Bone of Space Seung Sahn Zen Master, 1992      Bone of Space Seung Sahn, 2019-11-21 This collection captures a master's thoughts during everyday life while traveling talking on the phone attending a friend's funeral      Bone of Space Sungsan Tae Sönsa, 1982      Northern Irish Poetry and Domestic Space Adam Hanna, 2016-04-29 Northern Irish Poetry and Domestic Space explores why houses in some ways the most private of spaces have taken up such visibly public positions in the work of a range of prominent poets from Northern Ireland examining the work of Seamus Heaney Michael Longley Derek Mahon and Medbh McGuckian      Space Poetry Jorge Carvajal, 2016-01-26 Space Poetry paints a cosmic landscape as it takes you to the far reaches of the universe in exactly 42 pieces of poetry Embark in a poetic journey to unexplored territory Space Poetry is a collection of poems divided into two essential themes space and time Each half of the book showcases glimpses of these two essential building blocks of the universe      Byron's Poetry Peter Cochran, 2012-04-25 Byron's dubious status as a sex object and his even more dubious status as a political icon serves to disguise the fact that he is one of the greatest of all English poets with a European reputation second only to Shakespeare The fact that writers such as Goethe and Pushkin held him in the highest regard ensures that the English continue to despise him and ignore his verse as much as possible This book ignores his sexuality his politics and his iconography and concentrates on his poems Written by leading authorities such as Bernard Beatty Germaine Greer and Michael O'Neill it contains essays on his verse forms and his comic rhymes as well as thematic analyses on such recurrent Byronic themes as the Sea Will o the Wisps and Love versus Knowledge In the face of many modern books which translate his verse into prose and try without success to analyse the result Byron's Poetry puts his real achievement as a creative writer back into the focus of discussion      The Indian Imagination of Jayanta Mahapatra Jaydeep Sarangi, Gauri Shankar Jha, 2006 Critically examines various themes in the works of Jayanta Mahapatra b 1928 Indo English poet      Politics and Public Space in Contemporary Argentine Poetry Ben Bolig, 2016-10-06 This book addresses the connection between political themes and literary form in the most recent Argentine poetry Ben Bolig uses the concepts of lyric and state as twin coordinates for both an assessment of how Argentinian poets have conceived a political role for their work and how poems come to speak to us about politics Drawing on concepts from contemporary literary theory this striking study combines textual analysis with historical research to shed light on the ways in which new modes of circulation help to shape poetry today      POSTHUMAN SPACE IN MARIO PETRUCCI AND ALICE OSWALD'S POETRY Seçil ERKOÇ IQBAL, 2025-09-01 Drawing on recent posthumanist theories that promote a non anthropocentric perspective this study examines the works of contemporary British poets Mario Petrucci and Alice Oswald It is argued that their poetry can be described as posthuman poetry which envisions posthuman spaces of becoming where human and nonhuman worlds coexist on a non hierarchical basis Petrucci's engagement with ecocritical crises in the Anthropocene underscores the limits of human agency and it foregrounds destructive impact of human actions on the ecosystem In a posthuman context therefore Petrucci problematises the human nonhuman binary by representing the erosion of the anthropocentric worldview in the face of environmental crises such as deforestation global warming and the Chernobyl nuclear disaster in Bosco 1999 Heavy Water A Poem for Chernobyl 2004 and Half Life Poems for Chernobyl 2004 In these collections challenging the perception of nonhuman matter as passive Petrucci emphasises the agency of trees and radioactive particles Similarly Alice Oswald moves the reader beyond the human centred treatment of the natural world Rejecting human exceptionalism Oswald's Dart 2002 presents a polyphonic meshwork where the voices of alternating human speakers and the River Dart interweave within a posthuman space Representing the intersubjective and dialogic exchanges between the human and nonhuman inhabitants of the Severn Estuary and the lunar cycle Oswald's A Sleepwalk on the Severn 2009 further problematises the subject object binary by creating a posthuman space of becoming grounded in a communicative framework Hence bringing Petrucci and Oswald together this study draws attention to trans corporeal and polyphonic entanglements of human nonhuman subject object and self other non binaries and it aims to show how poetry as a literary medium can contribute to questioning and transforming the anthropocentric vision of humankind in the contemporary world Poetry East ,1997 Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present

Margaret Greaves,2023 Anchored in the postwar period but drawing on a long history of poetry and science Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present charts surprising connections between poetry and extraterrestrial space

W.B. Yeats, Ezra Pound, and the Poetry of Paradise Sean Pryor,2016-02-24 Emphasizing the interplay of aesthetic forms and religious modes Sean Pryor's ambitious study takes up the endlessly reiterated longing for paradise that features throughout the works of W B Yeats and Ezra Pound Yeats and Pound define poetry in terms of paradise and paradise in terms of poetry Pryor suggests and these complex interconnections fundamentally shape the development of their art Even as he maps the shared influences and intellectual interests of Yeats and Pound and highlights those moments when their poetic theories converge Pryor's discussion of their poems profound formal and conceptual differences uncovers the distinctive ways each writer imagines the divine the good the beautiful or the satisfaction of desire Throughout his study Pryor argues that Yeats and Pound reconceive the quest for paradise as a quest for a new kind of poetry a journey that Pryor traces by analysing unpublished manuscript drafts and newly published drafts that have received little attention For Yeats and Pound the journey towards a paradisaal poetic becomes a never ending quest at once self defeating and self fulfilling a formulation that has implications not only for the work of these two poets but for the study of modernist literature W.B. Yeats, Ezra

Pound, and the Poetry of Paradise Dr Sean Pryor,2013-05-28 Emphasizing the interplay of aesthetic forms and religious modes Sean Pryor's ambitious study takes up the endlessly reiterated longing for paradise that features throughout the works of W B Yeats and Ezra Pound Yeats and Pound define poetry in terms of paradise and paradise in terms of poetry Pryor suggests and these complex interconnections fundamentally shape the development of their art Even as he maps the shared influences and intellectual interests of Yeats and Pound and highlights those moments when their poetic theories converge Pryor's discussion of their poems profound formal and conceptual differences uncovers the distinctive ways each writer imagines the divine the good the beautiful or the satisfaction of desire Throughout his study Pryor argues that Yeats and Pound reconceive the quest for paradise as a quest for a new kind of poetry a journey that Pryor traces by analysing unpublished manuscript drafts and newly published drafts that have received little attention For Yeats and Pound the journey towards a paradisaic poetic becomes a never ending quest at once self defeating and self fulfilling a formulation that has implications not only for the work of these two poets but for the study of modernist literature The Cambridge Companion to Contemporary Irish Poetry Matthew Campbell, 2003-08-28 In the last fifty years Irish poets have produced some of the most exciting poetry in contemporary literature writing about love and sexuality violence and history country and city This book provides a unique introduction to major figures such as Seamus Heaney but also introduces the reader to significant precursors like Louis MacNeice or Patrick Kavanagh and vital contemporaries and successors among others Thomas Kinsella Paul Muldoon and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Readers will find discussions of Irish poetry from the traditional to the modernist written in Irish as well as English from both North and South This Companion the only book of its kind on the market provides cultural and historical background to contemporary Irish poetry in the contexts of modern Ireland but also in the broad currents of modern world literature It includes a chronology and guide to further reading and will prove invaluable to students and teachers alike The Augustan Space Monica R. Gale, Anna Chahoud, 2024-06-27 A wide ranging exploration of the construction and representation of space and monumentality in central texts of the Augustan period

Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry Denise deCaires Narain, 2003-08-29 Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry provides detailed readings of individual poems by women poets whose work has not yet received the sustained critical attention it deserves These readings are contextualized both within Caribbean cultural debates and postcolonial and feminist critical discourses in a lively and engaged way revisiting nationalist debates as well as topical issues about the performance of gendered and raced identities within poetic discourse Newly available in paperback this book is groundbreaking reading for all those interested in postcolonialism Gender Studies Caribbean Studies and contemporary poetry When You Find Our Bones Sigari Luckwell, 2013-12-17 Author Sigari Luckwell knew from a young age that we are all connected It is from this inner space of emotional resonance that Luckwell shares a sometimes humorous sometimes poignant compilation of poems and songs intended to inspire and awaken hearts and souls and remind us of our global nature In her debut collection of verse Luckwell begins by considering a variety of emotions that encourage personal exploration provocative reflection and laughter Inspired by the past present and future she continues by highlighting the chaos of political inadequacy the unexpected expectations of therapy the meaningless requirements of bureaucracy and the joys of realizing love and freedom Also included are short anecdotes that provide insight into Luckwell's inspiration for these contributions to the collection

When You Find Our Bones offers an introspective comforting glimpse into a poet's journey as she experiences all that life has to offer      The Sound of Poetry / The Poetry of Sound Marjorie Perloff, Craig Dworkin, 2009-10-15 Sound one of the central elements of poetry finds itself all but ignored in the current discourse on lyric forms The essays collected here by Marjorie Perloff and Craig Dworkin break that critical silence to readdress some of the fundamental connections between poetry and sound connections that go far beyond traditional metrical studies Ranging from medieval Latin lyrics to a cyborg opera sixteenth century France to twentieth century Brazil romantic ballads to the contemporary avant garde the contributors to The Sound of Poetry The Poetry of Sound explore such subjects as the translatability of lyric sound the historical and cultural roles of rhyme the role of sound repetition in novelistic prose the connections between sound poetry and music between the visual and the auditory the role of the body in performance and the impact of recording technologies on the lyric voice Along the way the essays take on the ensemble discords of Maurice Scève's Die Ezra Pound's use of Chinese whispers the alchemical theology of Hugo Ball's Dada performances Jean Cocteau's modernist radiophonics and an intercultural account of the poetry reading as a kind of dubbing A genuinely comparatist study The Sound of Poetry The Poetry of Sound is designed to challenge current preconceptions about what Susan Howe has called articulations of sound forms in time as they have transformed the expanded poetic field of the twenty first century      Migrant Song Teresa McKenna, 1997 Migration and continuity have shaped both the Chicano people and their oral and written literature In this pathfinding study of Chicano literature Teresa McKenna specifically explores how these works arise out of social political and psychological conflict and how the development of Chicano literature is inextricably embedded in this fact McKenna begins by appraising the evolution of Chicano literature from oral forms including the important role of the corrido in the development of Chicano poetry In subsequent chapters she examines the works of Richard Rodriguez and Rolando Hinojosa She also devotes a chapter to the development of the Chicana voice in Chicano literature Her epilogue considers the parallel development of Chicano literary theory and discusses some possible directions for research In McKenna's own words I believe that the future of this literature as that of all literatures by people of color in the United States rests largely on its being effectively introduced into the curricula at all levels as well as its entrance into the critical consciousness of literary theory This book will be an important step in that process      Sensation, Contemporary Poetry and Deleuze Jon Clay, 2010-08-05
