Humanitarian Military Intervention Taylor B. Seybolt, 2007 Military intervention in a conflict without a reasonable prospect of success is unjustifiable especially when it is done in the name of humanity Couched in the debate on the responsibility to protect civilians from violence and drawing on traditional just war principles the central premise of this book is that humanitarian military intervention can be justified as a policy option only if decision makers can be reasonably sure that intervention will do more good than harm This book asks Have past humanitarian military interventions been successful It defines success as saving lives and sets out a methodology for estimating the number of lives saved by a particular military intervention Analysis of 17 military operations in six conflict areas that were the defining cases of the 1990s northern Iraq after the Gulf War Somalia Bosnia and Herzegovina Rwanda Kosovo and East Timor shows that the majority were successful by this measure In every conflict studied however some military interventions succeeded while others failed raising the question Why have some past interventions been more successful than others This book argues that the central factors determining whether a humanitarian intervention succeeds are the objectives of the intervention and the military strategy employed by the intervening states Four types of humanitarian military intervention are offered helping to deliver emergency aid protecting aid operations saving the victims of violence and defeating the perpetrators of violence The focus on strategy within these four types allows an exploration of the political and military dimensions of humanitarian intervention and highlights the advantages and disadvantages of each of the four types Humanitarian military intervention is controversial

Scepticism is always in order about the need to use military force because the consequences can be so dire Yet it has become equally controversial not to intervene when a government subjects its citizens to massive violation of their basic humanrights This book recognizes the limits of humanitarian intervention but does not shy away from suggesting how military force can save lives in extreme circumstances Air Power in UN Operations A. Walter Dorn,2016-03-23 Air power for warfighting is a story that s been told many times Air power for peacekeeping and UN enforcement is a story that desperately needs to be told For the first time this volume covers the fascinating range of aerial peace functions In rich detail it describes aircraft transporting vital supplies to UN peacekeepers and massive amounts of humanitarian aid to war affected populations aircraft serving as the eyes in sky to keep watch for the world organization and combat aircraft enforcing the peace Rich poignant case studies illuminate the past and present use of UN air power pointing the way for the future This book impressively fills the large gap in the current literature on peace operations on the United Nations and on air power generally Dis/figuring Sam Shepard Johan Callens,2007 This illustrated volume covers the career of Sam Shepard the provocative American playwright scriptwriter actor and director through an introductory survey followed by in depth analyses of representative selections from the one acts Action States of Shock experimental collaborations with Joseph Chaikin Savage Love and by now classic family plays Buried Child A Lie of the Mind It ranges from Shepard s unpublished adaptation of Marlowe s Doctor Faustus through the textual variants and political context of Operation Sidewinder to Robert Altman s movie version of Fool for Love besides offering brief comparisons with fellow dramatists Albee and Beckett and visual artists Edward Weston Marsden Hartley Several performance analyses supplement the textual criticism and provide a sample of European directorial approaches Together these takes offer a composite picture of an artist whose output over the past forty years has turned him into a figurehead of twentieth century drama studied and produced all over the world with a keen eye for his idiosyncratic and critical view of what it means to be American Journal of Special Operations Medicine ,2009

Military Review ,2005 World of War William Nester,2024-01-16 World of War is an epic journey through America s array of wars for diverse reasons with diverse results over the course of its existence It reveals the crucial effects of brilliant mediocre and dismal military and civilian leaders the dynamic among America s expanding economic power changing technologies and the types and settings of its wars and the human financial and moral costs to the nation its allies and its enemies Nester explores the violent conflicts of the United States on land at sea and in the air with meticulous scholarship thought provoking analysis and vivid prose Special Warfare ,1998 Consider Somaliland Marleen Renders,2012-01-20 Can traditional leaders and institutions help to build more legitimate accountable and effective governments in polities or states under re construction This book investigates the fascinating case of Somaliland the 20 year old non recognized state which emerged from Somalia s conflict and state collapse Anti-Social Media Kevin Foster,2021-08-31 Over the past decade the gravitational centre of contemporary conflict has shifted from the physical battlefield to the online battlespace where the ingenuity of non state actors has vexed governments and tested their militaries Devising new architectures of participation Al Qaeda and ISIS have weaponised social media and empowered their dispersed followers to organise communicate and dominate the information domain Kevin Foster shows how conventional militaries in the US Britain Israel and Australia have responded to this challenge by integrating social media into their systems and operations and the organisational and cultural impediments they have confronted Foster traces each military s social media journey appraising the strategies doctrine and policies developed to regulate its management and use From the ADFA Skype sex scandal to the IDF s sophisticated integration of the real and virtual spaces of war Anti Social Media examines the good the bad and the indifferent in the armed forces halting advance towards social media competence

Making Geographies of Peace and Conflict Colin Flint, Kara E. Dempsey, 2023-11-17 This book illustrates the diversity of current geographies ontologies engagements and epistemologies of peace and conflict It emphasizes how agencies of peace and conflict occur in geographic settings and how those settings shape processes of peace and conflict The essence of the book s logic is that war and peace are manifestations of the intertwined construction of geographies and politics Indeed peace is never completely distinct from war Each chapter in the book will demonstrate understandings of how the myriad spaces of war and peace are forged by multiple agencies some possibly contradictory The goals of these agents vary as peace and war are relational place specific processes The reader will understand the mutual construction of spaces and processes of peace and conflict through engagement with the concepts of agency the mutual construction of politics and space geographic scales multiple geographies the twin dynamics of empathy othering and inclusivity partitioning and resistance militarism The book discusses the intertwined nature of peace and conflict including reference to the environment global climate change borders technology and postcolonialism This book is valuable for instructors teaching a variety of senior level human geography courses including graduate level classes It will appeal to those working in political geography historical geography sociology of geographic knowledge feminist geography cultural and economic geography political science and international relations The Making of Peace , Hollywood's Africa after 1994 MaryEllen Higgins, 2012-11-01

Hollywood's Africa after 1994 investigates Hollywood s colonial film legacy in the postapartheid era and contemplates what has changed in the West s representations of Africa How do we read twenty first century projections of human rights issues child soldiers genocide the exploitation of the poor by multinational corporations dictatorial rule truth and reconciliation within the contexts of celebrity humanitarianism new military humanitarianism and Western support for regime change in Africa and beyond A number of films after 1994 such as Black Hawk Down Hotel Rwanda Blood Diamond The Last King of Scotland The Constant Gardener Shake Hands with the Devil Tears of the Sun and District 9 construct explicit and implicit arguments about the effects of Western intervention in Africa Do the emphases on human rights in the films offer a poignant expression of our shared humanity Do they echo the colonial tropes of former civilizing missions Or do human rights violations operate as yet another mine of sensational images for Hollywood's spectacular storytelling. The volume provides analyses by academics and activists in the fields of African studies, English film and media studies, international relations and sociology across continents. This thoughtful and highly engaging book is a valuable resource for those who seek new and varied approaches to films about Africa. Contributors: Harry Garuba and Natasha Himmelman, Margaret R. Higonnet with Ethel R. Higonnet, Joyce B. Ashuntantang, Kenneth W. Harrow, Christopher Odhiambo, Ricardo Guthrie, Clifford T. Manlove, Earl Conteh-Morgan, Bennetta Jules-Rosette, J. R. Osborn and Lea Marie Ruiz. Ade Christopher Garland, Kimberly Nichele Brown, Jane Bryce, Iyunolu Osagie Dayna, Oscherwitz. The Routledge Companion to World Literary Journalism John S. Bak, Bill Reynolds, 2022-12-30. This cutting edge research companion addresses our current understanding of literary journalism's global scope and evolution, offering an immersive study of how different nations have experimented with and perfected the narrative journalistic form/genre over time. The Routledge Companion to World Literary Journalism demonstrates the genre's rich genealogy and global impact through a comprehensive study of its many traditions, including the crónica, the reportage, the New Journalism, the New New Journalism, Jornalismo literário, periodismo narrativo, baogao wenxue, creative nonfiction, Literarischer Journalismus, As SaHafa al Adabiyya and literary nonfiction. Contributions from a diverse range of established and emerging scholars explore key issues such as the current role of literary journalism in countries radically affected by the print media crisis and the potential future of literary journalism both as a centerpiece to print media writ large and as an academic discipline universally recognized around the world. The book also discusses literary journalism's responses to war, immigration and censorship; its many female and Indigenous authors; and its digital footprints on the internet. This extensive and authoritative collection is a vital resource for academics and researchers in literary journalism studies as well as in journalism studies and literature in general.
