Joyce, 2005-01-01 Explores the interdisciplinary dimensions of black studies The Performance Studies Reader Henry Bial, Sara Brady, 2025-01-31 Since its first publication in 2004 The Performance Studies Reader has become the leading anthology of key writings on performance studies Now in its fourth edition it continues to offer an unparalleled selection of work by the foremost scholars in this continually evolving field offering a stimulating introduction to the crucial debates of Performance Studies These critical and theoretical contributions are joined in this edition by 26 new chapters bringing the collection up to date with current discourse and ideas and significantly expanding the range of subjects and authors represented Each essay includes contextual headnotes from the editors to introduce students to the writer and their impact on the field Newly added to this edition are contributions from Swati Arora Sara Ahmed Sarah Bay Cheng Claire Bishop Felipe Cervera Theron Schmidt and Hannah Schwadron Anita E Cherian and Gargi Bharadwaj Thomas F DeFrantz SLIPPAGE Soyica Diggs Colbert Tracy C Davis Saidiya V Hartman Travis Jackson Branslav Jakovljevi Ailton Krenak Andr Lepecki Fred Moten Jos Esteban Mu oz Tavia Nyong o Tamara Searle Stephanie Nohelani Teves and McKenzie Wark This new edition of The Performance Studies Reader provides an overview of the full range of performance theory for undergraduates at all levels and beginning graduate students in Performance Studies theatre performing arts and cultural studies Transformations in Africana Studies Adebayo Oyeade, 2023-02-07 This book introduces readers to the rich discipline of Africana Studies reflecting on how it has developed over the last fifty years as an intellectual enterprise for knowledge production about Africa and the African diaspora The African world has always had a wealth of indigenous knowledge systems but for the greater part of the scholarly history hegemonic Western epistemologies have denied the authenticity of African indigenous ways of knowing The post colonial era has seen steady and deliberate efforts to expand the frontiers of knowledge about black people and their societies and to Africanize such bodies of knowledge in all fields of human endeavor This book reflects on how the multidisciplinary discipline of Africana Studies has transformed and reinvented itself as it has sought to advance knowledge about the African world The contributors consider the foundations of the discipline its key theories and methods of knowledge production and how it interacts with popular culture Women s Studies and other area studies such as Ethnic and Afro Latinix Studies Bringing together rich insights from across history religion literature art sociology and philosophy this book will be an important read for students and researchers of Africa and Africana Studies Early Modern Black Diaspora Studies Cassander L. Smith, Nicholas R. Jones, Miles P. Grier, 2018-10-03 Early Modern Black Diaspora Studies brings into conversation two fields Early Modern Studies and Black Studies that traditionally have had little to say to each other This disconnect is the product of current scholarly assumptions about a lack of archival evidence that limits what we can say about those of African descent before modernity This volume posits that the limitations are not in the archives but in the methods we have constructed for locating and examining those archives The essays that make up this volume offer new critical approaches to black African agency and the conceptualization of blackness in early modern literary works historical documents material and visual cultures and performance culture Ultimately this critical anthology revises current understandings about racial discourse and the cultural contributions of black Africans in early modernity and in the present across the globe Handbook of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Maulana Karenga, 2006 Publisher Description

Encyclopedia of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, 2005 Encyclopedia containing a full analysis of the economic political sociological historical literary and philosophical issues related to Americans of African descent From Black Power to Black Studies Fabio Rojas, 2010-09-01 The black power movement helped redefine African Americans identity and establish a new racial consciousness in the 1960s As an influential political force this movement in turn spawned the academic discipline known as Black Studies Today there are more than a hundred Black Studies degree programs in the United States many of them located in America s elite research institutions In From Black Power to Black Studies Fabio Rojas explores how this radical social movement evolved into a recognized academic discipline Rojas traces the evolution of Black Studies over more than three decades beginning with its origins in black nationalist politics His account includes the 1968 Third World Strike at San Francisco State College the Ford Foundation s attempts to shape the field and a description of Black Studies programs at various American universities His statistical analyses of protest data illuminate how violent and nonviolent protests influenced the establishment of Black Studies programs Integrating personal interviews and newly discovered archival material Rojas documents how social activism can bring about organizational change Shedding light on the black power movement Black Studies programs and American higher education this historical analysis reveals how radical politics are assimilated into the university system Black Studies in Europe Nicole Grégoire, Sarah Fila-Bakabadio, Jacinthe Mazzocchi, 2025-08-15 Reflecting on contemporary epistemologies of European Blackness Long absent from research in the humanities and social sciences Black people in continental Europe have become the focus of a growing body of literature in the past two decades that addresses their unique history and social positioning Black Studies in Europe An Anthology of Soil and Seeds brings together essays and case studies by a collective of scholars writers and activists to offer a critical overview of the emerging field of Black European studies and a vital reflection on contemporary epistemologies of European Blackness This collection addresses key questions What is Blackness from a European standpoint Which epistemologies and theoretical tools have been used to offer a better understanding of Black experiences in Europe How is this knowledge being produced and by whom Can we define a common European conceptual framework for Black studies Related to this work is an even more urgent enterprise forging an epistemological distinction between the study of Black people and Black studies as an emancipatory project Africana Cultures and Policy Studies Z. Williams, 2009-06-08

This book introduces Africana Cultures and Policy Studies as an interdisciplinary field of study rooted in the historical experience of people of African descent and focusing on policy development analysis and practical application Black Studies and the Democratization of American Higher Education Charles P. Henry, 2016-12-11 This book aims to expand what scholars know and who is included in this discussion about black studies which aids in the democratization of American higher education and the deconstruction of traditional disciplines of high education to facilitate a sense of social justice By challenging traditional disciplines black studies reveals not only the political role of American universities but also the political aspects of the disciplines that constitute their core While black studies is post modern in its deconstruction of positivism and universalism it does not support a radical rejection of all attempts to determine truth Evolving from a form of black cultural nationalism it challenges the perceived white cultural nationalist norm and has become a critical multiculturalism that is more global and less gendered Henry argues for the inclusion of black studies beyond the curriculum of colleges and universities Black/Africana Studies and Black/Africana Biblical Studies Abraham Smith, 2020-11-04 In this study Abraham Smith introduces the nature history and interventions of two theoretical political cultural productions Black Africana studies the systematic and rigorous study of Africa and African descendants and Black Africana biblical studies a biblical studies subfield that analyzes and appraises the strategies of reception and the historical and contemporary impact of the Christian bible for people of African descent Both cultural productions were formally introduced in U S educational institutions in the late 1960s as a part of the Black Freedom movement Both have long and deep intellectual antecedents on the one hand and ever evolving recent interventions that challenge a narrow politics of identity on the other Through the interrogation of keywords such as race family and Hip Hop or cartographies canons and contexts moreover the study examines how these two theoretical political projects question the settled epistemologies or prevailing intellectual currencies of their respective times The Transgender Studies Reader Remix Susan Stryker, Dylan McCarthy Blackston, 2022-07-12 The Transgender Studies Reader Remix assembles 50 previously published articles to orient students and scholars alike to current directions in the fast evolving interdisciplinary field of transgender studies The volume is organized into ten thematic sections on trans studies engagements with feminist theory queer theory Black studies science studies Indigeneity and coloniality history biopolitics cultural production the posthumanities and intersectional approaches to embodied difference It includes a selection of highly cited works from the two volume The Transgender Studies Reader more recently published essays and some older articles in intersecting fields that are in conversation with where transgender studies is today Editors Susan Stryker and Dylan McCarthy Blackston provide a foreword an introduction and a short abstract of each article that taken together document key texts and interdisciplinary connections foundational to the evolution of transgender studies over the past 30 years A handy overview for scholars activists and all those new to the field this volume is also ideally suited for use as a textbook in undergraduate or graduate courses in gender studies The Reading African American Autobiography Eric D. Lamore, 2017-01-10 From the 1760s to Barack Obama this collection offers fresh looks at classic African American life narratives highlights neglected African American lives texts and genres and discusses the diverse outpouring of twenty first century memoirs

Critical Black Studies Reader Rochelle Brock, Dara Nix-Stevenson, Paul Chamness Miller, 2017 The Critical Black Studies Reader is a ground breaking volume whose aim is to criticalize and reenvision Black Studies through a critical lens The book not only stretches the boundaries of knowledge and understanding of issues critical to the Black experience it creates a theoretical grounding that is intersectional in its approach Our notion of Black Studies is neither singularly grounded in African American Studies nor on traditional notions of the Black experience Though situated work in this field has historically grappled with the question of where are we in Black Studies this volume offers the reader a type of criticalization that has not occurred to this point While the volume includes seminal works by authors in the field as a critical endeavor the editors have also included pieces that address the political issues that intersect with among others power race class gender sexuality religion place and economics

Postmodernism, Traditional Cultural Forms, and African American Narratives W. Lawrence Hogue, 2013-11-12 This book explores how African American social and political movements African American studies independent scholars and traditional cultural forms revisit and challenge the representation of the African American as deviant other After surveying African American history and cultural politics W Lawrence Hogue provides original and insightful readings of six experimental postmodern African American texts John Edgar Wideman's Philadelphia Fire Percival Everett's Erasure Toni Morrison's Jazz Bonnie Greer's Hanging by Her Teeth Clarence Major's Reflex and Bone Structure and Xam Wilson Cartier's Muse Echo Blues Using traditional cultural and western forms including the blues jazz voodoo virtuality radical democracy Jungian African American Collective Unconscious Yoruba gods black folk culture and black working class culture Hogue reveals that these authors uncover spaces with different definitions of life that still retain a wildness and have not been completely mapped out and trademarked by normative American culture Redefining the African American novel and the African American outside the logic rules and values of western binary reason these writers leave open the possibility of psychic liberation of African Americans in the West

African American Studies Jeanette Davidson, 2010-10-19 This book presents the diverse expansive nature of African American Studies and its characteristic interdisciplinarity It is intended for use with undergraduate beginning graduate students in African American Studies American Studies and Ethnic Studies Section I focuses on the historical development of the field and the diverse theoretical perspectives utilized in African American Studies Section II examines African American Studies commitment to community service and social activism and includes exclusive interviews with acclaimed actor activist Danny Glover and renowned scholar Manning Marable Section III

presents international perspectives Section IV includes selected areas of scholarship Oral History as an important research methodology African American Philosophy African Aesthetics song and dance perspectives on Womanism Black Feminism and Africana Womanism with a focus on literature and African American Religion The book concludes with African American Studies strengths and Reframing the Black Atlantic Aretha Phiri, 2024-08-09 Commemorating the thirtieth anniversary of Paul Gilroy's seminal text The Black Atlantic Modernity and Double Consciousness this book offers fresh interpretations of established black Atlantic scholarship from the perspective of those typically elided from its ideological purview and existential narrative The application of queer and or feminist lenses in each essay attempts to mediate these elisions and to advance potentially transformative democratising readings of the black Atlantic from both complex and complicating African and diasporic viewpoints With the aim of realigning black Atlantic scholarship in this way the edited volume proposes an interventionist approach that is concerned with problematizing ethnic cultural universalisms and challenging geographic and gendered hierarchizations Underlining the importance of aesthetic and creative cultural archives Reframing the Black Atlantic's focus on transnational African diasporic literature and other intersecting popular cultural forms probes the imaginative limits and possibilities of the black Atlantic conventionally conceived To this end this book intends not just to complicate and enhance established views of black Africa inviting the reader to locate and perceive black life lived otherwise it points towards more inclusive and expansive global understandings and visions of blackness This volume will be of particular use to researchers and students in the fields of race gender diaspora transnational literary and cultural studies The chapters of this book were originally published in Cultural Studies African Diaspora and the Metropolis Fassil Demissie, 2013-09-13 At the end of the 19th and at the beginning of the 20th century a number of African American and Caribbean intellectuals and immigrants of the African Diaspora with all their apprehensions set out in steamships en route and carried with them a certain presence to the metropolises of Europe and North America These individuals traversed the middle passage in the opposite direction from the forced journey undertaken by their enslaved ancestors Later they began to arrive in large numbers as free men and women in London Paris Berlin Madrid Brussels Lisbon New York and other places in the metropolis by steam ships and later by planes and were actors in the larger history of empire from which the imperatives of forced migration uprooting displacement and exile had arisen The texts selected offer critical examination of a broad range of African Diaspora experiences in the metropole drawn from Senegal the Caribbean United States Britain Nigeria and France Bringing together comparative and diasporic perspectives the book explores the complex roles that race gender sexuality and history have played in the formation of African Diaspora identities in the metropole since the 19th century This book was published as a special issue of African and Black Diaspora: An International Journal
