Blasphemy A Novel:

Blasphemy Tehmina Durrani, 1999 Set In South Pakistan This Controversial Novel Is A Searing Study Of Evil It Is The Tragic And Shocking Story Of The Beautiful Heer Brutalized And Corrupted By Pir Sain The So Called Man Of God Whom She Is Married To At The Age Of Fifteen Blasphemy Douglas J. Preston, 2008 Some call it the greatest scientific discovery of all time others call it blasphemy It s the world s biggest supercollider built to reveal the secrets of the Big Bang itself The brainchild of Nobel Laureate William North Hazelius the Torus is the most expensive machine ever created Will it divulge the mysteries of the universe or as some predict suck the earth into a mini black hole Or is the Torus a Satanic attempt as a powerful televangelist decries to challenge God Almighty Twelve scientists are sent to a remote mountain to turn Torus on and what they discover is utterly unexpected They must keep it secret at all costs Ex monk and CIA operative Wyman Ford is dispatched to extract a secret that will either destroy the world or save it Women in Dialogue Dilek Direnç, Günseli Sönmez İşçi, 2009-03-26 Women in Dialogue M Uses of Culture results from an international symposium held at Ege University Izmir Turkey in 2006 which brought together scholars from over ten countries and from multiple academic backgrounds who share professional interest in women s studies and to no less degree in current women s realities The book presents a collection of essays united by a common focus on the position of women as objects of cultural production in different geographic national and political contexts as well as the character and typology of women s contribution to cultural activity across the ethnic or religious divide marking the face of contemporary world The volume comprises two sections the first titled Women in Dialogue contains contributions which analyze literary representations of women from a variety of perspectives and from diverse spatial and temporal locations The second part titled M Uses of Culture includes personalized observations by several women writers of both poetry and fiction their commentaries on their own work as artists and their deeply experienced musings on the position of women as artists in the world of today The essays that this volume brings together are varied in subject matter yet they are connected by the common theme epitomized in the metaphor of dialogue as a platform for active productive communication leading on the pages of the book if not elsewhere to learning and mutual understanding Henry Fielding Scott Robertson, 2010 Literature and theology have long been conversation partners The great themes of human existence form the subject matter of their shared discussion However comedic literature has often been overlooked as a serious means to fostering such theological engagement This book seeks to rectify this imbalance By examining selected works of the eighteenth century playwright and novelist Henry Fielding we are shown that a comedic world has much to say that is of true theological significance Recognizing the value of much traditional Fielding research the author departs from its inherent determinism which he believes stifles more fruitful opportunities for interdisciplinary dialogue Key to his desire to engage the comedic in this conversation he introduces the interpretative tool of misplacement By this is meant a continuous parting with the ineffable the perpetual recognition that in comedic writing there is always a fragile sense of the other Setting Fielding's fiction alongside works of contemporary philosophical theology and postmodern works of fiction the author allows common critical zones such as epistemology ethics mimesis canonicity and revelation to be investigated In all these areas the novel in Fielding's hands displays a powerful comic resonance with a less deterministic theology and subverts those assumed securities regarding the status of the individual in the world before God Ultimately the book offers the challenge of recognizing that the nature of the novel is inescapably theological and that theology itself is indeed fictive

Twenty-Five Women Who Shaped the Ottoman Empire Ruth Miller, 2025-03-26 Twenty Five Women Who Shaped the Ottoman Empire is a tale of how women's triumphs as well as their failures shaped a global society not despite but because of gender The Ottoman Empire was among the longest lived polities in history stretching between the thirteenth and twentieth centuries across three continents several seas and scores of cities deserts mountain ranges rivers and forests This volume provides a compendium of idiosyncratic life stories and explores how women from these eras and regions understood the shape of the world in which they lived and how they brought their consciousness of their gender to their efforts to re shape it Among the questions explored in the book are how women have negotiated and constructed the public and private spheres how to define women's speech in a world mediated by men and male dominated genres and institutions and how women experienced their bodies as sites of politically inflected reproduction death and decay The book is thus an accessibly offbeat feminist overview of the field of Ottoman History that provides students scholars general readers and non specialists with insights into the lives and work of both ordinary Ottoman women and celebrated Ottoman women women who failed despite their best efforts and women who succeeded against all odds suicides spies and murderers as well as queens scientists and poets

Islamic Postcolonialism Hasan Majed, 2015-09-18 Islamic postcolonialism is a theoretical perspective that combines two components which have up until now existed in a state of tension As a secular theory postcolonialism has notably failed to account for Muslim priorities it has for instance had severe problems critiquing the anti Islam polemics of The Satanic Verses as is evidenced by Edward Said's support for Rushdie in spite of his criticism of the stereotypical representation of Islam and Muslims in the West Islamic postcolonialism applies the anti colonial resistant methodology of postcolonialism from a Muslim perspective exploring the continuance of colonial discourse in part of the contemporary western writing about Islam and Muslims This book explores how Islam is depicted and Muslim identities are constructed in four representative works of contemporary British fiction Hanif Kureishi's The Black Album 1995 Monica Ali's Brick Lane 2003 Fadia Faqir's My Name is Salma 2007 and Leila Aboulela's Minaret 2005 Salman Rushdie's The Satanic Verses 1988 is also discussed in terms of its crucial role in fostering what some Muslims might consider polemical and stereotypical positions in writing about Islam Cultural Forces in World Politics Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 1990 Professor Mazrui Reith Lecturer and presenter of BBC1's series The Africans makes us reconsider the realities of power in world politics Ali Mazrui argues that the emphasis in world politics continues to be on arms on resources and on strategic calculations and that the importance of culture has been grossly underestimated Professor Mazrui's own mind is a cultural cross roads he can give Islamic insights to Western audiences about The Satanic Verses he relates the Beijing Spring to the Palestinian Intifada he compares the effects of Zionism and Apartheid he puts together Muhammad Marx and market forces and he tells the Americans that their attitude to the Third World is a dialogue of the deaf ALI A MAZRUI was Director of the Institute of Global Cultural Studies at the State University of New York at Binghamton and Senior Scholar in African Studies at Cornell University Kenya EAEP Proceedings of IAC-SSaH 2014 Collective of authors, 2014-11-10 International Academic Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities in Prague 2014 IAC SSaH 2014 in Prague Re-Shaping Culture and Identity in Postcolonial Fiction: Salman Rushdie and Abdulrazak Gurnah Şennur Bakırtaş, 2023-02-07 One of the most fascinating rapidly developing and difficult areas of literary and cultural studies today is postcolonialism Focused on postcolonialism and designed especially for those studying postcolonial studies Re Shaping Culture and Identity in postcolonial Fiction Salman Rushdie and Abdulrazak Gurnah introduces key subject areas of concern such as culture and identity in a clear accessible and organised fashion It provides an overview of the development of postcolonialism as a discipline and takes a close look at its important authors Salman Rushdie and Abdulrazak Gurnah and their selected oeuvres Fury Midnight's Children By the Sea and Memory of Departure With a palimpsestic analysis of culture and identity as crucial features of postcolonial texts Re Shaping Culture and Identity in postcolonial Fiction Salman Rushdie and Abdulrazak Gurnah argues how postcolonialism functions in allowing the formation of a new perspective on the contemporary world Besides it offers an alternative perspective on their works one that promotes the importance of the issue of postcolonial agency This book will prove invaluable to anyone studying English Language and Literature Migration Studies and Cultural Studies Contents Introduction the borders of culture and identity A critical approach to culture and identity under the light of postcolonial theory The contributions of Abdulrazak Gurnah and Salman Rushdie to postcolonial literature Non homes in postcolonial culture Un belonging postcolonial identity Conclusion towards a new understanding of culture and identity Bibliography The Viper on the Hearth Terryl L. Viper on the Hearth was praised as a new classic in Mormon studies In the wake of Mormon inspired and created artistic literary and political activity today s Mormon moment Givens presents a revised and updated edition of his book to address the continuing presence and reception of the Mormon image in contemporary culture The Viper on the Hearth by Terryl L Givens is a remarkably lucid and useful study of the patterns of American prejudices against the Mormon people It provides also a valuable paradigm for the study of all religious heresy Harold Bloom A well researched and insightful book He illuminates the phenomena of religious heresy and persecution generally The book is thoroughly documented and Givens writes with a graceful style This is an excellent example of both historical and literary scholarship American Historical Review Contains provocative insights into American culture LDS identity nineteenth century literature rhetorics of oppression and religious formation The narrative is short subtle and crisp Givens rarely wastes a sentence A work to be read with patience and care I highly recommend this book Religious Studies Review The book is sophisticated long on analysis He has read widely in the vast secondary literature and produced a study worthy of its prestigious publisher Church History Widely researched theoretically informed and gracefully written this work is a model of significant interdisciplinary study Western American Literature It could influence American religion studies the same way Bauer s Orthodoxy and Heresy challenged and changed perceptions Intelligently conceived skillful textual analysis exemplary scholarship It illuminates dilemmas and paradoxes central to American religion and culture generally The prose illustrations and overall construction of the book are aesthetically pleasing The exemplary scholarship significantly enriches Mormon historiography Few books succeed as this one does in stimulating thought far beyond their own scope Journal of Mormon History A subtlety and sophistication that will delight and enlighten readers The most detailed and sophisticated study to date of patterns of representation in 19th c anti Mormonism BYU Studies A powerful and compelling thesis an ingenious reading Chapter five should become a classic in Mormon Studies For a great reading experience in thoughtful and independently conceived religious and cultural thinking rare in Mormon studies turn to this addition in the excellent Religion in America Series published by Oxford University Press Journal of American Ethnic History Well researched and illuminating study Gives us a fresh understanding of the process of myth making Locates it arguments in a carefully constructed historical context Journal of the Early Republic In this fascinating study he examines how Mormons have been constructed as the great and abominable other Interestingly although the religion was once scorned for its weirdness it is now because Mormons occupy what used to be the center that they fall into contempt Utah Historical Quarterly A wonderfully thought through look at the interrelationships between fiction religion and the culture of humor hostility It represents a significant contribution to our understanding of literary relations Larry H Peer Brigham Young University This is the first full explanation of why Mormons have been demonized by a nation that prides itself on open toleration of all faiths Givens carefully appraises every past explanation for the printed attacks and physical persecutions that occurred from the 1830s onward as newspapers novels and satires convinced a tolerant public that Mormons should not be tolerated. He then makes a convincing argument that the primary affront the Mormons offered was theological: their anthropomorphic picture of God and of his continuing personal revelations to the one true church. The book is thus an impressive achievement that should interest not just Mormons or other religious believers but anyone who cares about how freedom-loving tolerant Americans turned heretics into subhuman monsters deserving destruction. Condition: Race, gender, and culture conflict Alamin M. Mazrui, Alamin Mazrui, Willy Mutunga, 2004. Is Ali Mazrui a visionary or a vacuous intellectual? Is he reactionary, revolutionary, or essentially a radical pragmatist? These questions were the focus of a special plenary session of the Conference of the African Association of Political Science that took place in Harare, Zimbabwe, in June 2003. The forum was intended to interrogate Ali Mazrui's contributions in the last forty years or so of his career as an academic. The questions themselves capture the magnitude of polarization among different sections of Mazrui's audiences generated by his often provocative propositions and prescriptions on a wide range of issues: from the role of intellectuals in Africa's transformation to the imperative of pax Africana from Tanzania to Islamophobia; from the condition of the Black woman to the destiny of the Black race. It is some of the exchanges, sometimes intense and even acrimonious, arising from Mazrui's ideas on continental and global African affairs from the 1960s to the present that constitute the subject matter. Together they are not only a celebration of Ali Mazrui's own intellectual life as one long debate but also an intellectual mirror of the contours of some of the hotly contested terrains in Africa's quest for self-realization. Criminalising Hate Speech

Eric Heinze, 2024-12-31. Never in history have crises surrounding free speech raged with greater ferocity than we are witnessing today. This is the world's first book to gather detailed country-by-country studies devoted entirely to the problem of hate speech spanning more than twenty nations. The introductory chapter summarises various key concepts followed by a composite of the questions that were originally put to each of the Special Rapporteurs. The chapters then provide the Rapporteurs' detailed analyses of each country, with several of the authors supplementing these with additional helpful insights. In particular, the abundance of case studies will help to dramatize the controversies that have been sparked by hateful expression in ways that continue to be relevant far beyond the borders of any one nation. The chapters explain national legislation and case law, tracking the challenges posed by growing extremism and social polarisation, which is now more acute than ever before in our age of electronic media. The authors also align these national developments with norms and procedures of leading international human rights bodies such as the UN Committee on Racial Discrimination, the UN Human Rights Committee, and the European Court of Human Rights. This collection will be invaluable for beginners, as no prior knowledge is required. At the same time, given the chapters' depth and breadth, it will supply a research tool for advanced scholars, lecturers, and researchers in the areas of free speech, human rights, comparative law, criminal law.
