parents our partners and the world We are stuck in a triangle of disempowerment in which only three roles are available victim villain and rescuer We cycle through all three of these roles depending on the circumstance In each one of these roles we are looking for self worth outside ourselves and feel resentful and powerless This book teaches us how to step out of this triangle and the layers of story we have been telling ourselves becoming our own guide on an epic inner quest It is an invitation to write a new story to finally meet our needs and take full responsibility for our lives To do this we step outside of linear time and journey back to significant moments of our childhood bringing our adult self along with all of our acquired life experience to offer the support that was needed at the time Black Sheep in Good Families Stephen Francis Hamblin, 1928
