Blake And Goethe Psychology Ontology Imagination:

Blake and Goethe Martin Bidney, 1988 Blake, Nationalism, and the Politics of Alienation Julia M. Wright, 2004

Despite his reputation as a staunch individualist and repeated attacks on institutions that constrain the individual's imagination Julia Wright argues that William Blake rarely represents isolation positively and explores his concern with the kind of national community being established Blake's Prophetic Workshop G. A. Rosso, 1993

While William Blake's The Four Zoas may be fascinating to Blake scholars it presents formidable obstacles to even the most ardent Romanticist let alone interested critics or the general reader Blake's Prophetic Workshop attempts to clear some of these obstacles by studying the work from a variety of critical perspectives It assumes some familiarity with Blake's prophecies but is cast between the introductory and advanced levels of the two previous books published on the poem Although the major reading strategy is close textual analysis the poem is marked by various cultural and social contexts that need elucidation Chapters alternate between sketching these contexts and traditions and providing detailed readings within these contexts The first chapters give a reception history of the work and set it within the tradition of the eighteenth century long poem namely Thomson's Seasons Pope's An Essay on Man and Young's Night Thoughts texts that Blake critiques as Newtonian substitutions of Miltonic prophecy Chapter three tests these assertions by reading the poem's creation narratives in terms of Anglican Dissenting apologetics The final chapters sift the cultural contexts that shape Blake's use of biblical typology and scrutinize several continental philosophies of history and how they encroach on The Four Zoas as well as situate the poem in the apocalyptic moment of the 1790s While a pluralist approach is followed author George Anthony Rosso Jr subscribes to a fundamentally historical theory that places The Four Zoas in the broad and eclectic tradition of English poetic prophecy Aware of recent critiques of the prophetic Rosso pursues his theory with flexibility and tolerance for other viewpoints An appendix provides a useful commentary on the relations between the text and certain designs drawings and sketches in the manuscript Its aim is to show that Blake repeats key images in various frames to provide a sense of context and development and that the drawings expose what the narrative represses often in graphic sexual detail Rosso presents a Blake who is both deadly serious and disarmingly ironic about the relevance of prophecy in the modern world

The dissertation focuses on one of the most debated prophecies of Blake The Four Zoas The approach is basically psychological and before the main thesis is elaborated a brief survey is given about the most frequently studied parallels such as Freud and Jung The dissertation then proceeds to examine a new aspect a parallel is drawn between the hypotheses of Lipot Szondi disciple to Freud and Blake's visionary universe Szondi's System of Drives helps illuminate several questionable passages of Blake's dream vision furthermore as the parallel points out an interesting change is discernible in Blake's concepts about Enlightenment and Rationalism whereby the previously rejected ideas become integrated into a fourfold world of wholeness and intellectual sanity BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Patterns of Epiphany Martin Bidney,1997 Taking his cue from the French philosopher Gaston Bachelard he postulates that any writer s epiphany pattern usually shows characteristic elements earth air fire water patterns of motion pendular eruptive trembling and or geometric shapes Transgression and the Aesthetics of Evil Taran Kang,2021-12-15 Genius and the Spirit of Transgression Symbols of the Morally Bad Evil and the Sublime Wicked Spectators Dutch Contributions to the Fourteenth International Congress of Slavists, Ohrid, September 10-16, 2008 Sander Brouwer,2008 In this volume of SSLP the contributions of Dutch scholars working in the field of Slavic literature and culture to the 14th International Congress of Slavists Ohrid Macedonia September 10 16 2008 are brought together All of them except one on the Polish poet Cyprian Norwid s story Stigma deal with Russian literature from the end of the 18th century up to recent years A variety of topics is treated such as the feminization of Russian literature the reflection of poetry in prose anthropological and religious dimensions of literature the specifics of theme and of plot Russian modernism and postmodernism and the status of language from different methodological angles gender studies structural analysis philosophical contextual postcolonial Works of such Russian authors as Ippolit Bogdanovich Ivan Turgenev Pavel Melnikov Pecherskii Ignatii Potapenko Iurii Trifonov Timur Kibirov and Viktor Pelevin are discussed in detail This volume is of interest for a scholarly audience interested in Russian literature of the last 250 years Blake's Nostos Kathryn S.
