

The image features the word "blackout" in a large, 3D, blue-outlined font. A lit candle is positioned vertically through the letter 'k', with its flame glowing brightly. In the dark background, the silhouettes of two people are visible, one on the left and one on the right, both appearing to be looking towards the center. The overall scene is dimly lit, emphasizing the candle's light and the blue text.

Beyond Picture Books Barbara Barstow,Judith Riggle,1989 Make a Home Out of You Ginelle Testa,2025-07-30 For readers of Drinking A Love Story by Caroline Knapp comes an unflinching coming of age addiction memoir about one woman s journey to overcome her destructive roots to discover her road to recovery Born to an abusive mother and a drug dealer father Ginelle Testa is not exactly set up for success and her early years are just as troubled as one might expect By the end of her thirteenth year she s started experimenting with alcohol and drugs has fallen prey to anorexia and has been sexually assaulted And that s only the beginning of her spiral down into addiction and disordered eating As Ginelle progresses into young adulthood she hits several substance related bottoms In her senior year of college after blacking out and ending up naked in her dorm s community shower she goes to Alcoholics Anonymous and gets sober But steering clear of drugs and alcohol she discovers is not a cure all she still has a long way to go before she can truly heal Raw relatable and powerful Testa s is a riveting tale of climbing up from rock bottom and learning to make a home in oneself instead of in substances and other people Reading at War, 1939-45 David Bilton,2020-03-30 A history of life in the southern English town during World War II As in the Great War Reading in the Second World War was a town permanently in a state of flux So close to London so easily pinpointed by its proximity to the Thames with railway lines converging near the town center and with much of the town s industry geared up to essential war work it was an obvious target for the German Luftwaffe when the war broke out Knowing this the council had set up an efficient civil defense system aided by government finance Fortunately for the citizens although they were bombed on many occasions only one raid had any significant impact The book covers the daily life of a town ready for the worst but one that continued with its daily life and just got on with its efforts to aid the war effort The book is profusely illustrated with photographs illustrations and human interest stories Much of the material used has not been seen since the war so it provides a valuable and unique insight into daily life of the town David Bilton takes an in depth look at how the people of Reading coped during the conflict Interesting to read that suffering from German Air Raids was apparently minimal and the photographs as always are fascinating to see A brilliant series Books Monthly UK Cambridge Academic English B1+ Intermediate Student's Book Craig Thaine,2012-02-09 Cambridge Academic English is a three level integrated skills course for higher education students at university or on foundation courses The B1 Intermediate Student s Book introduces students to the characteristics of written and spoken academic texts Students are guided towards developing relevant strategies for setting study goals and approaching these texts From asking for help understanding essay questions to planning essay paragraphs and listening for gist and detail students have a wealth of opportunities to practice all core academic skills The course develops independent learning skills and critical thinking through Study Tips sections and allows for personalisation of learning in the Focus on your subject sections Five lecture skills units provide authentic practice in listening to lectures and note taking I Shot My Bridge Partner Matthew Granovetter,1999 Young Matthew s first visit to the Mayfair bridge club in New York is made to try to rescue his schoolfriend Stanley Once there though he becomes fascinated by the idea of money bridge and how different the game is from the one he knows His education in both bridge and life skills proceeds at the hands of the beautiful and dangerous Chops the odious Pizza McCarver Otto the mad Hungarian and the other singular denizens of the Mayfair Before long there is a mysterious accident at the club and as the tensions among the players stretch to breaking point a second tragedy seems almost inevitable But this time Matthew himself is the prime suspect Can Matthew solve the mystery and clear his name And just as important can he gain some credibility at the bridge table and survive amongst the card sharks at the Mayfair Club Back cover Engaging College and University Students Ken Badley,2022-09-02 Engaging College and University Students outlines creative and effective course organization and teaching learning strategies for higher education courses By describing specific instructional best practices rather than addressing general questions about teaching in higher education the author presents a valuable resource for educators to consult in the moment The author explores the challenges of engaging students in online settings and draws comparisons with face to face strategies of engagement By organizing the strategies according to course progress and offering corresponding rubrics for assessment this guide for instructors offers a solid foundation for an ever changing teaching and learning landscape A Love Letter to Reading Heather Snodgrass,2024-11-07 Scorpion a master assassin has a song for every target Years of training and calculated kills have formulated her style both fashionable and deadly She unlocks a new world for herself when she discovers a love for reading A new target sends her into a fit of discovery leading her to a book club that changes her life as well as those closest to her However it s not always the change she would have chosen and she must do what is necessary to stop the people she works for who happen to be her family before they get to her

Reading Dancing Susan Leigh Foster, 1986 Winner of the Dance Perspectives Foundation de la Torre Bueno Prize Recent approaches to dance composition seen in the works of Merce Cunningham and the Judson Church performances of the early 1960s suggest the possibility for a new theory of choreographic meaning Borrowing from contemporary semiotics and post structuralist criticism Reading Dancing outlines four distinct models for representation in dance which are illustrated first through an analysis of the works of contemporary choreographers Deborah Hay George Balanchine Martha Graham and Merce Cunningham and then through reference to historical examples beginning with court ballets of the Renaissance The comparison of these four approaches to representation affirms the unparalleled diversity of choreographic methods in American dance and also suggests a critical perspective from which to reflect on dance making and viewing

Rethinking the World Peter Pogany, 2006-09 The post Marxian new historical materialism described in this book breathes new life into our comprehension of the world A 200 year perspective on modernity tells us that an all embracing physical phenomenon holds humankind in its grip History has recorded two distinct global systems thus far laissez faire metal money which spanned most of the 19th century and lasted until the outbreak of World War I and mixed economy weak multilateralism which began after 1945 and exists today The period between the two systems 1914 1945 was a chaotic transition This evolutionary pulsation is well known to students of thermodynamics It corresponds to the behavior of expanding and complexifying material systems The exhaustion of oil and other natural resources is pushing the world toward a third global system that may be called two level economy strong multilateralism It will be impossible to get there without a new chaotic transition No repeated warnings academic advice moral advocacy inspired reforms or political leadership can provide a shortcut around it But if it took 1914 1945 to make a relatively minor adjustment in the global order what will it take to make a major one
