Blank Fictions Consumerism Culture And The Contemporary American Novel:

Blank Fictions James Annesley, 1998 In this challenging book the author identifies the principle features of this new genre and interprets them as responses to modern society

The Urban Condition Ghent Urban Studies Team, 1999 What does the Western city at the end of the twentieth century look like How did the modern metropolis of congestion and density turn into a posturban or even postsuburban cityscape What are edge cities and technoburbs How has the social composition of cities changed in the postwar era What do gated communities tell us about social fragmentation Is public space in the contemporary city being privatized and militarized How can the urban self still be defined What role does consumer aestheticism have to play in this These and many more questions are addressed by this uniquely conceived multidisciplinary study The Urban Condition seeks to interfere in current debates over the future and interpretation of our urban landscapes by reuniting studies of the city as a physical and material phenomenon and as a cultural and mental arte fact The Ghent Urban Studies Team responsible for the writing and editing of this volume is directed by Kristiaan Versluys and Dirk De Meyer at the University of Ghent Belgium It is an interdisciplinary research team of young academics that further consists of Kristiaan Borret Bart Eeckhout Steven Jacobs and Bart Keunen The collective expertise of GUST ranges from architectural theory urban planning and art history to philosophy literary criticism and cultural theory

The Contemporary American Novel in Context Andrew Dix, Brian Jarvis, Paul Jenner, 2011-06-02 Assuming no prior knowledge and covering complex textual and contextual material in a clear engaging way this book is a critical introduction to the contemporary American novel focusing on contexts key texts and criticism

Postmodernism, Twenty-First Century Culture, and American Fiction Matt Graham, 2024-07-19 Postmodernism's end is a complex and contentious topic Yet one overarching consensus emerges the postmodern has been surpassed This book poses a thought experiment challenging this position what if postmodernism persists within the twenty first century Rather than designate a new epoch or coherent movement this book interrogates the fragmented contradictory and counterintuitive endurance of postmodern aesthetics within post Cold War America An alternative use of postmodern aesthetics becomes possible when they are decoupled from their twentieth century historical location Collectively these repetitions posit a postmodern continuum contrasting the widely called for succession of postmodernism via this decoupling When postmodern aesthetics are no longer unconsciously repeated within their cultural moment this emergent shift within a period after postmodernism presents an alternative historical positioning and use After their cultural vanguard postmodern aesthetics become a confrontation of the chaotic realism of an inescapable post Cold War capitalism tapping into this cultural zeitgeist through literature

Masculinity in Contemporary New York Fiction Peter Ferry, 2014-08-21 Masculinity in Contemporary New York Fiction is an interdisciplinary study that presents masculinity as a key thematic concern in contemporary New York fiction This study argues that New York authors do not simply depict masculinity as a social and historical construction but seek to challenge the archetypal ideals of masculinity by writing counter hegemonic narratives Gendering canonical New York writers namely Paul Auster Bret Easton Ellis and Don DeLillo illustrates how explorations of masculinity are tied into the principal themes that have defined the American novel from its very beginning The themes that feature in this study include the role of the novel in American society the individual and urban society the journey from innocence to awareness of masculinity the archetypal image of the absent and or patriarchal father the impact of homosocial relations on the everyday performance of masculinity male sexuality and the male individual and globalization What connects these contemporary New York writers is their employment of the one of the great figures in the history of literature the fl neur These authors take the fl neur from the shadows of the Manhattan streets and elevate this figure to the role of self reflexive agent of male subjectivity through which they write counter hegemonic narratives of masculinity This book is an essential reference for those with an interest in gender studies and contemporary American fiction Aggressive Fictions Kathryn Hume,2012-01-15 A frequent complaint against contemporary American fiction is that too often it puts off readers in ways they find difficult to fathom Books such as Bret Easton Ellis s American Psycho Katherine Dunn s Geek Love and Don DeLillo s Underworld seem determined to upset disgust or annoy their readers or to disorient them by shunning traditional plot patterns and character development Kathryn Hume calls such works aggressive fiction Why would authors risk alienating their readers and why should readers persevere Looking beyond the theory based justifications that critics often provide for such fiction Hume offers a commonsense guide for the average reader who wants to better understand and appreciate books that might otherwise seem difficult to enjoy In her reliable and sympathetic guide Hume considers roughly forty works of recent American fiction including books by William Burroughs Kathy Acker Chuck Palahniuk and Cormac McCarthy Hume gathers attacks on the reader into categories based on narrative structure and content Writers of some aggressive fictions may wish to frustrate easy interpretation or criticism Others may try to induce certain responses in readers Extreme content deployed as a tactic for distancing and alienating can actually produce a contradictory effect for readers who learn to relax and go with the flow the result may well be exhilaration rather than revulsion The

Cambridge Introduction to Postmodern Fiction Bran Nicol,2009-10-08 A lucid exploration of the key features of postmodernism and the most important authors from Beckett to DeLillo Contemporary Fiction and Christianity Andrew Tate,2010-10-12 Abandon All Hope - Consumerism and Loss of Identity in Bret Easton Ellis's American Psycho As an Example of Blank Fiction Anja Schiel,2008-04 Thesis M A from the year 2005 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 5 University of Hamburg Sprach Literatur und Medienwissenschaft language English abstract Bret Easton Ellis s American Psycho has been labeled many things from Brat Pack Fiction to Generation X to Minimal Realism While the classification of the novel might be difficult and it has often been misunderstood for its extremely violent scenes what is clear to the attentive reader is its critique of consumer culture Critics have acknowledged an emergence of a large number of writings dealing with this topic in contemporary American literature in the recent past These novels focus on the relationship of American youth with consumer culture with a seemingly non elaborate content and style Attempts of explaining this kind of writing which has also been called fiction of insurgency new narrative downtown writing and punk fiction range from millennial angst to the classification of this literary movement as part of the postmodern culture What seems clear is that these narrations are closely related to the society they have been created in The way these texts incorporate products of their time as a constant accompanying element places them very clearly in a specific time period The apparent non existence of complexity concerning the style which at times reminds the reader of a movie script or a sequence of an MTV video has in the case of American Psycho caused many critics to classify the novel as boring and deny the author the status of an artist Exactly this seeming meaninglessness of these novels argues in favor of a term introduced by critics James Annesley and Elizabeth Young Blank fiction or Blank Generation Fiction The term Blank fiction seems to capture perfectly the emptiness created by consumer culture that has found its way into these narratives not simply in its context but also by means of its language incorporating consumer goods

The Sublime Object of Psychiatry Angela Woods,2011-08-25 Schizophrenia has been one of psychiatry s most contested diagnostic categories The Sublime object of Psychiatry studies representations of schizophrenia across a wide range of disciplines and discourses biological and phenomenological psychiatry psychoanalysis critical psychology antipsychiatry and postmodern philosophy

Chuck Palahniuk Francisco Collado-Rodriguez,2013-06-06 Offering a world full of traumatized characters trapped in a consumerist society where men women sex and gender have become unstable commodities Chuck Palahniuk has become one of the most controversial of contemporary novelists This book is the first guide to bring together scholars from a full range of critical perspectives to explore three of Palahniuk s most widely studied novels Fight Club Invisible Monsters and Choke Examining these works in light of such key critical themes as violence masculinity postmodern aesthetics and trauma the book also explores the ethical dimension of Palahniuk s work that is often lost in the heat of the controversies surrounding his books Together with annotated guides to further reading Chuck Palahniuk also includes section introductions surveying the contexts and reception of each novel making this an essential guide for students and scholars of contemporary literature

Opting Out Ana Sobral,2012-01-01 Opting Out explores the theme of deviance as a form of protest in famous cult novels that have left an indelible mark on contemporary American culture from Jack Kerouac's On the Road to Chuck Palahniuk's Fight Club. Adopting a generational lens it centers on the deviant heroes and literary spokesmen of two major cohorts the Baby Boomers and Generation X. Here for the first time the cult texts that defined these generations are submitted to a critical analysis that allows them to enter into a dialogue or rather a heated debate with each other. This opens new perspectives on the generation gap in America since 1945 offering a dynamic look at the role of youth as agents of social change and cultural innovation. The volume is of interest to students and researchers in contemporary American literature and culture as well as to fans of cult fiction in general. The interdisciplinary approach to the themes of generational conflict and deviant behaviour also makes a significant contribution to the fields of sociology, contemporary history and cultural studies.

Murders and Acquisitions Alzena MacDonald,2013-08-29 The serial killer has become increasingly prevalent in popular culture since the term was coined by Robert Ressler at the FBI in the mid 1970s. Murders and Acquisitions explores the social and political implications of this cultural figure. The collection argues that the often blood chilling representations of the serial killer and serial killing offered in TV series, films, novels and fan productions function to address contemporary concerns and preoccupations. Focusing on well known popular culture texts such as The Wire, Kiss the Girls, Monster, The Saw series, American Psycho, The Strangers, CSI and Dexter, this eclectic anthology engages with a broad spectrum of cultural theory and performs critical textual analysis to examine the sophisticated ways the serial killer is deployed to mediate and work through cultural anxieties and fears.

Literary Lists Roman Alexander Barton,Eva von Contzen,Anne Rügge-meier,2023-05-23 This book provides a concise introduction to lists in literature from the early modern period to the twenty first century. Tracing the changing functions of the literary list across time it offers a broad range of case studies which situate selected enumerations in their respective contexts and demonstrate the versatility and creative potential of the list form. Starting with a review of previous research on the literary list the book discusses four main constellations of enumeration: series and the great chain of being, itemization and enumerative realism, letteracettera and experimental list making, white noise and creative exploits of enumeration between formal playfulness and existential exploration. The epilogue offers an analytical toolkit for the study of literary lists based on rhetorical theory.

I Want to Do Bad Things: Modern Interpretations of Evil ,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014. Far from the confines of black and white evil, today is an often complex and ever evolving concept which can be found in all facets of life. This book offers a collection of views on the concepts of evil and wickedness from a variety of subjects helping to show the range and scope of this universal concept. Chapters begin by exploring the concept of evil from a philosophical perspective attempting to question the very nature of evil itself and what issues help to constitute the subject. They continue by discussing evil as it relates to monetary value in terms of capitalism politics and binary code The last two sections focus on evil through the lens of literature and film touching upon a wide range of characters from the villain hero of the Elizabethan era to the modern day antihero featured in twenty first century film Downtown Canada Justin D. Edwards, Douglas Ivison, 2005-01-01 Downtown Canada is a collection of essays that addresses Canada as an urban place The contributors focus their attention on the writing of Canada s cities and call attention to the centrality of the city in Canadian literature
