

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

“I’m very proud of my heritage.
I’m proud that I’m Black and British and that I come from a strong, resilient people.”

Stormzy stands where music, activism, and identity collide — a symbol of power, pride, and purpose.

Organizing Black America: An Encyclopedia of African American Associations Nina Mjagkij,2003-12-16 With information on over 500 organizations their founders and membership this unique encyclopedia is an invaluable resource on the history of African American activism Entries on both historical and contemporary organizations include African Aid Society African Americans for Humanism Black Academy of Arts and Letters Black Women s Liberation Committee Minority Women in Science National Association of Black Geologists and Geophysicists National Dental Association National Medical Association Negro Railway Labor Executives Committee Pennsylvania Freedmen s Relief Association Women s Missionary Society African Methodist Episcopal Church and many more The Persistence of Memory Jessica Moody,2020 The Persistence of Memory tells the history of the public memory of transatlantic slavery in the largest slave trading port city in the world from the end of the 18th century into the 21st century revealing the persistence of slavery memory in Liverpool as an ongoing contested debate Buffalo Soldiers, Protection of Paleontological Resources, Hibben Center, Boundaries at Gunnison, Kris Eggle Center, Lewis and Clark Center, and Carter G. Woodson Home United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Energy and Natural Resources. Subcommittee on National Parks,2003 Human Resources Renay Richardson, Arisa Loomba,2025-06-05 Recommended by The British Blacklist Ordinary items take on new meanings when you cast them in different light The origins of tea coffee and sugar are well known but when you discover that gym treadmills were pioneered on plantations or that denim jeans were once clothing for enslaved people you can t help but ask where else the legacy of slavery hides in plain sight Through the stories of thirty nine everyday places and objects

Renay Richardson and Arisa Loomba unpick the threads of the history that we never learned in school revealing the truth of how Britain's present is bound to a darker past Taking us from art galleries to football stands banks to hospitals from grand country houses to the backs of our kitchen cupboards Human Resources is an eye opening inquiry that gives a voice to the enslaved people who built modern Britain Diversity, dialogue and sharing: online resources for a more resourceful world

Saillant, Francine, 2017-05-22 Queer Justice at School Elizabeth J. Meyer, Much change is needed to make school communities more affirming and inclusive of gender and sexual diversity This timely book is written for secondary students and their adult allies who are working to make schools more supportive of lesbian gay bisexual transgender queer intersex asexual people and families Grounded in scholarship the text offers information ideas guidelines inspiration and resources to support grassroots efforts to envision and build more just and liberatory school communities The author shares case studies of youth activism and profiles of these LGBTQIA activists to show what is possible when young people take action to improve their communities Meyer explicitly acknowledges the diversity of the LGBTQIA community and discusses working in coalitions to address related forms of injustice including racism and white supremacy ableism colonialism classism as well as biases around religion immigration status language and culture This hands on guide is readable and accessible for use in extracurricular clubs or as classroom assignments in grades 6-12 Book Features Written in a language appropriate for students and adults working together in student clubs like GSAs or after school community centers Provides figures and activities that can be used to guide action planning Demonstrates that some of the best change happens when it is led by youth Moves away from the dominant discourse that focuses on harm reduction risk narratives and reducing bullying and harassment Includes a chapter that discusses relevant laws and policies Offers a companion website that provides updated links and resources for readers Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places Lynne Dixon, Alison

Hales, 2013-12-04 A much needed and delightful book It shows how history can be taught with the meaningful experiences of each child at its centre making connections between the child the locality and community the national and global past and concepts of time Throughout the authors empower teachers to adopt their philosophy by showing them how to plan select resources and strategies and reflect on ideas and case studies Hilary Cooper Emeritus professor of history and pedagogy The University of Cumbria UK Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places puts the local environment and community at the heart of history showing how it can be used as the context for successful history teaching across the primary age range It considers how to develop children's concepts and skills through local history how to link local national and global aspects of history and helps you develop your own historical knowledge understanding and confidence in teaching the subject Practical topics explored include Investigating children's cultural and geographical roots through fieldwork Finding and visiting local museums archives and heritage sights Choosing and using resources Using significant people events and buildings to link with national history Environmental education and sustainable development through local history

Understanding the links between history and everyday life Planning and assessing history Based on the latest research and practice in the field Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places offers an exciting template of creative ideas and activities to show teachers how they can make history relevant to all children Growing Up Godless Anna Strhan,Rachael Shillitoe,2025-05-20 In Britain as in many other countries across Europe non religion has now replaced Christianity as the cultural default especially among younger age groups There is for the first time a no religion majority and only around half the overall population now express belief in some kind of God And while religion continues to feature prominently in children s education in countries like the UK schools are increasingly making space in the classroom for nonreligious stances toward life But as of yet there has been scant scholarly attention accorded to what this development means for children and families with young children Religion has long been seen as an important aspect of an upbringing that stresses character development and good moral conduct What does such an upbringing look like when children grow up non religious This book explores how when where and with whom children learn to be non religious paying particular attention to the everyday practices through which non religion is transmitted from parents and in some cases school teachers to children In this book Strhan and Shillitoe draw on their extensive ethnographic fieldwork in family homes and in children s schools and on in depth interviews with children parents and school teachers in three contrasting sites in England The views of the children themselves mostly aged 7 11 years old a period when children become aware of their identities and worldviews are taken seriously alongside those of their caregivers and instructors The authors argue that nonreligious children and their parents are motivated by an ethics focused on equality compassion and social justice values seen as unconnected to churches and other religious institutions African American Relationships, Marriages, and Families Patricia Dixon,2017-05-25 African American Relationships Marriages and Families Second Edition is a historically and culturally centered research based text designed for use in undergraduate graduate and community based courses on African American relationships marriages and families Complete with numerous exercises this volume can be used by current and future helping professionals to guide singles and couples by increasing single and partner awareness and respect and appreciation for difference In addition singles and couples learn skills for effective communication and conflict resolution and ultimately how to develop and maintain healthy relationships marriages and families This second edition includes updates and revisions to current chapters and also features two new chapters one on parenting and one on same gender loving LGBTQ Global Constructions of Multicultural Education Carl A. Grant,Joy L. Lei,2001-06-01 This book tells us how various global regions are dealing with three major concerns within the field of multicultural education the conceptualization and realization of difference and diversity the inclusion and exclusion of social groups within a definition of multicultural education and the effects of power on relations between and among groups identified under the multicultural education umbrella All of the chapter authors pay attention to these themes but at the same time they bring their particular interests and perspectives to the book addressing issues such as linguistic racial ethnic and religious diversity class educational inequalities teacher education conceptualizations of citizenship and questions of identity construction In addition the authors offer both historical and social contexts for their analytical discussion of the ideals and practices of multicultural education in a particular region This is not a book that tells us about multicultural education with an international twist it provides readers with different ways to think talk and do research about issues of diversity difference and the effects of power as they relate to education
