Blackboard Jungle A Novel:

The Blackboard Jungle Evan Hunter, 2004-09-28 Written in 1954 this controversial story cracked down on the public school system and dramatized student violence as no other novel of its time It also spawned the classic 1955 film that introduced the world to Sidney Poitier and rock and roll music Now reissued for its 50th anniversary The blackboard jungle Ed McBain, 1955 The Blackboard Jungle Evan Hunter, 1963 Blackboard Jungle Evan Hunter, 2015-09-20 The author of the book and the producer of the movie that followed it almost certainly did not intend the book would have the result it produced It was intended as social commentary on the degeneration of today's youth and a warning to parents They did not know and could not have known that the book and the movie that followed it would lead to a REVOLUTION in society and bring on the Era of Rock and Roll It is widely agreed that the movie Blackboard Jungle starring Glen Ford caused the Rock and Roll Revolution Millions of kids watched this movie and they took up the life styles of the kids depicted in the movie The dance scenes when the movie opens were brief lasting only a few seconds but soon all kids were dancing like that lifting up their partners and twirling them in the air Bill Haley did not invent Rock and Roll and his song Rock Around the Clock was not the first song in that style but it was the song all the kids listened to and followed Next came Elvis and the rest is history The opening scene to Blackboard Jungle shows students dancing in the school yard to the sound of Rock Around the Clock Although this dance sequence lasted only a few seconds millions of kids watched it and they all started dancing this way

Blackboard Jungle , 2008 The Great Expectations School Dan Brown, 2011-09-01 At the age of twenty two Dan Brown came to P S 85 as an eager fresh faced teacher He was even as signed his own class 4 217 Unbeknownst to him 4 217 was the designated dumping ground for all fourth grade problem cases and his students would prove to be more challenging than he could have ever anticipated Intent on being a caring dedicated teacher but confronted with unruly children absent parents and a failing administration Dan was pushed to the limit time and again he found himself screaming with rage punching his fist through a blackboard out of sheer frustration often just wanting to give up and walk away Yet in this seeming chaos he slowly learned from the more seasoned teachers at the school and from his own mistakes how to discipline teach and make a difference The Great Expectations School is the touching story of Class 4 217 and their teacher Mr Brown But more than that it is the revealing story of a broken educational system and all those struggling within and fighting against it The Blackboard Jungle Ed McBain, 1963 Uncivil Rights Jonna Perrillo, 2024-05-31 Almost fifty years after Brown v Board of Education a wealth of research shows that minority students continue to receive an unequal education At the heart of this inequality is a complex and often conflicted relationship between teachers and civil rights activists examined fully for the first time in Jonna Perrillo's Uncivil Rights which traces the tensions between the two groups in New York City from the Great Depression to the present While movements for teachers rights and civil rights were not always in conflict Perrillo uncovers the ways they have become so brought about both by teachers who have come to see civil rights efforts as detracting from or competing with their own goals and by civil rights activists whose aims have de professionalized the role of the educator Focusing in particular on unionized teachers Perrillo finds a new vantage point from which to examine the relationship between school and community showing how in this struggle educators activists and especially our students have lost out

Cinema under National Reconstruction Hye Seung Chung, 2024-11-15 Cinema under National Reconstruction calls for a revisionist understanding of state film censorship during successive Cold War military regimes in South Korea 1961 1988 Drawing upon primary documents from the Korean Film Archive s digitized database and framing South Korean film censorship from a transnational perspective Hye Seung Chung makes the case that while political oppression repression existed inside and outside the film industry during this period film censorship was not simply a tool for authoritarian dictatorship Through such case studies as Yu Hyun mok s The Stray Bullet 1961 Ha Kil jong s The March of the Fools 1975 and Yi Chang ho s Declaration of Fools 1983 the author defines censorship as a dialogical process of cultural negotiations wherein the state the film industry and the public fight out a battle over the definitions and functions of national cinema In the context of Cold War Korea one cannot fully understand or construct film history without reassessing censorship as a productive feedback system where both state regulators and filmmakers played active roles in shaping the
