Black Market Baby:

Baby Markets Michele Goodwin, 2010-02-26 Creating families can no longer be described by heterosexual reproduction in the intimacy of a couple's home and the privacy of their bedroom. To the contrary, babies can be brought into families through complex matrixes involving lawyers, coordinators, surrogates, brokers, donors, sellers, endocrinologists, and without any traditional forms of intimacy. In direct response to the need and desire to parent, men, women, and couples, gay and straight, have turned to viable alternative means: baby markets. This book examines the ways in which Westerners create families through private market processes. From homosexual couples skirting Mother Nature by going to the assisted reproductive realm and buying the sperm or ova that will complete the reproductive process, to Americans travelling abroad to acquire children in China, Korea, or Ethiopia, market dynamics influence how babies and toddlers come into Western families. Michele Goodwin and a group of contributing experts explore how financial interests, aesthetic preferences, pop culture, children's needs, race, class, sex, religion, and social customs influence the law and economics of baby markets. The Traffic in Babies Karen Andrea Balcom, 2011-01-01 Exploring how and why babies were moved across borders. The Traffic in Babies is a fascinating look at how social workers and other policy makers tried to find birth mothers, adopted children, and adoptive parents. Pricing the Priceless Child Viviana A. Zelizer, 1994-08-28 This study traces the emergence of changing attitudes about the child at once economically useless and emotionally priceless from the late 1800s to the 1930s. It describes how turn of the century America discovered new sentimental ways to determine a child's monetary worth. Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare United States. Sale of Children in Interstate and Foreign Commerce United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Criminal Justice, 1979 Invisible Ruth Silver, 2012-06 Ruth Silver's young life was challenged in ways most of us will never know. A silent, frightened child with undiagnosed vision loss, her world was one of limited vision that ultimately became one of total darkness. Once the situation had a name, retinitis pigmentosa (RP), a progressive eye disease, she at least knew what she was dealing with. As she grew, she also lost her hearing. Where others might have given up, Ruth refused to surrender to the darkness and silence As Ruth Silver s world shrank around her her heart and ambition grew Inspired by her own experiences and challenges she founded the Center for Deaf Blind persons in Milwaukee a nonprofit agency dedicated to helping others living with the double disability of deaf blindness A charming young man by the name of Marv was destined to change her life even more their enduring love story is one of hope patience and acceptance Invisible dispels myths suggests useful teaching procedures gives hope to people who are disabled and their families and offers reassurance through her example that a person with profound disabilities can live a full rich life

Adoption and Foster Care, 1975 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare.
