,1993 The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham,2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America The Face of Our Past Kathleen Thompson,Hilary Austin,1999 Images of Black Women from Colonial America to the Present American Women's History Glenna Matthews,2000 Alphabetical articles on major events documents persons social movements and political and social concepts connected with the history of women in America Reader's Guide to American History Peter J. Parish,2013-06-17 There are so many books on so many aspects of the history of the United States offering such a wide variety of interpretations that students teachers scholars and librarians often need help and advice on how to find what they want The Reader s Guide to American History is designed to meet that need by adopting a new and constructive approach to the appreciation of this rich historiography Each of the 600 entries on topics in political social and economic history describes and evaluates some 6 to 12 books on the topic providing guidance to the reader on everything from broad surveys and interpretive works to specialized monographs The entries are devoted to events and individuals as well as broader themes and are written by a team of well over 200 contributors all scholars of American history Black Women in the Ivory Tower, 1850-1954 Stephanie Y. Evans,2016-12-01 Evans chronicles the stories of African American women who struggled for and won access to formal education beginning in 1850 when Lucy Stanton a student at Oberlin College earned the first college diploma conferred on an African American woman In the century between the Civil War and the civil rights movement a critical increase in black women s educational attainment mirrored unprecedented national growth in American education Evans reveals how black women demanded space as students and asserted their voices as educators despite such barriers as violence discrimination and oppressive campus policies contributing in significant ways to higher education in the United States She argues that their experiences ideas and practices can inspire contemporary educators to create an intellectual democracy in which all people have a voice Among those Evans profiles are Anna Julia Cooper who was born enslaved yet ultimately earned a doctoral degree from the Sorbonne and Mary McLeod Bethune founder of Bethune Cookman College Exposing the hypocrisy in American assertions of democracy and discrediting European notions of intellectual superiority Cooper argued that all human beings had a right to grow Bethune believed that education is the right of all citizens in a democracy Both women s philosophies raised questions of how human and civil rights are intertwined with educational access scholarly research pedagogy and community service This first complete educational and intellectual history of black women carefully traces quantitative research explores black women s collegiate memories and identifies significant geographic patterns in America s institutional development Evans reveals historic perspectives patterns and philosophies in academia that will be an important reference for scholars of gender race and education Women and the Historical Enterprise in America: Gender, Race and the Politics of Memory Julie Des Jardins,2004-07-21 In Women and the Historical Enterprise in America Julie Des Jardins explores American women's participation in the practice of history from the late nineteenth century through the end of World War II a period in which history became professionalized as an increasingly masculine field of scientific inquiry Des Jardins shows how women nevertheless transformed the profession during these years in their roles as writers preservationists educators archivists government workers and social activists Des Jardins explores the work of a wide variety of women historians both professional and amateur popular and scholarly conservative and radical white and nonwhite Although their ability to earn professional credentials and gain research access to official documents was limited by their gender and often by their race these historians addressed important new questions and represented social groups traditionally omitted from the historical record such as workers African Americans Native Americans and religious minorities Assessing the historical contributions of Mary Beard Zora Neale Hurston Angie Debo Mari Sandoz Lucy Salmon Mary McLeod Bethune Dorothy Porter Nellie Neilson and many others Des Jardins argues that women working within the broadest confines of the historical enterprise collectively brought the new perspectives of social and cultural history to the study of a multifaceted American past In the process they not only developed the field of women's history but also influenced the creation of our national memory in the twentieth century

Women of the American South

Christie Anne Farnham, 1997-11-01 Among the most prominent icons of the American south is that of the southern belle immortalized by such figures as Scarlett O'Hara Dolly Madison and Lucy Pickens whose elegant image graced the Confederate 100 bill And yet the women of America's south have always defied pat generalization no more readily forced into facile categories than women in the country's other regions Never before has a book of southern history so successfully integrated the experiences of white and non-white women Among the myriad subjects addressed in the book are black women's suffrage the economic realities of Choctaw women female kin and female slaves in planters' wills the northern myth of the rebel girl second wave feminism in the South and southern lesbians Bringing to light the lives of Cherokee women Appalachian coal daughters and Jewish women in the South the essays all but one published in this book for the first time ensure that monolithic representations of southern womanhood are a thing of the past Filling a crucial gap in southern history and women's history Women of the American South is a valuable reference and pedagogical aid for a wide range of scholars and students

Notes from a Colored Girl Karsonya Wise Whitehead, 2014-05-14 This historical biography provides a scholarly analysis of the personal diaries of a young freeborn mulatto woman during the Civil War years In Notes from a Colored Girl Karsonya Wise Whitehead examines the life and experiences of Emilie Frances Davis through a close reading of three pocket diaries she kept from 1863 to 1865 Whitehead explores Davis's worldviews and politics her perceptions of both public and private events her personal relationships and her place in Philadelphia's free black community in the nineteenth century The book also includes a six chapter historical reconstruction of Davis's life. While Davis's entries provide brief daily snapshots of her life, Whitehead interprets them in ways that illuminate nineteenth century black American women's experiences. Whitehead's contribution of edited text and original narrative fills a void in scholarly documentation of women who dwelled in spaces between white elites, black entrepreneurs and urban dwellers of every race and class. Drawing on scholarly traditions from history, literature, feminist studies and sociolinguistics, Whitehead investigates Davis's diary both as a complete literary artifact and in terms of her specific daily entries. With few primary sources written by black women during this time in history, Davis's diary is a rare and extraordinarily valuable historical artifact. Queer Ideas Martin Duberman, Alissa

Solomon, 2016-08-15 Exploring questions of sexuality and gender, this volume brings together ten core thinkers in the field of lesbian and gay studies and provides an essential introduction to this interdisciplinary field as well as the processes by which new and queer ideas are thought into being. The collection begins with Joan Nestle exploring the outsider status of lesbians through the complex life of a working class black lesbian born in the South who lived in New York and experienced the transition from complete marginalization to gay pride. It ends with Judith Butler who speaks on broadening our concept of human rights in the aftermath of September 11. The collection also includes Edmund White on queer fiction and criticism, Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick on the dialogics of love, John D. Emilio on gay civil rights activist Bayard Rustin, Esther Newton on being butch and lectures by Barbara Smith, Monique Wittig, Samuel R. Delany and Cherrie Moraga. Alisa Solomon and Martin Duberman of CLAGS discuss the genesis of the lecture series and reflect on the evolution of lesbian and gay studies over its first ten years. Hine Sight Darlene Clark Hine, 1997-03-22 A collection of 14 essays by Hine on American history. Michigan State U from the past 14 years covering African American women's history. Topics include female slave resistance, Black migration to the urban Midwest, 19th century Black women physicians and the Black studies movement. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc, Portland, OR.
