Women of Color Elizabeth Brown-Guillory, 2010-06-28 Interest in the mother daughter relationship has never been greater yet there are few books specifically devoted to the relationships between daughters and mothers of color To fill that gap this collection of original essays explores the mother daughter relationship as it appears in the works of African American Asian American Mexican American Native American Indian and Australian Aboriginal women writers Prominent among the writers considered here are Toni Morrison Alice Walker Maxine Hong Kingston Cherrie Moraga Leslie Marmon Silko and Amy Tan Elizabeth Brown Guillory and the other essayists examine the myths and reality surrounding the mother daughter relationship in these writers' works They show how women writers of color often portray the mother daughter dyad as a love hate relationship in which the mother painstakingly tries to convey knowledge of how to survive in a racist sexist and classist world while the daughter rejects her mother's experiences as invalid in changing social times This book represents a further opening of the literary canon to twentieth century women of color Like the writings it surveys it celebrates the joys of breaking silence and moving toward reconciliation and growth

There's Nothing I Can Do When I Think of You Late at Night Naiqian Cao, 2009-05-20 Set among a remote cluster of cave dwellings in Shanxi province There's Nothing I Can Do When I Think of You Late at Night is a genre defying exposé of rural communism In a series of vivid interlocking vignettes several narrators speak of adultery bestiality incest and vice revealing the consequences of desire in a world of necessity The Wen Clan Caves are based on an isolated village where the author Cao Naiqian lived during the Cultural Revolution The land is hard and unforgiving and the people suffer in poverty and ignorance Through the individual perspectives of the Wen Clan denizens a complete portrait of village life takes shape Dark yet lyrical Cao's snapshots range from pastoral stories of childhood innocence to shocking accounts of brutality and terror His work echoes William Faulkner's Go Down Moses and Sherwood Anderson's Winesburg, Ohio yet the author's depictions of elemental passions and regional mores make the book entirely his own Celebrated for its economy of expression flashes of humor and an emphasis on understatement rarely found in Chinese fiction There's Nothing I Can Do When I Think of You Late at Night is an excellent introduction to the power and craft of Cao Naiqian His vivid personalities and unflinching realism herald the haunting work of an original literary force
