Black Intellectuals, Black Cognition, and a Black Aesthetic William D. Wright, 1997      Black Religious Intellectuals Clarence Taylor, 2013-04-15 Professor Clarence Taylor sheds some much needed light on the rich intellectual and political tradition that lies in the black religious community From the Pentecostalism of Bishop Smallwood Williams and the flamboyant leadership of the Reverend Al Sharpton to the radical Presbyterianism of Milton Arthur Galamison and the controversial and mass mobilization by Minister Louis Farrakhan black religious leaders have figured prominently in the struggle for social equality in America      African American Literary Theory Winston Napier, 2000-07 The first volume to expound African American literary theory from the 1920s to present African American Literary Theory A Reader is the first volume to document the central texts and arguments in African American literary theory from the 1920s through the present As the volume progresses chronologically from the rise of a black aesthetic criticism through the Blacks Arts Movement feminism structuralism and poststructuralism and the rise of queer theory it focuses on the key arguments themes and debates in each period By constantly bringing attention to the larger political and cultural issues at stake in the interpretation of literary texts the critics gathered here have contributed mightily to the prominence and popularity of African American literature in this country and abroad African American Literary Theory provides a unique historical analysis of how these thinkers have shaped literary theory and literature at large and will be a indispensable text for the study of African American intellectual culture Contributors include Sandra Adell Michael Awkward Houston A Baker Jr Hazel V Carby Barbara Christian W E B DuBois Ann duCille Ralph Ellison Henry Louis Gates Jr Addison Gayle Jr Carolyn F Gerald Evelyn Hammonds Phillip Brian Harper Mae Gwendolyn Henderson Stephen E Henderson Karla F C Holloway Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Joyce A Joyce Alain Locke Wahneema Lubiano Deborah E McDowell Harryette Mullen Larry Neal Charles I Nero Robert F Reid Pharr Marlon B Ross George S Schuyler Barbara Smith Valerie Smith Hortense J Spillers Sherley Anne Williams and Richard Wright      The Black Officer Corps Isaac Hampton, 2013 The U S Armed Forces started integrating its services in 1948 and with that push more African Americans started rising through the ranks to become officers although the number of black officers has always been much lower than African Americans total percentage in the military Astonishingly the experiences of these unknown reformers have largely gone unexamined and unreported until now The Black Officer Corps traces segments of the African American officers experience from 1946 1973 From generals who served in the Pentagon and Vietnam to enlisted servicemen and officers wives Isaac Hampton has conducted over seventy five oral history interviews with African American officers Through their voices this book illuminates what they dealt with on a day to day basis including cultural differences racist attitudes unfair promotion standards the civil rights movement Black Power and the experience of being in ROTC at Historically Black Colleges Hampton provides a nuanced study of the people whose service reshaped race relations in the U S Armed Forces ending with how the military attempted to control racism with the creation of the Defense Race Relations Institute of 1971 The Black Officer Corps gives us a much fuller picture of the experience of black officers and a place to start asking further questions African American

Pioneers of Sociology Pierre Saint-Arnaud,2009-02-07 In African American Pioneers of Sociology Pierre Saint Arnaud examines the lasting contributions that African Americans have made to the field of sociology Arguing that science is anything but a neutral construct he defends the radical stances taken by early African American sociologists from accusations of intellectual infirmity by foregrounding the racist historical context of the time these influential works were produced Examining key figures such as W E B Du Bois Edward Franklin Frazier Charles Spurgeon Johnson Horace Roscoe Cayton J G St Clair Drake and Oliver Cromwell Cox Saint Arnaud reveals the ways in which many aspects of modern sociology emerged from these authors radical views on race gender religion and class Beautifully translated from its original French African American Pioneers of Sociology is a stunning examination of the influence of African American intellectuals and an essential work for understanding the origins of sociology as a modern discipline Female Subjectivity in

African-American Women's Poetry Tanima Kumari,2023-04-17 This book is aimed at constructing the Black female subjectivity of African American women through the works of chosen poets Marilyn Nelson Rita Dove Elizabeth Alexander and Patricia Smith The study delves into the intricacies of African American women s issues such as objectification rape motherhood and racism This work is unique as it takes up the study of African American women s poetry and studies different creative expressions and artistic genres in their struggle for identity It illuminates Black female aesthetics and the liberation of self thus celebrating their blackness By examining historical and contemporary issues the book invites the readers to re counter the dominance of the established White Order and stimulates the question of the agency of Black women This book debunks the perceptions and offers a genuine contribution to the discourse on African American women s lives It goes beyond the customary reflections on women s experiences and addresses the poignant odyssey of women of color marking a shift to politics of survival The New York Public Intellectuals and Beyond Ethan Goffman,Daniel Morris,2009 Here a variety of distinguished scholars revisit and rethink the legacy of the New York intellectuals showing how this small predominantly Jewish group moved from communist and socialist roots to become a primary voice of liberal humanism and in the case of a few to launch a new conservative movement A Spirit of Dialogue Christopher N. Okonkwo,2008 A groundbreaking study A Spirit of Dialogue examines through extensive interdisciplinary research theory and close reading the intricate reconstructions extensions and resonances of the West African myth of spirit children the Born to Die in contemporary African American neo slave narratives Arguing that the myth called Ogbaje in Igbo language and b k in Yoruba has had over thirty years of uncharted presence in African American literature Okonkwo advances a compelling case absent in extant scholarship He traces Ogbaje the Born to Die s appearance in African American texts to a convergence of factors They include but are not limited to the impact of Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart the 1960s emergence of the contemporary neo slave narrative the 1960s and 1970s black consciousness Black Power movement and the cultural agenda gendered politics and centripetal philosophy of the Black Arts movement s nationalist aesthetic African American identity questions of the post civil rights and the multicultural eras and the thematic shifts as well as the African diaspora orientation of African American fiction of the post nationalist aesthetic period A Spirit of Dialogue focuses on the sometimes neglected and understudied works of four canonical African American writers Octavia E Butler s Wild Seed and Mind of My Mind Tananarive Due s The Between John Edgar Wideman s The Cattle Killing and Toni Morrison s Sula and Beloved Okonkwo demonstrates persuasively how the mythic spirit child informs the content and form of these novels offering Butler Due Wideman and Morrison a non occidental code by which to engage collectively with the various issues integral to the history experience of African descended people The paradigm functions then as the nexus of a life affirmative dialogue among the six novels as well as between them and other works of African religious and literary imagination particularly Things Fall Apart and Ben Okri s The Famished Road Crisis of the Black Intellectual William D. Wright, 2007 Detailing the evolution of black intellectual discourse since the 1960s this assessment points to a lack of ongoing discussion about the role of intellectuals black or white in our society and insists that the experience of black Americans is so complex it deserves the closest and most honest scrutiny possible from black writers and academics The American Three-Party System W. D. Wright, 2012-07-27 W D Wright has identified and provided a provocative discussion of the existence of the Corporate Political Party and a national three party system comprised of the CPP and the Republican and Democratic parties Both the CPP and the three party system have existed unknown to the American people since the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries hidden in plain sight The Corporate Political Party promotes the politics of deception secrecy and corruption in short anti democratic politics The CPP has two major objectives The first is to establish a national one party system by gaining control over the Republican and Democratic parties turning them into shell institutions and functioning through them this would be done as it is presently occurring by helping to get Democrats and Republicans elected to office who would be that in name only while actually being Corporate Political Party candidates and elected officials wearing two labels The second major objective is to control the national state and local governments and their treasuries through the two shell parties in order to be able to shift large amounts of taxpayers money on a continuous basis to its constituencies rich and powerful individuals and financial industrial and commercial corporations thereby seeking to create a large discrepancy of wealth on a continuous basis between its constituencies and the American population There is an urgent need for the American people to learn about the Corporate Political Party and take action against it for the sake of their own future wealth prosperity and freedom in this country Transformations in Africana Studies Adebayo Oyejide, 2023-02-07 This book introduces readers to the rich discipline of Africana Studies reflecting on how it has developed over the last fifty years as an intellectual enterprise for knowledge production about Africa and the African diaspora The African world has always had a wealth of indigenous knowledge systems but for the greater part of the scholarly history hegemonic Western epistemologies have denied the authenticity of African indigenous ways of knowing The post colonial era has seen steady and deliberate efforts to expand the frontiers of knowledge about black people and their societies and to Africanize such bodies of knowledge in all fields of human endeavor This book reflects on how the multidisciplinary discipline of Africana Studies has transformed and reinvented itself as it has sought to advance knowledge about the African world The contributors consider the foundations of the discipline its key theories and methods of knowledge production and how it interacts with popular culture Women s Studies and other area studies such as Ethnic and Afro Latinx Studies Bringing together rich insights from across history religion literature art sociology and philosophy this book will be an important read for students and researchers of Africa and Africana Studies Critical Reflections on Black History William D. Wright, 2002-03-30 Wright presents this collection of six essays on aspects of black history Each essay is based upon a critical historical methodology that is comprised of among other things a racial analysis an intersectional analysis rigorous logic conceptual integrity and a critical analysis of ideas words and images Critical of the romantic approach to the subject Wright seeks to uncover a deeper analysis knowledge and truth regarding aspects of black history even when it involves the presentation of material and viewpoints that some might find objectionable He predicates these pieces on the idea that history is still a valuable subject firmly rejecting the postmodern view that it has lost its validity Wright demonstrates that black history is a vital and necessary subject not only for black people but for all Americans A critical black history is itself Wright contends a device to evaluate American history in a critical manner to get into the subject more deeply and to adduce deeper knowledge and truths about it These essays show the author s interest in strengthening that critical capacity of black historical writing and his belief that this is a primary and necessary means to maintain the viability and productivity of the academic discipline and to ward off its detractors Reevaluating the Pan-Africanism of W.E.B. Du Bois and Marcus Garvey James L. Conyers, 2005 Features interdisciplinary essays by fourteen scholars that discuss the following associated topics Global Pan Africanism the intellectual ideas of Dr WEB DuBois the cultural and economic ideas of Marcus Garvey and a critical assessment of Africana historiography Decolonising Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) in an Age of Technocolonialism Nhemachena, Artwell, Hlabangane, Nokuthula, Matowanyika, Joseph Z. Z., 2020-03-02 Positing the notions of coloniality of ignorance and geopolitics of ignorance as central to coloniality and colonisation this book examines how colonialists socially produced ignorance among colonised indigenous peoples so as to render them docile and manageable Dismissing colonial descriptions of indigenous people as savages illiterate irrational prelogical mystical primitive barbaric and backward the book argues that imperialists colonialists contrived geopolitics of ignorance wherein indigenous regions were forced to become ignorant hence containable and manageable in the imperial world Questioning the provenance of modernist epistemologies the book asks

why Eurocentric scholars only contest the provenance of indigenous knowledges artefacts and scientific collections Interrogating why empire sponsors the decolonisation of universities epistemologies in indigenous territories while resisting the repatriation restitution of indigenous artefacts the book also wonders why Westerners who still retain indigenous artefacts skulls and skeletons in their museums universities and private collections do not consider such artefacts and skulls to be colonising them as well The book is valuable to scholars and activists in the fields of anthropology museums and heritage studies science and technology studies decoloniality policymaking education politics sociology and development studies

Singing through Struggle Carolynne Hitter Brown, 2025-04-21 Singing through Struggle Music Worship and Identity in Postemancipation Black Churches offers an innovative look at the vital role music and worship played in nurturing Black citizenship and identity during the Reconstruction era In such border cities as Baltimore Washington DC and Philadelphia the church was where newly emancipated migrants and members of the free Black community merged identities priorities and experiences through a process of cultural negotiation Music as a sign of Black achievement and as a genuine expression of identity produced both bastions and battlegrounds in the fight for democracy The music of Black churchgoers singing together in sanctuaries as well as in homes schools and outdoors expressed resistance to uplift ideologies within and to white supremacy without Even while using hymns and music of the European sacred tradition members infused the songs they chose with new meanings relevant to their evolving concerns and situations Drawing on fresh archival sources Singing through Struggle sheds light on the unexplored gap in the study of African American religious music between slavery and the Great Migration demonstrating the continuous stream of Black creativity and dignity that existed in religious music making between gospel music and the spirituals This close up investigation of three Black congregations draws out previously forgotten stories of men and women who understood church music as key to shaping a collective purpose and civic identity Their stories demonstrate how faith music and ritual gave the Black community means for exploring a deeply complex and ever changing reality

The Function and Responsibility of the Black Intellectual as Personified and Dictated by Carter G. Woodson and Lorenzo Johnston Greene Pero Gaglo Dagbovie, 1999

The Power of African Cultures Toyin Falola, 2003

An analysis of the ties between culture and every aspect of African life using Africa's past to explain present situations This book focuses on the modern cultures of Africa from the consequences of the imposition of Western rule to the current struggles to define national identities in the context of neo liberal economic policies and globalization The book argues that it is against the backdrop of foreign influences that Africa has defined for itself notions of identity and development African cultures have been evolving in response to change and in other ways solidly rooted in a shared past The book successfully deconstructs the last one hundred and fifty years of cultures that have been disrupted replaced and resurrected The Power of African Cultures challenges many preconceived notions such as male dominance and female submission the supposed unity of ethnic groups and contemporary Western stereotypes of Africans It also shows the dynamism of African cultures to adapt to foreign imposition even as colonial rule forced the adoption of foreign institutions and cultures African cultures appropriated these elements Traditions were reworked symbols redefined and the past situated in contemporary problems in order to accommodate the modern era Toyin Falola is a Fellow of the Nigerian Academy of Letters and Fellow of the Historical Society of Nigeria He is the recipient of the 2006 Cheikh Anta Diop Award for Exemplary Scholarship in African Studies and the 2008 Quintessence Award by the Africa Writers Endowment He holds an honorary doctorate from Monmouth University and he is University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin where he is also the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities His books include Nationalism and African Intellectuals and Violence in Nigeria both from the University of Rochester Press

Women's Activist Theatre in Jamaica and South Africa Nicosia M. Shakes, 2023-08-15 Theater is an essential theoretical and practical site for forging Black radical thought African feminisms and womanism Nicosia M Shakes draws on ethnographic research in Jamaica and South Africa to analyze the vital relationship between activism and theater production Concentrating on four performance events Shakes situates the work of theater groups and projects within a trajectory of women led social justice movements established in Jamaica South Africa and globally from the early 2000s to the present Her analysis reveals movements driven by Black women's artistic intellectual and organizational labor and focused on issues that range from sexual violence to reproductive justice to the spatial manifestations of racial gender and economic oppression Shakes shows how theater's political and pedagogical roles become entangled with histories and geographies of oppression and resistance the identities and connections created by movements of people in the context of colonial and settler colonial histories and ideas of womanism and feminism

A Beautiful Pageant D. Krasner, 2016-09-27 The Harlem Renaissance was an unprecedented period of vitality in the American Arts Defined as the years between 1910 and 1927 it was the time when Harlem came alive with theater drama sports dance and politics Looking at events as diverse as the prizefight between Jack Johnson and Jim White Hope Jeffries the choreography of Aida Walker and Ethel Waters the writing of Zora Neale Hurston and the musicals of the period Krasner paints a vibrant portrait of those years This was the time when the residents of northern Manhattan were leading their downtown counterparts at the vanguard of artistic ferment while at the same time playing a pivotal role in the evolution of Black nationalism This is a thrilling piece of work by an author who has been working towards this major opus for years now It will become a classic that will stay on the American history and theater shelves for years to come

Word from the Mother Geneva Smitherman, 2021-11-25 This classic text by Geneva Smitherman pioneering scholar of Black Talk is a definitive statement on African American Language AAL Enriched by her inimitable writing style the book outlines past debates on the speech of African Americans and provides a vision for the future As global manifestations of AAL increase she argues that we must broaden our conception of the language and its speakers and further examine the implications of gender age and class on AAL Perhaps most of all we must appreciate the artistic and linguistic genius of AAL from Hip Hop lyrics to the rhyme and rhetoric of the broader Black speech community Smitherman explores AAL's contribution to American English includes a summary of expressions as a suggested linguistic core of AAL and features cartoons that educate readers on the broader relationship between language race and racism This classic edition features a new foreword by H Samy Alim celebrating Smitherman's continuing impact on Black Language scholarship and her influence on the future of the field Word from the Mother is an essential read for students of African American speech language culture and sociolinguistics as well as the general reader interested in the worldwide crossover of Black popular culture
