Blazing The Trail Way Marks In The Exploration Of Symbols:

Blazing the Trail Victor Turner, 2022-08-30 A collection of Turner's writings that gathers seven late pieces that reflect his thoughts on such subjects as pilgrimage sacrifice and liminal processes The essays reveal a passionate struggle between a committed conceptualization and a dedication to the telling detail Turner is willing to address the moral and spiritual dimensions of being human which are all too easily set aside by much social science Anthropos Transformations in Sacrificial Practices Eftychia Stavrianopoulou, Axel Michaels, Claus Ambos, 2008 The main thrust of the contributions in this volume run counter to the notion of a universally applicable theory of sacrifice and rather aimed at investigating transformations in sacrificial practices from cross cultural and transhistorical perspectives Exploring a broad spectrum of texts case studies and social practices from Greco Roman antiquity as well as the Ancient Near East and Egypt to the modern Middle East the Indian subcontinent and Indonesia diverging cultural perceptions and definitions of the topic sacrifice are examined and thereby new insights into the processes of modification and transformation of sacrificial rituals are gained

Victor Turner and Contemporary Cultural Performance Graham St. John, 2008 In the twenty years following Victor Turner's death interventions on the interconnected performance modes of play drama and community dimensions of which Turner deemed the limen and experimental and analytical forays into the anthropologies of experience and consciousness have complemented and extended Turnerian readings on the moments and sites of culture's becoming Examining Turner's continued relevance in performance and popular culture pilgrimage and communitas as well as Edith Turner's role the contributors reflect on the wide application of Victor Turner's thought to cultural performance in the early twenty first century and explore how Turner's ideas have been re engaged renovated and repurposed in studies of contemporary cultural performance A Certain Curve of Horn John Frederick Walker, 2004-02-20 Walker weaves a surprisingly fascinating story around one animal involving colonialism revolution biology and politics Hard to put down Booklist In A Certain Curve of Horn veteran journalist John Frederick Walker tells the story of one of the most revered and endangered of the regal beasts of Africa the giant sable antelope of Angola a majestic coal black quadruped with breathtaking curved horns over five feet long It is an enthralling and tragic tale of exploration and adventure politics and war the brutal realities of life in Africa today and the bitter choices of conflicting conservation strategies A Certain Curve of Horn traces the sable's emergence as a highly sought after natural history prize before the First World War and follows its struggle to survive in a war zone fought over by the troops of half a dozen nations and its transformation into a political symbol and conservation icon As he follows the trail of this mysterious animal Walker interweaves the stories of the adventurers scientists and warriors who have come under the thrall of the beast and how their actions would shape the fate of the giant sable antelope and the history of the war torn nation that is its only home A Certain Curve of Horn deserves to be ranked with Peter Matthiessen's classic The Snow Leopard The Philadelphia Inquirer Dance Hall Days Randy McBee, 2000-11 At immigrant picnics social clubs and urban dance halls Randy McBea discovers distinct and highly contested gender lines proving that the battle between the ages was also one between the sexes BOOK JACKET A Course of Severe and Arduous Trials Lynn Brunet, 2009 The artist Francis Bacon 1909 1992 and the writer Samuel Beckett 1906 1989 both convey in their work a sense of foreboding and confinement in bleak ritualistic spaces This book identifies many similarities between the spaces and activities they evoke and the initiatory practices of fraternal orders and secret societies that were an integral part of the social landscape of the Ireland experienced by both men during childhood Many of these Irish societies modelled their ritual structures and symbolism on the Masonic Order Freemasons use the term spurious Freemasonry to designate those rituals not sanctioned by the Grand Lodge The Masonic author Albert Mackey argues that the spurious forms were those derived from the various cult practices of the classical world and describes these initiatory practices as a course of severe and arduous trials This reading of Bacon's and Beckett's work draws on theories of trauma to suggest that there may be a disturbing link between Bacon's stark imagery Beckett's obscure performances and the unofficial use of Masonic rites Jung & Film II Christopher Hauke, Luke Hockley, 2011 This book tackles the broader issues of film production and consumption the audience and the place of film culture in our lives Being-in-Christ and Putting Death in Its Place Miles Richardson, 2006-09-01 Winner of the James Mooney Award of the Southern Anthropological Society In this bracingly original anthropological study Miles Richardson draws on forty years of empirical research to explore the paradox that while humans must die like all evolving life forms they have adapted a unique symbolic communication that makes them aware of their naturally occurring fate and through word and artifact they dwell upon that discovery Using the concepts of culture and place he illuminates how two groups Catholics in Spanish America and Baptists in the American South create being in Christ and thereby put death in its place The book combines biological cultural archaeological and linguistic anthropology a rigorous evolutionary framework and a postmodern dialogic stance to view humanity as inescapably a product of nature without sacrificing the interpretative social constructions that turn a primate into a poem Hard won ethnographic detail and moving religious insight make this an enthralling work

Strong and Hard Women Tanya Bunsell, 2013-04-12 Females with large muscles evoke strong reactions from men and women often involving disgust discomfort anger and threat The controversial nature of female bodybuilding has caused a significant rupture on feminist ground Whilst proponents claim that female bodybuilding is a way of empowering and liberating women others see it as a form of corporeal entrapment This book investigates the controversy Do women who pump iron resist physical restrictions of imposed femininity or are they engaged in an ultimately oppressive quest for perfect bodies In an original two year ethnographic study based in the South of England Tanya Bunsell immersed herself into the world of female bodybuilders By mapping these extraordinary women's lives the research illuminates the pivotal spaces and essential lived experiences that make up the female bodybuilder Whilst the women appear to be embarking on an empowering radical body project for themselves the consequences of their activity remains culturally ambivalent This research exposes the Janus faced nature of female bodybuilding exploring the ways in which the women negotiate accommodate and resist pressures to engage in more orthodox and feminine activities and appearances This book will be of interest to academics and students in the fields of gender studies the sociology of sport the body and research methodology

Powers of Pilgrimage Simon Coleman, 2022-01-18 Finalist Award for Excellence in the Study of Religion Analytical Descriptive Studies given by the American Academy of Religion A groundbreaking reframing of religious pilgrimage Pious processions Sites of miraculous healing Journeys to far away sacred places These are what are usually called to mind when we think of religious pilgrimage Yet while pilgrimage can include journeying to the heart of sacred shrines it can also occur in apparently mundane places Indeed not everyone has the resources or mobility to take part in religiously inspired movement to foreign lands and some find meaning in religious movement closer to home and outside of officially sanctioned practices Powers of Pilgrimage argues that we must question the universality of Western assumptions of what religion is and where it should be located including the notion that genuine pilgrimage needs to be associated with discrete formally recognized forms of religiosity This necessary volume makes the case for expanding our gaze to reconsider the salience scope and scale of contemporary forms of pilgrimage and pilgrimage related activity It shows that we need to reflect on how pilgrimage sites journeys rituals stories and metaphors are entangled with each other and with wider aspects of people s lives ranging from an action as trivial as a stroll down the street to the magnitude of forced migration to another country or continent Offering a new theoretical lexicon and framework for exploring human pilgrimage Powers of Pilgrimage presents a broad overview of how we can understand pilgrimage activity and proposes that it should be understood not solely as going to staying at and leaving a sacred place but also as occurring in ordinary times places and practices Dante's

Interpretive Journey William Franke, 1996-04-15 Critically engaging the thought of Heidegger Gadamer and others William Franke contributes both to the criticism of Dante s Divine Comedy and to the theory of interpretation Reading the poem through the lens of hermeneutical theory Franke focuses particularly on Dante s address to the reader as the site of a disclosure of truth The event of the poem for its reader becomes potentially an experience of truth both human and divine While contemporary criticism has concentrated on the historical character of Dante s poem often insisting on it as undermining the poem s claims to transcendence Franke argues that precisely the poem s historicity forms the ground for its mediation of a religious revelation Dante s dramatization on an epic scale of the act of interpretation itself participates in the self manifestation of the Word in poetic form Dante s Interpretive Journey is an indispensable addition to the field of Dante studies and offers rich insights for philosophy and theology as well Fragments of Death, Fables of Identity Eleni Neni

In the Maw of the Earth Monster James E. Brady, Keith M. Prufer, 2013-04-01 As portals to the supernatural realm that creates and animates the universe caves have always been held sacred by the peoples of Mesoamerica From ancient times to the present Mesoamericans have made pilgrimages to caves for ceremonies ranging from rituals of passage to petitions for rain and a plentiful harvest So important were caves to the pre Hispanic peoples that they are mentioned in Maya hieroglyphic writing and portrayed in the Central Mexican and Oaxacan pictorial codices Many ancient settlements were located in proximity to caves This volume gathers papers from twenty prominent Mesoamerican archaeologists linguists and ethnographers to present a state of the art survey of ritual cave use in Mesoamerica from Pre Columbian times to the present Organized geographically the book examines cave use in Central Mexico Oaxaca and the Maya region Some reports present detailed site studies while others offer new theoretical understandings of cave rituals As a whole the collection validates cave study as the cutting edge of scientific investigation of indigenous ritual and belief It confirms that the indigenous religious system of Mesoamerica was and still is much more terrestrially focused that has been generally appreciated

Trauma in Adult and Higher Education Laura Lee Douglass, Aubry Threlkeld, Lisa R. Merriweather, 2022-01-01 Trauma in Adult and Higher Education Conversations and Critical Reflections invites readers to think deeply about the experiences of trauma they witness in and outside of the classroom because trauma alters adult learners experience by disrupting identity and interfering with memory relationships and creativity Through essays narratives and cultural critiques the reader is invited to rethink education as more than upskilling and content mastery education is a space where dialogue has the potential to unlock an individual s sense of power and self mastery that enables them to make sense of violence tragedy and trauma Trauma in Adult and Higher Education Conversations and Critical Reflections reveals the lived experiences of educators struggling to integrate those who have experienced trauma into their classrooms whether this is in prison a yoga class or higher education As discourses and programming to support diversity intensifies it is central that educators acknowledge and respond to the realities of the students before them Advocates of trauma sensitive curriculum acknowledge that trauma shows up as a result of the disproportionate amount of violence and persistent insecurity that specific groups face Race gender sexual orientation ability and immigration are all factors that expose individuals to higher levels of potential trauma Trauma has changed the conversations about what education is and how it should happen These conversations are resulting in new approaches to teaching and learning that address the lived experiences of pain and trauma that our adult learners bring into the classroom and the workforce This collection includes a discussion of salient implications and practices for adult and higher education administrators and faculty who desire to create an environment that includes individuals who have experienced trauma and perhaps prevents the cycle of violence

Pilgrimage Explored Jennie Stopford, 1999 The history and underlying ideology of pilgrimage examined from prehistory to the middle ages Death So Noble Jonathan F. Vance, 2011-11-01 This book examines Canada's collective memory of the First World War through the 1920s and 1930s beginning with the Armistice in 1918 This book deals with cultural history more than military history and looks at art music and literature during World War I Comparable to Modris Eksteins Rites of Spring and Paul Fussell's The Great War and Modern Memory the author draws on a broad range of sources published and unpublished making this book an original contribution to the growing literature dealing with World War I Thematically organized into such subjects as the symbolism of the soldier the implications of war memory for Canadian nationalism and the idea of a just war the book draws on military records memoirs war memorials newspaper reports fiction popular songs and films In each case Vance draws a distinction between the objective realities of the war and the way that contemporaries remember it Death so Noble takes an unorthodox look at the Canadian war experience It views the Great War as a cultural and philosophical force rather than as a political and military event It will be of interest to specialists in First World War history and literature as well as a general audience

Black Market, Cold War Paul Steege, 2007-03-05 This book is a history of everyday life and explains how and why Berlin became the symbolic capital of the Cold War Paul Steege anchors his account of this emerging global conflict in the terrain of a city literally shattered by World War II The House of My Sojourn Jane S. Sutton, 2010-11-30 Envisions the relationship between women and rhetoric as a house a structure erected in ancient Greece by men that historically has made room for women but has also denied them the authority and agency to speak from within

Encyclopedia of Death and Dying Glennys Howarth, Oliver Leaman, 2003-12-16 In recent years there has been a massive upsurge in academic professional and lay interest in mortality This is reflected in academic and professional literature in the popular media and in the proliferation of professional roles and training courses associated with aspects of death and dying Until now the majority of reference material on death and dying has been designed for particular disciplinary audiences and has addressed only specific academic or professional concerns There has been an urgent need for an authoritative but accessible reference work reflecting the multidisciplinary nature of the field This Encyclopedia answers that need The Encyclopedia of Death and Dying consolidates and contextualizes the disparate research that has been carried out to date The phenomena of death and dying and its related concepts are explored and explained in depth from the approaches of varied disciplines and related professions in the arts social sciences humanities medicine and the sciences In addition to scholars and students in the field from anthropologists and sociologists to art and social historians the Encyclopedia will be of interest to other professionals and practitioners whose work brings them into contact with dying dead and bereaved people It will be welcomed as the definitive death and dying reference source and an essential tool for teaching research and independent study
