Publishing in the Republic of Letters Richard G. Maber, 2022-04-19 This book prints for the first time two remarkable interlocking sequences of letters between Paris and the Netherlands 40 letters from Gilles M. Nage in Paris to Johann Georg Gr. vius in Utrecht and 30 from the printer Henrik Wetstein in Amsterdam to M. Nage Their principal focus is the publication of a considerable number of M nage s works outside France above all his monumental edition of Diogenes Laertius s Lives of the Philosophers The letters give an engaging picture of mutual help within the community of scholars Dutch German English and French including Huguenot exiles like Le Clerc and Bayle M nage s are full of information from Paris while Wetstein s forthright and humorous concentrate on publishing details in a sometimes stormy relationship The great Diogenes edition encountered an extraordinary range of problems difficulties at every stage of publication hazardous wartime communications and not least a bizarrely eccentric collaborator in Marcus Meibomius The two correspondences provide a fascinating case study of the practical working of international scholarly publishing in time of war and the European network of learned correspondence in the later seventeenth century Each letter is printed in full accompanied by a summary detailed commentary and extensive annotations

Urban Images of the Hispanic World, 1493-1793 Richard L. Kagan, Fernando Marias, Fernando Marías Franco, 2000-01-01 This fascinating book examines the particular importance of cities in Spanish and Hispanic American culture as well as the different meanings that artists and cartographers invested in their depiction of New and Old Wold cities and towns Kagan maintains that cities are both built human structures and human communities and that representations of the urban form reflect both points of view He discusses the peculiar character of Spain s empire of towns the history and development of the cityscape as an independent artistic genre both in Europe and the Americas the interaction between European and native mapping traditions differences between European maps of urban America and those produced by local residents whether native or creole and the urban iconography of four different New World towns Lavishly illustrated with a variety of maps pictures and plans many reproduced here for the first time this interdisciplinary study will be of interest to general readers and to specialists in art history cartography history urbanism and related fields

Travel and Travellers from Bede to Dampier Geraldine Barnes with Gabrielle Singleton, 2008-12-11 The essays in this collection a selection of papers presented at the University of Sydney Centre for Medieval Studies workshop Travel and Cartography from Bede to the Enlightenment August 22 23 2001 track a variety of travel narratives from the eighth century to the eighteenth Their voyages which extend from from the literal to the spiritual the political and the artistic show how the concept of narrative mapping has changed over time and how it encompasses cosmogony geography chorography topography and inventory Each essay is concerned in some way with the application of the medieval geographical imagination or with the enduring influence of that imagination upon post medieval travel and discovery writing This book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate university students and to a broad range of academics across the disciplines of literature and history It will be of particular interest to medievalists and scholars of the early modern period and to readers of the new 1997 scholarly journal Studies in Travel Writing The volume will also appeal to a more general informed readership interested in the history of travel and the history of ideas early contact with indigenous people and encounters between East and West
