The African Revolution Richard Reid, 2025-01-28 A panoramic global history of Africa in the age of imperialism Africa's long nineteenth century was a time of revolutionary ferment and cultural innovation for the continent's states societies and economies Yet the period preceding what became known as the Scramble for Africa by European powers in the decades leading up to World War I has long been neglected in favor of a Western narrative of colonial rule The African Revolution demonstrates that the Scramble and the resulting imperial order were as much the culmination of African revolutionary dynamics as they were of European expansionism In this monumental work of history Richard Reid paints a multifaceted portrait of a continent on the global stage He describes how Africa witnessed the emergence of new economic and political dynamics that were underpinned by forms of violence and volatility not unlike those emanating from Europe Reid uses a stretch of road in what is now Tanzania one of the nineteenth century's most vibrant commercial highways as an entry point into this revolutionary epoch weaving a broader story around characters and events on the road He integrates the African experience with new insights into the deeper currents in European societies before and after conquest and he shows how the Africans themselves created opportunities for European expansion Challenging the portrayal of Africa's transformative nineteenth century as a mere prelude to European colonialism The African Revolution reveals how this turbulent yet hugely creative era for Africans intersected with global intrusions to shape the modern age rectify this discursive insufficiency in contemporary scholarship The essays interviews and reviews in this special issue of Radical History Review represent the best of the new of this very old tradition of transnational black studies One contributor explores how racial citizenship the idea of belonging and solidarity across the black world developed as a result of knowledge formed out of transnational linkages is employed by Cubans of color fighting against racial discrimination in public spaces in Havana Another by outlining a research agenda for the study of African slavery in the Middle East and South Asia reminds us that the Africa diaspora is global In a discussion of a paradigm shift from the national to the global yet another author makes a singular contribution to this collection by locating new spaces for identity formation in transit Contributors Martha Biondi Anthony Bogues Ashley Dawson James Early Mary F E Ebeling Kevin Gaines Van Gosse Frank A Guridy Joseph E Harris Douglas M Haynes Joseph Heathcott Harvey Neptune Michelle Stephens
