Blackwater Lightship:

The Blackwater Lightship Colm Tóibín, 2023-06-15 Shortlisted for the Booker Prize from the author of Brooklyn and Long Island Set in Ireland in the 1990s Colm Tóibín's The Blackwater Lightship tells the story of the Devereux family and reveals the intense connection between grandmother mother and daughter Helen's beloved brother Declan is dying Now she must join her mother and grandmother in a crumbling old house by the sea three generations calling an uneasy truce after years of strife to be by his side Together with Declan's friends who know more about him than any family they must all deal with the past and come to terms with each other It is in his emotional choreography that Tóibín shows himself to be an exceptional writer Sunday Telegraph

The Blackwater Lightship Colm Tóibín, 2000 Helen her mother and her grandmother come together to care for Helen's terminally ill brother

Goodbye Yeats and O'Neill Edward Alphonsus Hagan, 2010 Goodbye Yeats and O'Neill is a reading of one or two books recently written by the following major authors Roddy Doyle Colm Tóibín John McGahern William Trevor Seamus Deane Nuala O Faolain Patrick McCabe Colum McCann Nick Laird Gerry Adams Claire Boylan Frank McCourt Tim O'Brien Michael Patrick MacDonald Alice McDermott Edward J Delaney Beth Lordan William Kennedy Thomas Kelly and Mary Gordon The study argues that farce has been a major mode of recent Irish and Irish American fiction and memoir a primary indicator of the state of both Irish and Irish American cultures in the early twenty-first century

The Blackwater Lightship Colm Tóibín, 2000 A deeply resonant story about three generations of an estranged family reuniting to mourn an untimely death It is the early 1990s and Helen O'Doherty her mother Lily and her grandmother Dora have come together in a crumbling old house along Ireland's coastal southeast to tend Helen's adored brother Declan who is dying of AIDS With two of Declan's friends the six of them are forced to plumb the shoals of their own histories and to come to terms with each other Written in a spare powerful prose this is a moving novel about the capacity of stories to heal the deepest wounds

"Blighted Beginnings" Jonathan Bolton, 2010 This book also looks at how authors have persistently used the bildungsroman to complicate and challenge the idealization of the family exposing the divorce ban as symptomatic of an unrealistic notion of domestic inviolability This study concludes with a discussion of the future of the bildungsroman in a country that has transcended many of its formative crises This chapter considers Doyle's A Star Called Henry as a text that inaugurates a new phase in Irish coming of age narratives in which many of the problems of Irish life formerly treated so earnestly and tragically can be a source of play and humor By looking at a comprehensive range of novels by writers like Sean O Faolain Elizabeth Bowen Edna O'Brien and William Trevor as well as lesser known figures like Eimar O'Duffy Francis MacManus and Mary Morrissy Blighted Beginnings traces the evolving concerns of Irish writers as they pushed for a greater accommodation of individual freedoms and aspirations

BOOK JACKET

Hear Us Out Richard Canning, 2004-01-13 The author of the acclaimed Gay Fiction Speaks brings us new interviews with twelve prominent gay writers who have emerged in the last decade Hear Us Out demonstrates how in recent decades the canon of gay fiction has developed diversified and expanded its audience into the mainstream Readers will recognize names like Michael Cunningham whose Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Hours inspired the hit movie and others like Christopher Bram Bernard Cooper Stephen McCauley and Matthew Stadler These accounts explore the vicissitudes of writing on gay male themes in fiction over the last thirty years prejudices of the literary marketplace social and political questions the impact of AIDS commonalities between gay male and lesbian fiction and even some delectable bits of gossip

The Poetics and Ethics of (Un-)Grievability in Contemporary Anglophone Fiction Susana Onega, Jean-Michel Ganteau, 2022-12-27 The working hypothesis of the book is that since the 1990s an increasing number of Anglophone fictions are responding to the new ethical and political demands arising out of the facts of war exclusion climate change contagion posthumanism and other central issues of our post trauma age by adapting the conventions of traditional forms of expressing grievability such as elegy testimony or pseudo autobiography Situating themselves in the wake of Judith Butler's work on ungrievability the essays collected in this volume seek to cast new light on these issues by delving into the socio cultural constructions of grievability and other types of vulnerabilities invisibilities and inaudibilities linked with the neglect and or abuse of non normative individuals and submerged groups that have been framed as disposable exploitable and or unmournable by such determinant factors as sex gender ethnic origin health etc thereby refining and displacing the category of subalternity associated with the poetics of postmodernism

Redefinitions of Irish Identity Irene Gilson, Nordin, Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2010 This collection of essays aims to provide new insights into the debate on postnationalism in Ireland from the perspective of narrative writing

The Blackwater Lightship Colm Tóibín, 2000 Three generations of women come together to support a dying family member Although the women have been at odds for years they are able to talk about their differences while they support each other through a trying time

Quiggin's Isle of Man almanack, 1875

Love in a Dark Time Colm Toibin, 2004-06-02 Colm Tóibín knows the languages of the outsider the secret keeper the gay man or woman He knows the covert and overt language of homosexuality in literature In Love in a Dark Time he also describes the solace of finding like minded companions through reading Colm Tóibín examines the life and work of some of the greatest and most influential writers of the past two centuries figures whose homosexuality remained hidden or oblique for much of their lives either by choice or necessity The larger world couldn't know about their sexuality but in their private lives and in the spirit of their work the laws of desire defined their expression This is an intimate encounter with Mann Baldwin Bishop and with the contemporary poets Thom Gunn and Mark Doty Through their work Tóibín is able to come to terms with his own inner desires his interest in secret erotic energy his admiration for courageous figures and his abiding fascination with sadness and tragedy Tóibín looks both at writers forced to disguise their true experience on the page and at readers who find solace and sexual identity by reading between the lines

Psychoanalysis, Gender, and Sexualities Patricia Gherovici, Manya Steinkoler, 2022-11-29 Transcending the sex and gender dichotomy rethinking sexual difference transgenerational trauma

the decolonization of gender non Western identity politics trans feminist debates embodiment and queer trans psychoanalysis these specially commissioned essays renew our understanding of conventionally held notions of sexual difference Looking at the intersections between psychoanalysis feminism and transgender discourses these essays think beyond the normative bi gender Oedipal and phallic premises of classical psychoanalysis while offering new perspectives on gender sexuality and sexual difference From Freud to Lacan Kristeva and Laplanche from misogyny to the MeToo movement this collection brings a timely corrective that historicizes our moment and opens up creative debate Written for professionals scholars and students alike this book will also appeal to psychoanalysts psychologists and anyone in the fields of literature film and media studies gender studies cultural studies and social work who wishes to grapple with the theoretical challenges posed by gender identity sexual embodiment and gender politics

100 First Pages Donald P. H. Eaton, 2007-09 This book is called 100 First Pages because that's what it is Each page in the book is supposed to be the first page of a novel Next to that page on the left are my comments about how the novel might go along with some of my personal thoughts on the subject That's the best part because it is a mini encyclopedia almanac journal and to some extent a blog The book covers a large array of topics and genres When you buy the book and read it you can go to my website listed in the back and vote for your favorite BEGINNING You can also suggest a title for the book I promise that I will write the novel which receives the most votes for publication AND if you are the person who suggests the Best Title i.e. the one I will use you will get a cover credit an entire page inside to write anything you like and one dollar for every copy sold Check out the preview and give it a try

List of Lights, Radio Aids, and Fog Signals, 1963 The Beach in Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Ursula Kluwick, Virginia Richter, 2016-03-09 From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcator of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture

Narratives of the Unspoken in Contemporary Irish Fiction M. Teresa Caneda-Cabrera, José Carregal-Romero, 2023-07-21 This Open access book is a collection of essays and offers an in depth analysis of silence as an aesthetic practice and a textual strategy which paradoxically speaks of the unspoken nature of many inconvenient hidden truths of Irish society in the work of contemporary fiction writers The study acknowledges Ireland's history of damaging silences and considers its legacies but it also underscores how silence can serve as a valuable even productive means of expression From a wide range of critical perspectives the individual essays address among other issues the conspiracies of silence in Catholic Ireland the silenced structural oppression of Celtic Tiger Ireland the recovery of silenced stories voices of the past and their examination in the present as well as millennial disaffection and the silencing of vulnerability in today's neoliberal Ireland The book's attention to silence provides a rich vocabulary for understanding what unfolds in the quiet interstices of Irish writing from recent decades This study also invokes the past to understand the present and thus demonstrates the continuities and discontinuities that define how silence operates in Irish culture Grant FFI2017 84619 P AEI ERDF EU INTRUTHS Inconvenient Truths Cultural Practices of Silence in Contemporary Irish Fiction Funded by the Spanish Research Agency AEI <http://dx.doi.org/10.13039/501100011033> and by the European Regional Development Fund ERDF A Way of Making Europe

The Palgrave Handbook of Affect Studies and Textual Criticism Donald R. Wehrs, Thomas Blake, 2017-12-01 This volume provides a comprehensive account of how scholarship on affect and scholarship on texts have come to inform one another over the past few decades The result has been that explorations of how texts address elicit shape and dramatize affect have become central to contemporary work in literary film and art criticism as well as in critical theory rhetoric performance studies and aesthetics Guiding readers to the variety of topics themes interdisciplinary dialogues and sub disciplinary specialties that the study of interplay between affect and texts has either inaugurated or revitalized the handbook showcases and engages the diversity of scholarly topics approaches and projects that thinking of affect in relation to texts and related media open up or enable These include but are not limited to investigations of what attention to affect brings to established methods of studying texts in terms of period genre cultural contexts rhetoric and individual authorship

Steam Yachts at War Steve Dunn, 2024-09-30 This is the story of how the luxurious steam yachts of the Victorian and Edwardian eras were transformed into weapons of war These beautiful vessels were the ultimate status symbols of British and European royalty American magnates the landed aristocracy and the nouveau riche but when wars came in 1898 and 1914 they were quickly transformed into warships and many of their crews became warriors rather than servants The US Navy was the first to recognise the potential of these elegant vessels In the Spanish American war of 1898 the USN short of ships to operate a blockade of Spanish owned Cuba purchased twenty eight of them and turned them into patrol craft and bombardment ships In Britain in 1914 steam yachts became a stop gap navy filling in for neglected investment in small craft The USN followed suit in 1917 Their wonderful interiors were ripped out antiquated guns and sometimes depth charges fitted and their crews signed into the naval reserves Around the coasts of the Britain and France in the Mediterranean and the USA Canada these former luxurious playthings now attacked land positions and fought surface warships and U boats They interdicted blockade runners escorted convoys were used as depot ships served as hospitals afloat and undertook a host of other functions In all some 300 yachts fought at sea This new book lavishly illustrated with photographs and plans of pre war and wartime steam yachts from a world now lost to view tells their story and the stories of the men who served in them It examines their peacetime origins and development describes their owners and designers and considers their naval deployment the conditions under which the crews lived and worked the many and varied duties assigned to the yachts and their successes and failures together with the losses sustained In just a couple of generations these beautiful craft progressed from status symbols to instruments of war to complete extinction Steam Yachts at War tells this compelling story The Novel Cure Ella Berthoud,Susan Elderkin,Indrajit Hazra,2014-08-01 Whether you have a stubbed toe or a stubborn case of the blues within these pages you ll find a cure in the form of a novel or a combination of novels to help ease your pain You ll also find advice on how to tackle common reading ailments such as what to do when you feel overwhelmed by the number of books in the world or if you have a tendency to give up halfway through When read at the right moment in your life a novel can quite literally change it and The Novel Cure is a reminder of that power Written with authority passion and wit here is a fresh approach to finding new books to read and an enchanting way to revisit the books on your shelves The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff,2001 This anthology examines Love s Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource
