Blackness Is A Theme Of Exotic Beauty:

Blackness is a Theme of Exotic Beauty Zafir Iben El-Quhir, 1978 The Politics of African-American Women's Beauty in Ebony Magazine Monika N. Gosin, 2004 Uncommodified Blackness Mandisi Majavu, 2017-03-14 This book is a study of the lived experience of African men in Australia and New Zealand The author employs a relational account of racism which foregrounds how the colonial shaped the contemporary with the settler states of contemporary Australia and New Zealand having been moulded by their colonial histories Uncommodified Blackness examines the changing racial conditions in Australia and New Zealand inspired by the view that as racial conditions change globally prevailing racial modalities in these two countries must be reexamined and theory must be developed or revised as appropriate Students and scholars across a range of social science disciplines will find this book of interest particularly those with an interest in refugees immigration race and masculinity Imagining Blackness in Germany and Austria Sabrina K. Rahman, Michael Saman, Charlotte Szilagyi, 2020-05-15 Imagining Blackness in Germany and Austria offers a breadth of fresh and provocative perspectives on the ways that blackness has been configured and instrumentalized in cultural productions from around the modern German speaking world The essays collected here examine material ranging from eighteenth century literary and philosophical landmarks to Viennese modernist art from colonial missionary literature to twentieth century sculpture film and music from National Socialist ideology to Leftist counterdiscourse Spanning a range of literary visual and theoretical discourses these essays identify crucial moments within radical paradigm shifts in the ways the concept of blackness has been employed by European intellectuals One shift can be observed within the notion of blackness itself which progresses from a state that precedes political articulation to one that is negotiated discursively Another shift sees conservative notions of race give way to a recodification of blackness as American rather than African In this way blackness becomes linked to the advent of a hegemonic power A further shift can be discerned in the ways nationalist discourses of colonial supremacy and of an impending darkening of Europe progress toward the perception of blackness as an entry point into the cultural complex known as Amerika into mass culture and into European modernity itself With an introduction by Werner Sollors this collection provides valuable compelling and timely material and insight for scholars and students interested in modern German speaking culture African American and African Diaspora studies and their intersections Black Beauty: Aesthetics, Stylization, Politics Shirley Anne Tate, 2016-04-15 Previous work discussing Black beauty has tended to concentrate on Black women s search for white beauty as a consequence of racialization Without denying either the continuation of such aesthetics or their enduring power this book uncovers the cracks in this hegemonic Black beauty Drawing on detailed ethnographic research amongst British women of Caribbean heritage this volume pursues a broad discussion of beauty within the Black diaspora contexts of the Caribbean the UK the United States and Latin America through different historical periods to the present day With a unique exploration of beauty race and identity politics the author reveals how Black women themselves

Flashes of Fire Elie Assis, 2019-07-25 The essence of true love is in the yearning not in the consummation This literary analysis of the Song of Songs employs the methods of New Criticism Each analysis aims to uncover the messages conveyed by the poems and the inner world of the characters The analysis brings to the fore the highly sophisticated and the original creativity of the love poetry of the Song of Songs In the introduction the question is posed as to whether the Song of Songs is an anthology or one literary whole After discussing the strengths and weakness of the various approaches the author proposes a novel structure for the Book predicated on the various genres of the love poems Assis discerns poems of physical description poems of adoration and poems of yearning In addition he discerns what he takes to be a previously unrecognized genre poems of rendezvous a new structure which is based on a psychological understanding of passionate love is now discovered One of the undisputed dominant features of passionate love is the longing for union with the beloved Based on this premise the book is divided into five sections each of which ends with an attempt to unite or in a union The structure of the book reflects an emotional and inner development in the psyche of the lovers and in the relationship between them Throughout the book the interrelationships between the various genres of the love poems and the development of the characters is spelled out Coloring the Nation David Howard,2001 This volume explores the significance of racial theorizing in Dominican society and its manifestation in everyday life The author examines how ideas of skin colour and racial identity influence a wide spectrum of Dominicans in how they view themselves and their Haitian neighbours Black Africa and the US Art World in the Early 20th Century P. A. Mullins,2024-01-09 This book will explore several critical connections between Black African objects and white Western aesthetics and artwork in the United States from the late 1800s until 1939 Drawing from primary source materials and various scholarship in the field philosophy history sociology anthropology museum studied art history cultural studies the book provides an analysis of the threads of white supremacy which run through early scholarship and understandings of Black African object within the United States and how scholars use the objects to reinforce narratives of primitive Black Africa and civilized advanced white Europe and the United States

Under the Sky of My Africa Catharine Theimer Nepomnyashchy,Nicole Svobodny,Ludmilla A. Trigos,2006-05-30 A wide ranging consideration of the nature and significance of Pushkin s African heritage Roughly in the year 1705 a young African boy acquired from the seraglio of the Turkish sultan was transported to Russia as a gift to Peter the Great This child later known as Abram Petrovich Gannibal was to become Peter s godson and to live to a ripe old age having attained the rank of general and the status of Russian nobility More important he was to become the great grandfather of Russia s greatest national poet Alexander Pushkin It is the contention of the editors of this book borne out by the essays in the collection that Pushkin s African ancestry has played the role of a wild card of sorts as a formative element in Russian cultural mythology and that the ways in which Gannibal s legacy has been included in or excluded from Pushkin s biography over the last two hundred years can serve as a shifting marker of Russia s self definition The first single volume in English on this rich topic Under the Sky of My Africa addresses the wide variety of interests implicated in the question of Pushkin s blackness race studies politics American studies music mythopoetic criticism mainstream Pushkin studies In essays that are by turns biographical iconographical cultural and sociological in focus the authors representing a broad range of disciplines and perspectives take us from the complex attitudes toward race in Russia during Pushkin s era to the surge of racism in late Soviet and post Soviet contemporary Russia In sum Under the Sky of My Africa provides a wealth of basic material on the subject as well as a series of provocative readings and interpretations that will influence future considerations of Pushkin and race in Russian culture Staging New Britain Geoffrey V.
