Black Youth Rastafarianism And The Identity Crisis In Britain:

Black Youth, rastafarianism, and the identity crisis in Britain, 1983 Black Youth, Rastafarianism, and the Identity Crisis in Britain Len Garrison, 1979 Black Youth in Crisis (Routledge Revivals) E. Cashmore, B.

Troyne, 2013-10-08 First published in 1982 this book considers the position of young Afro Caribbean people in Britain in the 1980s It looks at how at the time this group of young people were disproportionately hit by growing unemployment seemed to be over represented in crime statistics and were often disadvantage at school The authors of the book analyse the struggles of the time and look at the reasons for their existence Black British Culture and Society Kwesi

Owusu, 2003-09-02 Black British Culture and Society brings together in one indispensable volume key writings on the Black community in Britain from the Windrush immigrations of the late 1940s and 1950s to contemporary multicultural Britain Combining classic writings on Black British life with new specially commissioned articles Black British Culture and Society records the history of the post war African and Caribbean diaspora tracing the transformations of Black culture in British society Black British Culture and Society explores key facets of the Black experience charting Black Britons struggles to carve out their own identity and place in an often hostile society The articles reflect the rich diversity of the Black British experience addressing economic and social issues such as health religion education feminism old age community and race relations as well as Black culture and the arts with discussions of performance carnival sport style literature theatre art and film making The contributors examine the often tense relationship between successful Black public figures and the media and address the role of the Black intellectual in public life Featuring interviews with noted Black artists and writers such as Aubrey Williams Mustapha Matura and Caryl Phillips and including articles from key contemporary thinkers such as Stuart Hall A Sivanandan Paul Gilroy and Henry Louis Gates Black British Culture and Society provides a rich resource of analysis critique and comment on the Black community s distinctive contribution to cultural life in Britain today , New Right

Discourse on Race and Sexuality Anna Marie Smith, 1994-11-10 The first book in the Cultural Margins series is a 1994 study of racism and homophobia in British politics which demonstrates the demonisation of blacks lesbians and gays in New Right discourse Anna Marie Smith develops theoretical insights from literary and cultural critics including Nietzsche Foucault Derrida Hall and Gilroy to produce detailed readings of two key moments in New Right discourse the speeches of Enoch Powell on black immigration 1968 72 and the legislative campaign of the late 1980s to prohibit the promotion of homosexuality Her analysis challenges the silence on racism and homophobia in previous studies of Thatcherism and the New Right and shows how demonisation of lesbians and gays depends on previous demonisations of black immigrant and criminal figures Overall this book offers a devastating critique of racism and homophobia in late twentieth century Britain

Rastafari and the Arts Darren J. N. Middleton, 2015-02-11 Drawing on literary musical and visual representations of and by Rastafari Darren J N Middleton provides an introduction to Rasta through the arts broadly conceived The religious underpinnings of the Rasta movement are often overshadowed by Rasta's association with reggae music dub and performance poetry Rastafari and the Arts An Introduction takes a fresh view of Rasta considering the relationship between the artistic and religious dimensions of the movement in depth Middleton's analysis complements current introductions to Afro Caribbean religions and offers an engaging example of the role of popular culture in illuminating the beliefs and practices of emerging religions Recognizing that outsiders as well as insiders have shaped the Rasta movement since its modest beginnings in Jamaica Middleton includes interviews with members of both groups including Ejay Khan Barbara Makeda Blake Hannah Geoffrey Philp Asante Amen Reggae Rajahs Benjamin Zephaniah Monica Haim Blakk Rasta Rocky Dawuni and Marvin D Sterling White Talk, Black Talk Roger Hewitt, 1986-10-23 A study of relations between black and white adolescents in South London

Pan Africanism in the African Diaspora Ronald W. Walters, 1997 This groundbreaking volume analyzes important case studies of Black political movements since the 1960s and the impact of the movements on the African American community Previous studies on this subject have been largely historical in nature focusing on the thought of nineteenth century Pan Africanist or early twentieth century formal Pan African movements such as those led by W E B Du Bois and Marcus Garvey In this book Walters analyzes heretofore largely unaddressed cases in which African American societies forged connections with others in the Diaspora within the framework of significant political movements He applies social science theory to the analysis of the cases based on the proposition that Pan African studies a subject within the broad field of Africana Studies is itself very diverse and lends itself to analysis by an unlimited number of modern disciplinary approaches and perspectives Walters uses the tools of comparative politics for examining similar Black and white social institutions and organizations in the United States and other countries and for creating a tailored Pan African perspective as a criteria with which to describe the interactive relationships between the American Black community and Blacks in Britain South Africa Brazil and the Caribbean He fashions a unique and radically new perspective and model for addressing the age old question of the African continuum by advancing the notion that Pan Africanism can be about the struggle for community a struggle not incompatible with efforts to change the State His is a twenty first century view of race relations and classes in the post modern era of capitalism Pan Africanism in the African Diaspora is broadly a work of political science in that it is concerned with political phenomena and applies methods of analysis from that field Nevertheless it is also interdisciplinary in content perspective and analytical approach Walters new data transcends the notions previously put forth and forms a significant contribution to political theory in African and African American studies

Racialized Boundaries Floya Anthias, Nira Yuval-Davis, 2005-10-11 This wide ranging and accessible book examines race in relation to social divisions such as ethnicity gender and class It provides a major new approach to studying the boundaries of race and will be of interest to students of sociology ethnic studies and gender studies

Black Success Stories Zhana, 2006-09 This book celebrates the successes and achievements of African Caribbean people in UK society who are at the top of their fields in politics education business and enterprise and health What steps have successful African Caribbean people taken in order to achieve their goals What problems and difficulties did they face and how did they overcome them What mistakes did they make along the way What kind of future are we building for our young people Some of those interviewed here include business guru Ren Carayol MBE Diane Abbott MP journalist and broadcaster Henry Bonsu and many more With a foreword by Lord Herman Ouseley Contained within these pages are guidelines and signposts to achievement which should be read by every African Caribbean young person parent and educator Fear of the Dark Lola Young,2006-05-17 Studies of the portrayal of black people in film have tended to be studies for the ideological correctness of the depictions of black people and the extent to which they rely on stereotypes By closely examining films such as Sapphire 1959 Leo the Last 1969 Black Joy 1977 Playing Away 1986 and Mona Lisa 1987 and situating them in their historical and social context Fear of the Dark develops a particular critical perspective on the film portrayal of black female sexuality and questions the extent to which black film makers have challenged stereotypes Dread Jesus William David Spencer,2011-06-14 Dread Jesus explores the black dreadlocked Jesus in the teachings of Rastafari Is Rastafari simply a bizarre Christian cult destined to fade if the Emperor Haile Selassie never reappears Or could it become a vibrant Two Thirds World reform movement recalling Christianity to its original non oppressing gospel for all people Rigorously researched William David Spencer s unique and compelling study which includes exclusive interviews with major Rastafarian thinkers and close analysis of the lyrics of many reggae songs will prove genuinely accessible to anyone who wishes to learn more about Rastafari and its significance for global Christianity Rastafari Ennis Barrington Edmonds,2003 Traces the history of the Rastafarian movement discussing the impact it has had on Jamaican society its successful expansion to North America the British Isles and Africa its role as a dominant cultural force in the world and other related topics Childhood, Youth And Social Change Lynne Chisholm,2005-08-04 First published in 1990 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Many Struggles Hakim Adi,2023-07-05 A wonderful showcase of the most exciting work happening in Black British History and a rousing call to action Essential reading Christienna Fryar historian of Britain and the Caribbean A forceful revolt against Eurocentric history and imperialist nostalgia this illuminates the everyday lives and interconnected freedom struggles of generations of Black people in Britain particularly Black women An indispensable resource W Chris Johnson University of Toronto They can destroy our landing cards but they ll never erase our history Packed with lucid rigorous and groundbreaking new research this is essential reading Kevin Searle editorial board History Matters The history of African and Caribbean people in Britain is centuries long Although integral to and indivisible from British history it is usually treated as a footnote or forgotten altogether But with the flourishing of the Black Lives Matter uprisings and fierce debates around the legacies of colonialism a renewed hunger for the recovery of this history has come Edited by leading historian Hakim Adi Many Struggles includes contributions from various emerging historians and scholar activists Covering the sixteenth to the late twentieth centuries the book reveals the long history of African and Caribbean people in Britain Drawing on new archival research Many Struggles emphasizes often neglected themes such as local histories women gender and political activism Hakim Adi was the first person of African heritage to be appointed a professor of history in Britain and currently teaches at the University of Chichester He is the author of numerous books including African and Caribbean People in Britain A History West Africans in Britain 1900 1960 and Pan Africanism A History He has made numerous documentary film television and radio appearances and is included in the book 100 Great Black Britons Queen Mother Ashley D. Farmer,2025-11-04 From an award winning historian of Black radical politics comes the definitive biography of Audley Moore mother of modern Black Nationalism and trailblazer in the fight for reparations Queen Mother is a monumental achievement a rendering worthy of the great Audley Moore herself Jelani Cobb Dean of the Columbia School of Journalism In the world of Black radical politics the name Audley Moore commands unquestioned respect Across the nine decades of her life Queen Mother Moore distinguished herself as a leading progenitor of Black Nationalism the founder of the modern reparations movement and from her Philadelphia and Harlem homes a mentor to some of America s most influential Black activists And yet she is far less remembered than many of her peers and protégés Marcus Garvey Malcolm X and Muhammad Ahmad to name just a few and the ephemera of her life are either lost or plundered In Queen Mother celebrated writer and historian Ashley D Farmer restores Moore s faded portrait delivering the first ever definitive account of her life and enduring legacy Deeply researched and richly detailed Queen Mother is more than just the biography of an American icon It s a narrative history of 20th century Black radicalism told through the lens of the woman whose grit and determination sustained the movement British Activist Authors Addressing Children of Colour Karen Sands-O'Connor,2022-08-25 Activist and radical left politics in Britain have long been concerned with issues of race It is not until the 1960s when the British population began seeing an increased populace of British born children from Black and Asian backgrounds that a significant number of writers began addressing children of colour about activist and radical ideas Exploring some of the activists producing work from the late 1960s onwards and how and why they wrote and published for children this text examines the space given to people of colour by white activists the voice agency and intersectionality in activist writing for young people how writers used activism to expand definitions of Britishness for child readers and finally how activism and writing about it has changed in the 21st century From communist and feminist activists concerned with broader children s rights such as Chris Searles and Rosemary Stones to Black Panthers and contemporary advocates for people of colour from Farrukh Dhondy to Floella Benjamin Benjamin Zephaniah to Liv Little Karen Sands O Connor traces how these radicals translated their values for children of colour Beginning with the incidents that sparked activism and the first cultural products for children up to the mainstream presses publishing figures such as the grime artist Stormzy this book analyses the choices struggles and successes of writers of activist literature as they tried to change Britain and British literature to make it a welcoming place for all child readers The Sound, Society and the Geography of Popular Music Dr Ola Johansson, Professor Thomas L. Bell, 2012-11-28 Popular music is a cultural form much rooted in space and place. This book interprets the meaning of music from a spatial perspective and in doing so it furthers our understanding of broader social relations and trends including identity, attachment to place, cultural economies, social activism and politics. The book's editors have brought together a team of scholars to discuss the latest innovative thinking on music and its geographies, illustrated with a fascinating range of case studies from the USA, Canada, the Caribbean, Australia and Great Britain.
