The Great Sweepstakes of 1877 Mark Shrager, 2016-04-01 In 1877 the members of the United States Senate postponed all business for the day so that they might attend a horse race the iconic polarizing post Civil War event at the center of this story The nation still recovering from the depredations of the Civil War and the Reconstruction that followed recognized it as a North vs South encounter pitting New York's powerful thoroughbred Tom Ochiltree and New Jersey's Parole owned by the ostentatious Northern tycoons Pierre and George Lorillard against the already legendary Kentucky crack Ten Broeck owned by the teetotaling plain living Frank Harper and ridden by black jockey and former slave William Walker representing a former slave state and its Southern values The race and the colorful cast of characters involved reflected the still seething America during one of the nation's most difficult and divisive periods Shrager presents a fascinating and heart pounding piece of history exposing the racial and economic tensions following the Civil War that culminated in one final race to the end

From the Shadows into the Sunlight Rick Kelly, 2021-01-27 All Americans should welcome the opportunity to move forward into a better future for America and for all Americans while mending ancient wounds from the nation's original sin and at the same time seek to remediate the lingering ills and inflicted hardships still present to this day that divides the nation's people such that some Americans still feel relegated to second class citizenship. Courageous people of all faiths of goodwill and of conscience can impart heartfelt support for a new emancipation that moves toward freeing both black and white Americans from the racial disharmony and acrimony that surrounds the issue of racial discrimination in America. It is now possible to seek a new direction that promotes self reliance and economic progress from within the black community by redirecting black earned resources through black individuals not through the endless ineffective government programs and bureaucracies. It has been more than half a century since the Civil Rights Act of 1964 outlawed the racial discrimination and segregation that persists to this day and the government has clearly failed to abate such daily pathologies. Government poverty and affirmative action programs have not reduced the racial wealth gap that remains virtually unchanged since 1964. The black middle class suffers from consistently higher unemployment rates while also being burdened with increasing high student loan debt and home mortgage debt that reduces the opportunity for home ownership and family net worth growth. President John F Kennedy in a 1961 speech repeated the time worn saying that the only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing. This book suggests a new direction of self reliance and hope with a new emancipation proclaimed for all Americans if only there is finally the will to put the nation's dark past behind us and move out of the shadows and into the sunlight of a just and moral new future.
