Black Is A Color:

The Dictionary of Colors and Colored Words Peter Isaacs, 2022-10-14 The Dictionary of Colors and Colored Words is the world's only true and comprehensive collection of lexically verifiable colors and colored words. With this dictionary, individuals near and far now have anytime access to a credible, trusted, and reliable lexical partner to help in absorbing, engaging, exploring, discovering, learning, referencing, maneuvering, and operating within and around the world of color, colors, and colored words. This colorific repository, which has well over 500 individual specific colors spread over 280 pages, is organized and presented in abecedarian format and includes three special bonus sections: nouns only, adjectives only, and verbs only. Some of the entries, which span almost every area, discipline, or field, also include parenthesized boldface guidance as to where they are primarily used, as in art, painting, zoology, biology, botany, chemistry, medicine, dentistry, cartography, crystallography, gemology, mineralogy, psychology, ophthalmology, dermatology, anthropology, entomology, ornithology, computing, digital imaging, graphic arts, astronomy, mathematics, physics, meteorology, photography, printing, publishing, broadcasting, electronics, and optics. Additionally, all colors and certain colored words are assigned a six-digit alphanumeric hexadecimal code that allows for precise color matching, classification, confirmation, or reproduction on any digital platform or elsewhere.

Gender and Sexuality in Muslim Cultures Gul Ozyegin, 2016-03-09 A must-read for anyone interested in Muslim cultures, this volume not only explores Muslim identities through the lens of sexuality and gender, their historical and contemporary transformations, and local and global articulations, but also interrogates our understanding of what constitutes a Muslim identity in selected Muslim majority countries at this pivotal historical moment characterized by transformative destabilizations in which national, ethnic, and religious boundaries are being reimagined and remade. Contributors take on the most fundamental questions at the intersections of gender, sexuality, and the body. Several overarching questions frame the volume: How does studying gender and sexuality expand and enrich our understanding of Muslim majority countries historically and at present? How does the embodiment of Muslim identity get reconfigured in the context of twenty-first century globalism? What analytical questions are raised about Islam when its diverse meanings and multifaceted expressions are closely examined? What roles do gender and sexuality play in the construction of cultural, religious, nationalistic, communal, and militaristic identities? How have power struggles been signified in and on the bodies of women and sexuality? How have global dynamics, such as the intensification and spread of neoliberal ideologies and policies, affected changing dynamics of gender and sexuality in specific locales? Here, global dynamics touch down in diverse contexts: from masculinity crises around war, disabilities, transnational marriages, and fathering in Turkey, Egypt, and Pakistan, to Muslim femininity narratives around female genital cutting, sexuality in divorce proceedings, and spouse selection, to gender-crossing practices, as well as protesting bodies, queering voices, and claims of authenticity in literary and political discourse. This book brings exciting research on these and other topics together in one place, allowing the essayist
