Warde,2013-10-18 When social scientists in the 1970s began to identify the positive and constructive role of cultural practices in the operation of power Pierre Bourdieu advanced a highly influential and subsequently controversial account Most notably in Distinction he charted the connections between cultural taste and practice and social classification This book seeks to evaluate develop and transcend the ideas that Bourdieu explored in Distinction Taken together the papers compare and contrast different theoretical and conceptual approaches bring empirical investigations to bear on relevant theoretical issues drawing on different national experiences France UK Canada Central Africa and attend to aspects of the relationship between culture and power with reference to gender and ethnicity as well as class Thus the book contributes to the on going international debates across the social sciences about Bourdieu s legacy and the current role of cultural practice in social reproduction The Senses in Self, Society, and Culture Phillip Vannini,Dennis Waskul,Simon Gottschalk,2013-10-18 In international cultural organizations The Palgrave Handbook of Sociology in Britain J. Holmwood, J. Scott, 2014-07-18 Leading sociologists outline the historical development of the discipline in Britain and document its continuing influence in this essential and comprehensive reference work Spanning the Scottish enlightenment of the 18th century to the present day this Handbook maps the discipline and the British contribution Consumer Culture Theory Anastasia E. Thyroff, Jeff B. Murray, Russell W. Belk, 2015-11-23 The chapters in this volume are selected from the best papers presented at the 10th Annual Consumer Culture Theory Conference held at the University of Arkansas USA in June 2015 They represent the cutting edge in qualitative consumer research Global Pentecostalism: An Inquiry into the Cultural Dimensions of Globalization Matthias Deininger, 2014-02-01 The rapid global expansion of Pentecostal Christianity is one of the most striking religious phenomena in our contemporary world Today Pentecostalism is by no means some marginal or peculiar denomination within world Christianity It is not simply a niche product in the global religious market but the most dynamic and fastest growing religious movement within the contemporary Christian world From Singapore over Brazil to Ghana Pentecostal Christians are historically and presently rooted in many cultural contexts throughout the world As such Pentecostalism is a religious movement that is both shaped by globalization processes but also a major contributor to the globalization of religion Until recently social scientific approaches to Christianity have often been informed by a rather selective understanding of Christianity stressing its ascetic components premised on a body spirit dualism and seeing its importance mainly as a harbinger of secular modernity Hence where Christianity was studied outside the West it has usually been peripheral and viewed as an alien intrusion undermining local cosmologies However rather than a religious rejection of the world Pentecostalism accommodates to the world and modernity It transcends locality by promulgating a universal imaginary of the world while at the same time incorporating itself successfully into the socio cultural contexts of any new cultures it encounters The fundamental fluidity of the transnational Pentecostal network is conducive for its flexibility to react on the enormous upheavals and changes in a globalized world and to accommodate to them in constructive ways Thus Pentecostalism can be regarded as a paradigmatic case of a glocalised religion it has the ability to adapt itself to local conditions while maintaining and preserving its distinct religious features at the same time This study focuses on the different theoretical attempts made to explain the massive global expansion of Pentecostalism and its relation to broader processes of globalization It discusses to what extent and in what complex ways the Pentecostal movement is interrelated to processes of cultural globalization By looking at the internal religious characteristics of Pentecostal discourse and discursive practices and their articulations within the external circumstances of globalization it tries to untangle some of the complexities that emerge when theorizing the globalization of Pentecostalism Latour and the Humanities Rita Felski, Stephen Muecke, 2020-09-01 How does the work of influential theorist Bruno Latour offer a fresh angle on the practices and purposes of the humanities In recent years defenses of the humanities have tended to argue along predictable lines the humanities foster empathy the humanities encourage critical thinking the humanities offer a counterweight to the cold calculations of the natural and social sciences The essays in Latour and the Humanities take a different approach Exploring the relevance of theorist Bruno Latour's work they argue for attachments and entanglements between the humanities and the sciences while looking closely at the interests institutions and intellectual projects that shape the humanities within and beyond the university The collection which is written by a group of highly distinguished scholars from around the world is divided into two sections In the first part authors engage in depth with Latour's work while also rethinking the ties between the humanities and the sciences Essays argue for greater attention to the nonhuman world the urgency of climate change and more nuanced views of universities as institutions The second half of the volume contains essays that reflect on Latour's influence on the practices of specific disciplines including art the digital humanities film studies and political theory Inspiring conversation about the relevance of actor network theory for research and teaching in the humanities Latour and the Humanities offers a substantial introduction to Latour's work while discussing the humanities without falling back on the genres of either the sermon or the jeremiad This volume will be of interest to all those searching for fresh perspectives on the value and importance of humanistic disciplines and thought Contributors David J Alworth Anders Blok Claudia Breger Dipesh Chakrabarty Yves Citton Steven Connor Gerard de Vries Simon During Rita Felski Francis Halsall Graham Harman Antoine Hennion Casper Bruun Jensen Bruno Latour Heather Love Patrice Maniglier Stephen Muecke Barbara Herrnstein Smith Nigel Thrift Michael Witmore
