INEGI,1991-01-01 Fictions of the Feminine in the Nineteenth-Century Spanish Press Lou Charnon-Deutsch,2010-11-01 How was the female body perceived in the popular culture of late nineteenth century Spain Using a wide array of images from popular magazines of the day Lou Charnon Deutsch finds that women were typically presented in ways that were reassuring to the emerging bourgeois culture Charnon Deutsch organizes the 190 images reproduced in this book into six broad categories or fictions of the feminine she reads women s bodies as a romantic symbol of beauty or evil as a privileged link with the natural order as a font of male inspiration as a mouthpiece of bourgeois mores as a focalized point of male fear and desire and as an eroticized expression of Spanish exoticism and political ambitions These imaginary visions of femininity Charnon Deutsch argues were a response to and also helped to create gendered stereotypes by suggesting ideal feminine behavior and poses Further they comprised a reassuring between male cultural medium that provided graphic validation of women s docile body for a culture enthralled with femininity Integrating the fields of literature and cultural studies Charnon Deutsch s approach to this subject is unique Many of the images collected here are available for the first time and they represent only a fraction of the two thousand images Charnon Deutsch collected during her research This book will appeal to students of Spanish cultural studies and gender studies as well as to art historians The Dictator's Seduction Lauren H. was both a style and a movement embodied this dissatisfaction marking the turn of the century period with an aesthetic that consciously set out to revolutionize literature the arts and society within the framework of a brutalizing wildly burgeoning Industrial Civilization Generally associated with northern European culture Art Nouveau also had a great impact in the south particularly in Spain A Dream of Arcadia is the first work to explore Spain's fertile and imaginative Art Nouveau Through the eyes of four major Spanish writers Lily Litvak views several different aspects of the turn of the century struggle against the advances of industrialism in Spain Her interpretation of the early works of Ram n del Valle Incl n Miguel de Unamuno Jos Mart nez Ruiz Azor n and P o Baroja exposes a longing for a preindustrial arcadia based on a return to nature the revival of handicrafts and medieval art an attraction to rural primitive societies and a revulsion against the modern city Set against the European literary and artistic background of the period her observations place the Spanish manifestations of Art Nouveau within the context of the better known northern phenomena Of particular interest is her discussion of the influences of John Ruskin William Morris and the Pre Raphaelites which demonstrates how the general European mood was articulated in Spain Litvak concludes that Valle Incl n Unamuno Azor n and Baroja must be considered as more than simply fin de si cle writers for they became part of a general movement generated by Art Nouveau that spans an entire century A Dream of Arcadia demonstrates that Art Nouveau was more than a flash on Europe's artistic horizon it is a philosophy with ramifications that have led to communes handcrafted articles and nomadic adolescents in search of truth
