William Blake's Illustrations to the Book of Job Bo Lindberg, 1973 A Blake Bibliography Gerald Eades Bentley, Martin K. Nurmi, 1964-01-01 A Blake Bibliography was first published in 1964 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The aim of this book is to list every reference to William Blake published between 1757 and 1863 and every criticism and edition of his works from the beginning to the present Partly because of the deluge of scholarship in the last forty years it includes perhaps twice as many titles as Sir Geoffrey Keynes's great bibliography of 1921 An introductory essay on the history of Blake scholarship puts the most significant works into perspective indicates the best work that has been done and points to some neglected areas In addition all the most important references and many of the less significant ones are briefly annotated as to subject and value Because many of the works are difficult to locate specimen copies of all works published before 1831 have been traced to specific libraries Each of Blake's manuscripts is also traced to its present owner Two areas which have received relatively novel attention are early references to Blake before 1863 and important sale and exhibition catalogues of his works In both areas there are significant number of important entries which have not been noticed before by Blake scholars The section on Blake's engravings for commercial works receives especially detailed treatment A few of the titles listed here have not been described previously in connection with Blake The Oxford Handbook of the Reception History of the Bible Michael Lieb, Emma Mason, Jonathan Roberts, 2013-01-10 This wide ranging volume looks at the reception history of the Bible's many texts Part I surveys the outline form and content of twelve key biblical books that have been influential in the history of interpretation Part II offers a series of in depth case studies of the interpretation of particular biblical passages or books

Imagining Nature Kevin Hutchings, 2002 In Imagining Nature Kevin Hutchings combines insights garnered from literary history poststructuralist theory and the emerging field of ecological literary studies He considers William Blake's illuminated poetry in the context of the eighteenth century model of nature's economy a conceptual paradigm that prefigured modern day ecological insights describing all earthly entities as integrated parts of a dynamic interactive system Hutchings details Blake's sympathy for and important suspicions concerning the burgeoning contemporary fascination with such things as environmental ethics animal rights and the various fields of scientific naturalism By focusing on Blake's concern for the relationship between nature and ideology including the politics of class gender and religion Hutchings avoids the sentimentalism and misanthropic pitfalls all too often associated with environmental commentary He articulates a distinctively Blakean perspective on current debates in literary theory and eco criticism and argues that while Blake's peculiar humanism and profound emphasis upon spiritual concerns have led the majority of his readers to regard his work as patently anti natural such a view distorts the central political and aesthetic concerns of Blake's corpus By showing that Blake's apparent hostility toward the natural world is actually a key aspect of his famous critique of institutionalized authority Hutchings presents Blake's work as an example of green Romanticism in its most sophisticated and socially responsive form

Speaking of God in an Inhumane World, Volume 2 Christopher Rowland, 2024-10-31 This two volume collection of essays on the Bible and social justice liberation theology and radical Christianity by Christopher Rowland addresses the question raised by Gustavo Guti rrez about how we can speak of God as a loving parent in a world that continues to be so inhumane These essays by an esteemed New Testament scholar represent intellectual interests of a lifetime as he integrated exegesis of the New Testament texts in their first century contexts and located their interpretations within the quests for meaning and significance that exist within contemporary society These essays represent mostly the latter concern exploring Christian Scripture which has informed the lives of men and women down the centuries as they interpret both contexts and in doing so make a significant contribution to contextual theology that should be heard by the inhabitants of both contexts The first volume of Speaking of God in an Inhumane World includes essays on liberation theology and radical Christianity the second volume focuses primarily on radical Christianity and includes reflections on Gerrard Winstanley William Blake William Stringfellow and others General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
