After a long night at work she sits and writes down her thoughts of joy and sorrows to Jesus in the form of a letter She admits to herself that it feels strange at first even foolish As she feels the pressure and frustration many times she wants to give up but God would not allow the devil to distract her from her true purpose and desires to complete the book that she started two years ago Many nights as she attempts to finish the task that God has set before her the devil steps in by discouraging the sale of her property Just when she gave up God stepped in and the property sold in less time that it normally takes to sell and for a larger profit Praise the Lord She wanted to always make sure that she gave thanks no matter what was going on in her life at the time The letter began to change the way she looked at her life and the way she feels She feels relieved and refreshed after writing each letter She feels the guidance of the Lord and her prayers were answered instantaneously It was somewhat frightening as she develops a routine and continues to write as she was led by the spirit of God which developed into letters to Jesus She arrived at the understanding that god knew exactly what he was doing when he made her With the help of the Almighty God He gave her the gift to encourage others to create beauty and once people can recognized their own beauty everything else just falls in place
