Black Skins Black Masks Hybridity Dialogism Performativity:

Black Skins, Black Masks Shirley Anne Tate, 2017-07-05 Black Skin Black Masks Hybridity Dialogism Performativity offers a timely exploration of Black identity and its negotiation. The book draws on empirical work recording everyday conversations between Black women, friends, peers, and family members. These conversations are discussed in the light of the work of Homi Bhabha, Stuart Hall, Gerd Baumann, Claire Alexander, and others on questions of hybridity, identity, otherness, and the development of new ethnicities. Tate aims to address what she sees as significant omissions in contemporary Black Cultural Studies. She argues that theorists have rarely looked at the process of identity construction in terms of lived experience and that they have tended to concentrate on the demise of the essential Black subject, paying little attention to gender. The book points to a continuation of a politics of the skin in Black identities. As such, it argues against Bhabha's claim that essence is not central to hybrid identities. The conversations recorded in the book reveal the ways in which women negotiate the category of Blackness in what Tate calls a hybridity of the everyday. The book introduces a new interpretative vocabulary to look at the ways in which hybridity is orchestrated and fashioned, showing it to be performative, dialogical, and dependent on essentialism.

From Post-Intersectionality to Black Decolonial Feminism Shirley Anne Tate, 2022-12-20 In this accessible and yet challenging work, Shirley Anne Tate engages with race and gender intersectionality, connecting through to affect theory to develop a Black decolonial feminist analysis of global anti-Blackness. Through the focus on skin, Tate provides a groundwork of historical context and theoretical framing to engage more contemporary examples of racist constructions of Blackness and Black bodies. Examining the history of intersectionality, including its present post-intersectionality, the book continues intersectionality's racialized gender critique by developing a Black decolonial feminist approach to cultural readings of Black skin's consumption, racism within body beauty institutions, e.g. modelling, advertising, beauty pageants, and cultural representations, as well as the affects which keep anti-Blackness in play. This book is suitable for undergraduate and postgraduate students in gender studies, sociology, and media studies.

The Routledge International Handbook of New Critical Race and Whiteness Studies Rikke Andreassen, Catrin Lundström, Suvi Keskinen, Shirley Anne Tate, 2023-06-22 Since its foundation as an academic field in the 1990s, critical race theory has developed enormously and has, among others, been supplemented by and disintegrated with critical whiteness studies. At the same time, the field has moved beyond its origins in Anglo-Saxon environments to be taken up and redeveloped in various parts of the world, leading to not only new empirical material but also new theoretical perspectives and analytical approaches. Gathering these new and global perspectives, this book presents a much needed collection of the various forms sophisticated theoretical developments and nuanced analyses that the field of critical race and whiteness theories and studies offers today Organized around the themes of emotions technologies consumption institutions crisis identities and on the margin this presentation of critical race and whiteness theories and studies in its true interdisciplinary and international form provides the latest empirical and theoretical research as well as new analytical approaches Illustrating the strength of the field and embodying its future research directions The Routledge International Handbook of New Critical Race and Whiteness Studies will appeal to scholars across the social sciences and humanities with interests in race and whiteness Chapter 34 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Diaspora of the Comoros in France Katharina Fritsch, 2022-07-15 Based on an ethnographic study of mobilisations of the Comorian diaspora in Marseille during political and cultural events the book examines communitarianisation in relation to three thematic areas namely spaces cultural markets and local politics Drawing on Foucault's concept of the dispositif the author analyses mobilisations of postcolonial diaspora as part of a dispositif of communitarianisation that is a set of discourses practices institutions and subjectivations of diasporic community She argues that constructions of community are both shaped by and shape ethnicised biopolitics expressed by modes of governing diasporic groups along ethnicised divisions and a marking of ethnicised communities as the Other of the French Republic The performativity of a Comorian community brought into being through political cultural economic and customary practices also shows how Comorian communities govern themselves along ethnicised categories at the intersection with generation gender age classes locality and class Communitarianisation processes as part of ethnicised self governing reveal postcolonial power relations in France as well as practices of negotiation and contestation on the part of Comorian communities This book will be of interest to scholars in the fields of critical diaspora studies critical ethnography discourse and dispositif analysis postcolonial politics and the African diaspora

EBOOK: Key Issues in Critical and Cultural Theory Kate McGowan, 2007-04-16 the ideal book for students of cultural theory and one that is sensitively attuned to the political challenges of our times Whether explaining dialectical materialism or the lyrics of Oasis and The Arctic Monkeys Kate McGowan is an enlightening and entertaining guide Professor Stephen Regan Durham University From a man with electric underpants to the indelible mark of 9 11 in a global cultural imaginary Kate McGowan addresses the questions of cultural meaning and value which confront us all today The book explores the often complex paradigms of critical thinking and discusses the possibilities of engaging and critiquing the cultural values that relate to our present Dealing directly with the issues entailed in cultural analysis the book avoids simply looking at the eminent authors or movements in critical and cultural theory and instead focuses on why studying culture matters to us today What are the proper objects of cultural study What makes something art What can critical and cultural theory contribute to contemporary debates about ethics What possibilities are opened up by theories of otherness in thinking about the stranger or outsider in today's society How does a culture contest its own values in relation to race gender class sexuality and a variety of faiths and abilities Key Issues in Critical and Cultural Theory is key reading for students studying humanities and for those with an interest in culture aesthetics ethics and philosophy who want to understand how these affect the world

Douglas Poetics Kavyta Kay, 2024-12-04 Rooted in lived experiences and real conversations this book challenges mixed race studies which often prioritise Black white binaries in the Global North while excluding multiracial experiences across the Global South The Biopolitics of Mixing Jinhana Haritaworn, 2016-03-23 Debates over who belongs in Europe and who doesn't increasingly speak the language of mixing but how are the figures commonly described as mixed actually embodied The Biopolitics of Mixing invites us to reckon with the spectres of pathologization past and present placing the celebration of mixing beside moral panics over terrorism and trafficking and a post race multiculturalism that elevates some as privileged members of the neoliberal community whilst ghosting others from it Drawing on a broad archive including rich qualitative interviews conducted in Britain and Germany media and policy debates popular culture race based research and queer of colour theories this book imagines into being communities in which people and places normally kept separate can coexist in the same reality As such it will appeal to scholars across a range of sociological and cultural studies including critical race ethnic and migration studies transnational gender and queer studies German and European studies Thai and Southeast Asian studies and studies of affect performativity biopolitics and necropolitics It should be read by all those interested in thinking critically on the intersections of race class gender sexuality and disability Shape Shifters Lily Anne Y. Welty Tamai, Ingrid Dineen-Wimberly, Paul Spickard, 2020-01-01 Shape Shifters presents a wide ranging array of essays that examine peoples of mixed racial identity Moving beyond the static either/or categories of racial identification found within typical insular conversations about mixed race peoples Shape Shifters explores these mixed race identities as fluid ambiguous contingent multiple and malleable This volume expands our understandings of how individuals and ethnic groups identify themselves within their own sociohistorical contexts The essays in Shape Shifters explore different historical eras and reach across the globe from the Roman and Chinese borderlands of classical antiquity to medieval Eurasian shape shifters the Native peoples of the missions of Spanish California and racial shape shifting among African Americans in the post civil rights era At different times in their lives or over generations in their families racial shape shifters have moved from one social context to another And as new social contexts were imposed on them identities have even changed from one group to another This is not racial ethnic or religious imposture It is simply the way that people's lives unfold in fluid sociohistorical circumstances With contributions by Ryan Abrecht George J Sanchez Laura Moore and Margaret Hunter among others Shape Shifters explores the forces of migration borderlands trade warfare occupation colonial imposition and the creation and dissolution of states and empires to highlight the historically contingent basis of identification among mixed race peoples across time and space Mimicry and Performative Negotiations of Belonging in the Everyday Jannik Kohl, 2019-08-27 In the past three decades Nira Yuval Davis concept of belonging as well as Homi K Bhabha's concept of mimicry have received considerable attention within social and cultural sciences as both are involved in discussions concerning the construction of social identities and the relationship between self and Other Within these fields of social research the two concepts have proven to be attractive analytical categories in order to re-think traditional and essentialist views on processes of social identification while at the same time highlighting the importance of fluid and more intersubjective notions of those processes. However, due to some blind spots in their conceptualizations, both have been subject of critique for ignoring important dimensions of social realities. The paper aims to show that by synthesizing both concepts into a new analytical framework, it will be possible to overcome those shortcomings and gain new insights into the process of social identification. In order to prove the viability of this synthesized concept of belonging as a possible analytical concept in literary studies, the framework will be applied on the analysis of the novel I Tituba Black Witch of Salem by Caribbean author Maryse Condé. In doing so, the thesis addresses the question of how subjects are capable of negotiating their everyday belongings in contexts of social power relations which are characterized and expressed through intersecting forms of hostility and oppression.

Pedagogies in the Flesh Sarah Travis, Amelia M. Kraehe, Emily J. Hood, Tyson E. Lewis, 2017-09-04. This book presents a collection of vivid, theoretically informed descriptions of flashpoints: educational moments when the implicit sociocultural knowledge carried in the body becomes a salient feature of experience. The flashpoints will ignite critical reflection and dialogue about the formation of the self-identity and social inequality on the level of the preconscious body.

Christianity and the African Counter-Discourse in Achebe and Beti Ali Yiğit, 2024-05-15. Christianity and the African Counter-Discourse in Achebe and Beti: Cultures in Dialogue. Contest and Conflict intervenes in light of African literary products: the history of Christianity in Africa in late 19th and early 20th centuries goes beyond the existing clichés about the operations of the European Christian missionaries, whether Protestant or Catholic, in Africa and opens alternative ways to read the chain of missionary-native African and missionary-European colonists' relationships. Christian missionaries did not come to Africa for their own interests; the Christianization of Africa, European colonial projects, the interests of Africans, the establishment of European civilization in Africa, but came for all. Once there was a dialogue between the Christian missionaries and pagan Africans, which was in time replaced by contest for superiority and finally by conflict. Accordingly, the countenance of the continent has changed forever.

Emotions, Consciousness-Raising and Feminisms in the Global South Gabriela Silva Loureiro, 2025-05-23. This book is about the role of emotions in the creation and dissipation of feminist collectives and grapples with difficult questions that have been circulating for a while in activist circles but are far from answered: What are the emotions involved in building and sustaining solidarity? What can we learn from previous waves of feminist activism and what is worth saving in social media activism today? These questions are tackled via the discourse analysis of hashtagged posts of two popular feminist hashtags in Brazil: PrimeiroAssdio and MeuAmigoSecreto and interviews with Brazilian feminist actors. But instead of merely analysing the content of the hashtags or over-celebrating aesthetics, I interpret them as empirical evidence of the emotional life of varied feminisms and therefore useful to reflect upon historical build-ups and dissipation of solidarity. The unique feature of the book is making a bridge between sociology of emotions, feminist theory and decolonial Black and Global South literature and praxis that articulate solidarity based on principles of difference instead of sameness. This book will be of interest to students scholars teachers activists and community members interested in the emotions involved in building and sustaining feminist solidarity from a non Western perspective Tunisian Women's Writing in French Sonia Alba,2018-11-21 Tunisian women s literary production in French published or set between the years 1987 and 2011 from Tunisia s second president Zine El Abidine Ben Ali s rise to power to the eve of the Tunisian Revolution reveals the role of women their political engagement and their resistance to patriarchal oppression A great deal of media and scholarly attention has focused on the role of women during the Tunisian Revolution itself yet few studies have considered women s literary and active engagement prior to the uprising By contrast this book focuses specifically on the time period leading to the Revolution The book is structured around three chapters each focusing on a different form of writing and on a number of contemporary Tunisian writers who have chosen to express themselves in French Sonia Alba explores the complex ways in which the authors have attempted to deal with those issues cultural social and political most relevant to them This is the first study of Tunisian women s writing in French to compare and contrast key themes in three different genres within a single study and within the conceptual framework of subaltern counterpublics The work is enhanced by the inclusion of extracts from previously unpublished authors interviews Tunisian Women s Writing in French is essential reading for all Francophone and Postcolonial scholars and for scholars and students working in Contemporary Women s Writing The Promise of Happiness Sara Ahmed,2010-04-06 This provocative cultural critique of the imperative to be happy draws on the work of feminist black and queer critics showing how happiness is used to justify social oppression Alternative Performativity of Muslimness Amina Alrasheed Nayel,2017-01-26 The book highlights issues related to the construction of gender in Africa and African identity politics It explores the limitations of the constructed category of African Muslim woman in West Yorkshire Amina Alrasheed Nayel uses Black feminist epistemology along with postcolonial feminist and critical race theory to examine the multiple identities that Sudanese women negotiate in the UK The diverse settings of Islam and Islamic culture circumscribed around issues of performativity of Islam and identity construction in the diasporic space are unpacked in this volume In addition this work analyzes specific practices and performances starting with the multifaceted nature of Islam and the problematic concepts of Sunni Sufi Muslim woman race and blackness The book reveals that exile nostalgia and racial ethnic differences within Islam and the wider UK community underpin the performativity of Muslimness of the Sudanese women living in West Yorkshire and reiterates the importance of moving beyond the homogeneity of the idea of Muslim woman towards investigating the complexities of this group Decolonizing European Sociology Encarnacion Gutierrez Rodriguez,Manuela Boatcă,Sérgio Costa,2016-05-13 Decolonizing European Sociology builds on the work challenging the androcentric colonial and ethnocentric perspectives eminent in mainstream European sociology by identifying and describing the processes at work in its current critical transformation Divided into sections organized around themes like modernity border epistemology migration and the South this book considers the self definition and basic concepts of social sciences through an assessment of the new theoretical developments such as postcolonial theory and subaltern studies and whether they can be described as the decolonization of the discipline With contributions from a truly international team of leading social scientists this volume constitutes a unique and tightly focused exploration of the challenges presented by the decolonization of the discipline of sociology
