R. Vassall-philipps, O R Vassall-Philipps C SSR, Brother Hermenegild, 2013-03-12 Saints and Doctors of the Church have expressed their inability to write worthily of the great Mother of God It will therefore be readily understood that when the Provincial of the English Province of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer suggested to me that I might publish an English book on our Lady my first feeling was one of shrinking from the task Whoso would celebrate the Holy Virgin and Mother of God wrote Basil of Seleucia will find abundant materials for praise But I knowing mine own weakness to be unequal to the mightiness of the reality have for a long time refrained from very awe For I have not my lips purified with coal from heaven like Isaias who saw the Seraphim nor have I like the divine Moses the feet of my soul bared of their covering Many another great servant of God has expressed himself after a similar fashion before writing about our Lady How dare I then attempt that for which Saints have professed themselves unworthy But other thoughts rushed to my aid I might not lightly shrink from that which came to me thus by way of obedience A wish from such a source should be enough Whatever might be the subject on which one might be asked to write by one s Superiors in Religion to wait for a direct command would be unseemly And when the subject was the Blessed Virgin the temptation would have been great however strong my consciousness of my unworthiness even had the opportunity come to me in any other manner For it is a happiness to acknowledge that by a special mercy of God notwithstanding all my sins and shortcomings I have from boyhood up always loved and trusted His Blessed Mother

History of the Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary in North America Xavier Donald MacLeod, 1866 Catholic literature in this country is not yet rich in works of a historical character and though not a few have appeared evincing great research and worthy of a high place there was still wanting a popular element which genius alone could supply by lending its charm to the often dry details of the historian The devotion to the Blessed Virgin in this country from its settlement to the present day was a theme which had been briefly touched upon by one or two writers Still it was a field which the late lamented author of the following pages entered with all the zeal and devotion of his ardent and impassioned character and as a necessary consequence he gave his work the stamp of his particular genius Few more gifted writers have appeared among us than Xavier Donald Macleod and in undertaking his work material was contributed by his numerous friends The writer of this one who had enjoyed that friendship from boyhood rejoicing to see him about to take up a subject so worthy of his talents furnished him an abundant material which he had collected and feels now perhaps too great a pleasure in his privilege in having contributed to so noble a work as that here presented to the Catholic public
