for development and how to adapt the framework for several different approaches Offers strategies for training and organizing volunteers understanding government regulations and environmental concerns developing sites to attract visitors funding projects and building networks between associations agencies and individuals Includes numerous checklists and tips Annotation copyright by Book

News Inc Portland OR      Man to Man (A Conversation Between a Father & Son) Jay Baisden, 2013-10-09 Stand Your Ground Stop Shave with the grain not against it or Look a man in the eyes when you shake his hand or you might give him tips on how to be financially frugal But what if your son was Black in America How would that conversation go Recent events would indicate that it s Open Season on young Black men in America Therefore wouldn t our conversations with our sons have to be different Even the Mayor of NYC admitted that The Talk he would have to have with his Black son would have to be different Exactly what would you say that would properly equip your young Black son to deal with what will be dealt to him Given the fact that Black men are the most hated and persecuted beings on the planet are you even equipped to have that talk with your Black son and properly send him off into this world This book Man to Man A Conversation Between A Father Son tackles a lot of those issues a young Black man would need to arm himself with to be prepared to deal with living in a society that by and large does not want or accept him      The African-American Male Jacob U. Gordon, 1999-07-30 The plight of the Black male in American society has been well documented by scholars and practitioners Although Black males represent only 6 percent of the American population they represent about 40 percent of the prison population the number of Black males in prison and jail exceeds the number of Black males in higher education The homicide rates for Black males were 72.5 percent per 100 000 nearly eight times higher than for White males This bibliographic volume explores the extent to which American academia has addressed these problems It will be an invaluable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in social service programs In addition to more than 400 annotated publications the book includes a selected list of works on the African American male and a compilation of doctoral dissertations This publication will serve as a reference in public as well as academic libraries human service agencies government policymaking agencies and in academic courses in gender and ethnic studies criminal justice and social psychology      An Inexcusable Absence R. Perez Gatling, MEd, 2014-05-01 It is high time for more diversity in education diversity that includes thorough articulate Black males Contrary to popular belief the need for a strong emergence of Black male teachers is not only for the benefit of Black boys and Black girls Children and parents of all races and both genders need to be introduced to the antithesis of the stereotypical Black man and build strong healthy relationships that will be the means for greater racial and ethnic harmony      Black Fathers Michael E. Connor, Joseph White, 2006-08-15 In the parlance of social psychology social work and urban social scientists African American fathers have often been described as absent missing non residential non custodial unavailable non married irresponsible and immature It is wondered why it is was so difficult to find literature research and comments regarding positive attributes of African American families in general and African American fathers in particular This book fills a void in attempting to offer a broader picture regarding the status of African American males in a father role The purpose is to get beyond the African American father invisibility syndrome and gloom and doom pathology oriented labels and tell another side of the story about the power of fathering in the African American experience The book brings these invisible social and biological fathers to life by telling their stories and letting the reader hear and feel the vibrancy of their voices as they struggle to meet the challenges of being fathers and Black men in America Black Fathers An Invisible Presence in America is divided into four sections Part I offers some research and theory regarding the impact of fathers on the lives of their children In Part II reactions and experiences from those men who had active involved and committed Black men in their lives as they were growing up are shared In Part III stories are shared from African American men who had problematic relationships with their fathers but who put forth the time energy and effort to work through the issues The primary focus of Part IV is on how to strengthen the role of Black fathers father figures and social fathers in family life and child rearing by discovering and internalizing psychological strengths anchored in African American psychological themes African values and spirituality This book will appeal to scholars and researchers in the fields of race ethnic relations family studies and Black studies

Fan Podcasts Anne Korfmacher, 2024-06-28 Starting from the observation of the ubiquity of fan podcasts engaging in media commentary this book explores three fan podcast genres in which commentary manifests as a structuring form rewatch and reread podcasts recap podcasts and review podcasts The author conducts a formalist genre analysis of these podcasts close reading nine case studies to describe how the three genres function and how different fan labour manifests in podcasting Each case study teases out the themes style and formal constellations of the three podcast genres shows how different fans activate the affordances of podcasting and commentary and reveals the distinct generic functions of the three podcast genres This book will be of significant interest to scholars and students in podcast studies fan studies cultural studies and literary studies who are interested in fan podcasts podcast genre analysis and ways of close reading podcasts as texts

Global Critical Race Feminism Adrienne Katherine Wing, 2000-05 An anthology containing some 30 essays which focus on topics including a critique of American feminist legal scholarship motherhood and work in cultural context Josephine Baker and the Cold War the campaign against female circumcision violence against Aboriginal women in Australia and marketization and the status of women in China Includes a foreword by social justice activist and professor at the U of California Santa Cruz Angela Y Davis Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Family Herald , 1846

Beyond Blood Identities Jason D. Hill, 2009-10-28 Beyond Blood Identities uncovers the social psychology of those who hold strong blood identities In this highly original work Jason D Hill argues that strong racial ethnic and national identities which he refers to as tribal identities function according to a separatist logic that does irreparable damage to our moral lives Drawing on scholarship in philosophy sociology and cultural anthropology Hill contends that strong tribalism is a form of pathology Beyond Blood Identities shows how a particular understanding of culture could lead to a new theoretical approach to enriched human living Hill develops a new version of cosmopolitanism that he calls post human cosmopolitanism to solve a number of challenges in contemporary society From the problem of defining culture the failure of multiculturalism the question of who owns native culture the identification of Jews as post human people and the problem of their status as chosen people in a modern world the author applies a cosmopolitan analysis to some of the major problems in our global and interdependent world He posits a world in which community has been dispensed with and replaced by its successor term sociality the broad unmarked space in which creative social intercourse takes place Hill applies a new cosmopolitanism to ideate a new post humanity for the twenty first century A Tell of Two Wars I.G.,2017-05-04 Being from Detroit I feel like one who has been on the front line of the happenings good bad and ugly all across this land in these past 50 years In my desire to find out what really happened and why those things that happened drastically changed all of us young and old I am writing this book in hopes that others along with myself who feel the same can come away with some reasonable idea of past events impacting the here and now We must be able to plan a better life for ourselves our children and childrens children What I am pointing as the story unfolds is the death or killing off of love and innocence Followed by the birth of violence death and destruction It starts out with a man and woman in love wanting to share their lives Then the Vietnam War ushers in the death and destruction and from that point on it enters into our whole society Cut Loose Nan Bauer Maglin,2006 Women mostly in their fifties and sixties tell about the ending of their mostly heterosexual relationships and of the aftermath In all but one case the breakup was initiated by the narrator s partner The Sunday Magazine ,1872 The Origin, Progress, and Conclusion of the Florida War John Titcomb Sprague,1848 Played Out Brandon J.
