Sex and Race in the Black Atlantic Daniel McNeil, 2010-01-27 Drawing on a wide range of sources and a diverse cast of characters this book is the first to place the self fashioning of mixed race individuals in the context of a Black Atlantic and gives particular attention to the construction of mixed race femininity and masculinity during the twentieth century

Black and Mormon Newell G. Bringhurst, Darron T. Smith, 2004-09-08 The year 2003 marked the twenty fifth anniversary of the lifting of the ban excluding black members from the priesthood of the Mormon church The articles collected in Newell G Bringhurst and Darron T Smith s Black and Mormon look at the mechanisms used to keep blacks from full participation the motives behind the ban and the kind of changes that have and have not taken place within the church since the revelation responsible for its end This challenging collection is required reading for anyone concerned with the history of racism discrimination and the Latter day Saints Insurrectionist Ethics Jacoby Adeshei Carter,Darryl Scriven,2023-04-19 Insurrectionist Ethics is the name given to denote the myriad forms of justification for radical social transformation in the interest of freedom for oppressed people It is a set of advocacy systems that usually aim at liberation for specified populations under siege in a given society While the identities of these beleaguered groups is always intersectional one salient criterion of group membership is often chosen to be the rallying point for solidarity Whether the movement is Black Lives Matter Gay Pride or Poor People s Campaign at the nucleus of each is a cry for emancipation The contributions in this volume put forward bold forcefully argued provocative claims that challenge in a fundamental and radical way the presuppositions values and beliefs that underwrite the systems and structures that insurrectionist ethics calls into question The volume begins with a section defining and theorizing what insurrectionist ethics is and then moves to a section studying insurrectionist ethics across the Americas Additional sections focus on applications of and correctives to insurrectionist ethics pragmatism and naturalism and the past present and future of insurrectionist ethics The Black Coptic Church Leonard Cornell McKinnis,2023-07-25 This book is an ethnographic study that explores the intersection of race religion and the construction of Black identity as imagined and performed in religious practices and rituals of the Black Coptic Church an Ethiopianist New Religious Movement that emerged in Chicago during the Great Migration The Perils and Prospects of Southern Black Leadership Raymond Gavins,1977 After Obama Todd C. Shaw,Robert A. Brown,Joseph P. McCormick II,2021-02-16 Examines the complicated political legacy of our first black president Written during the presidency of Donald Trump After Obama examines the impact President Barack Obama and his administration have continued to have upon African American politics In this comprehensive volume Todd C Shaw Robert A Brown and Joseph P McCormick II bring together more than a dozen scholars to explore his complex legacy including his successes failures and contradictions Contributors focus on a wide range of topics including how President Obama affected aspects of African American politics how his public policies influenced the quality of Black citizenship and life and what future administrations can learn from his experiences They also examine the present day significance of Donald Trump in relation to African American politics A timely and thorough work After Obama provides the first examination of the Obama administration in its entirety and the lasting impact it has had on African American politics After Southern Modernism Matthew Guinn,2011-06-14 The literature of the contemporary South might best be understood for its discontinuity with the literary past At odds with traditions of the Southern Renaissance southern literature of today sharply refutes the Nashville Agrarians and shares few of Faulkner s and Welty s concerns about place community and history This sweeping study of the literary South s new direction focuses on nine well established writers who by breaking away from the firmly ensconced myths have emerged as an iconoclastic generation Harry Crews Dorothy Allison Bobbie Ann Mason Larry Brown Kaye Gibbons Randall Kenan Richard Ford Cormac McCarthy and Barry Hannah Resisting the modernist methods of the past they have established their own postmodern ground beyond the shadow of their predecessors This shift in authorial perspective is a significant indicator of the future of southern writing Crews's seminal role as a ground breaking poor white author Mason's and Crews's portrayals of rural life and Allison's and Brown's frank portrayals of the lower class pose a challenge to traditional depictions of the South The dissenting voices of Gibbons and Kenan who focus on gender race and sexuality create fiction that is at once identifiably southern and also distinctly subversive Gibbons's iconoclastic stance toward patriarchy like the outsider's critique of community found in Kenan's work proffers a portrait of the South unprecedented in the region's literature Ford McCarthy and Hannah each approach the South's traditional notions of history and community with new irreverence and treat familiar southern topics in a distinctly postmodern manner Whether through Ford's generic consumer landscape the haunted netherworld of McCarthy's southern novels or Hannah's riotous burlesque of the Civil War these authors assail the philosophical and cultural foundations from which the Southern Renaissance arose Challenging the conventional conceptions of the southern canon this is a provocative and innovative contribution to the region's literary study The Playfair Collection and the teaching of chemistry at the University of Edinburgh, 1713-1858 R.G.W. Anderson, 2024-09-09 AF Press Clips, 1981 The World of Richard Wright Fabre, Michel, 1985 Wide ranging essays in which Wright's biographer probes the career ideology complex life and achievements of America's premier black writer A major contribution to Wright studies Kenneth Kinnamon Full of insights into cultural history and radical politics race relations and literary connections sets a high standard for scholarship to come Werner Sollors The SOULS of Black Faculty and Staff in the American Academy Yvette M. Alex-Assensoh, 2023-10-12 This book employs a fiction based approach to address the revolving door of Black faculty and staff in American colleges and universities as a national crisis that needs to be resolved systematically Alex Assensoh coins the acronym SOULS to promote the importance of safety organizational accountability unvarnished truth telling love and spirituality as the foundational ingredients for reimagining and rebuilding an Academy that harnesses the talents of Black faculty and staff Chapters feature storytelling to illustrate common cracks in academic structures while interweaving interdisciplinary research to contextualize themes that the fiction based method reveals To conclude the author provides a research informed call to action within the context of institutional transformation as well as reflective questions and recommendations for further reading Do Black Lives Matter? Lisa M. Bowens, Dennis R. Edwards, 2023-06-20 In this book Lisa Bowens and Dennis R Edwards collate a virtual manifesto on the way the Bible serves as inspiration theological grist and even the language needed to be the change to people of good faith everywhere The authors of this book challenge the forces of racism that are so deeply entrenched in church and society today offering prophetic insight into Black resilience and the historic and ongoing importance of Scripture to that resilience The authors also forefront the significance of Scripture to the Black struggle for justice by bringing together here prominent gifted Black scholars in biblical studies ethics history and theology as their work and writing contribute so much to the ongoing struggle against injustice The book will offer both biblical reflection celebrating an African American theological reading and a prophetic call to arms by means of sermons and other reflections The book includes contributions from Jaime L Waters Jennifer Kaalund Angela Parker Reggie Williams Antonia Daymond Brian Bantum Danjuma Gibson David Daniels Y Joy Harris Smith Vince Bantu Ralph Basui Watkins Marcia Clarke Valerie Landfair Antipas Harris Luke Powery Efreem Smith Donyelle McCray Jamal Dominique Hopkins American-Australian Cinema Adrian Danks, Stephen Gaunson, Peter C.

Kunze, 2018-01-29 This edited collection assesses the complex historical and contemporary relationships between US and Australian cinema by tapping directly into discussions of national cinema transnationalism and global Hollywood While most equivalent studies aim to define national cinema as independent from or in competition with Hollywood this collection explores a more porous set of relationships through the varied production distribution and exhibition associations between Australia and the US To explore this idea the book investigates the influence that Australia has had on US cinema through the exportation of its stars directors and other production personnel to Hollywood while also charting the sustained influence of US cinema on Australia over the last hundred years It takes two key points in time the 1920s and 1930s and the last twenty years to explore how particular patterns of localism nationalism colonialism transnationalism and globalisation have shaped its course over the last century The contributors re examine the concept and definition of Australian cinema in regard to a range of local international and global practices and trends that blur neat categorisations of national cinema Although this concentration on US production or influence is particularly acute in relation to developments such as the opening of international film studios in Melbourne Sydney Adelaide and the Gold Coast over the last thirty years the book also examines a range of Hollywood financed and or conceived films shot in Australia since the 1920s Journal of Botany Berthold

Seemann, 1898 Introduction to African American Studies Talmadge Anderson, James Benjamin Stewart, 2007 There is an ongoing debate as to whether African American Studies is a discipline or multidisciplinary or interdisciplinary field Some scholars assert that African American Studies use a well defined common approach in examining history politics and the family in the same way as scholars in the disciplines of economics sociology and political science Other scholars consider African American Studies multidisciplinary a field somewhat comparable to the field of education in which scholars employ a variety of disciplinary lenses be they anthropological psychological historical etc to study the African world experience In this model the boundaries between traditional disciplines are accepted and researches in African American Studies simply conduct discipline based an analysis of particular topics Finally another group of scholars insists that African American Studies is interdisciplinary an enterprise that generates distinctive analyses by combining perspectives from d Black Feelings Lisa M. Corrigan, 2020-02-25 Honorable Mention Recipient of the 2021 Marie Hochmuth Nichols Award for Outstanding Scholarship in Public Address by the National Communication Association In the 1969 issue of Negro Digest a young Black Arts Movement poet then named Ameer Amiri Baraka published We Are Our Feeling The Black Aesthetic Baraka

s emphasis on the importance of feelings in Black selfhood expressed a touchstone for how the Black liberation movement grappled with emotions in response to the politics and racial violence of the era In her latest book award winning author Lisa M Corrigan suggests that Black Power provided a significant repository for negative feelings largely Black pessimism to resist the constant physical violence against Black activists and the psychological strain of political disappointment Corrigan asserts the emergence of Black Power as a discourse of Black emotional invention in opposition to Kennedy era white hope As integration became the prevailing discourse of racial liberalism shaping midcentury discursive structures so too did racial feelings mold the biopolitical order of postmodern life in America By examining the discourses produced by Martin Luther King Malcolm X Stokely Carmichael Huey Newton Eldridge Cleaver and other Black Power icons who were marshaling Black feelings in the service of Black political action Corrigan traces how Black liberation activists mobilized new emotional repertoires

Critical Race Theory and the Search for Truth Rodney Coates, 2024-09-24 This book presents a comprehensive exploration of Critical Race Theory offering a clear understanding of its origins the way it has been problematized and its potential for societal change By examining the historical influence of imperialism and capitalism the author critiques both liberal and conservative perspectives Centring the voices of marginalized groups the book highlights their position as agents of change who have been consistently rejected ignored or attacked by both the right and the left Providing a unique perspective on Critical Race Theory this book is a valuable resource for readers seeking to navigate the complexities of systemic racism and how to dismantle these systems
