Riviera is one of the first modern resort areas. It began as a winter health resort at the end of the 18th century. With the arrival of the railway it became the playground and vacation spot of British, Russian and other aristocrats such as Queen Victoria and King Edward VII when he was Prince of Wales. In the summer it also played home to many members of the Rothschild family. In the first half of the 20th century it was frequented by artists and writers including Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse, Edith Wharton, Somerset Maugham and Aldous Huxley as well as wealthy Americans and Europeans. After World War II it became a popular tourist destination and convention site. Many celebrities such as Elton John and Brigitte Bardot have homes in the region. The French Riviera is a major yachting and cruising area with several marinas along its coast. According to the Cte d'Azur Economic Development Agency, each year the Riviera hosts 50% of the world's superyacht fleet with 90% of all superyachts visiting the region's coast at least once in their lifetime. As a tourist centre it benefits from 300 days of sunshine per year, 115 kilometres (71 mi) of coastline and beaches, 18 golf courses, 14 ski resorts and 3 000 restaurants. Although the Riviera is famous for the glamour of St Tropez, Monaco or the Cannes Film Festival, there are many other less well known attractions such as the perched villages of Eze and Gourdon, the perfumeries of Grasse and the glass blowers of Biot, the potters in Vallauris. The Riviera has been the inspiration for many well known artists such as Picasso and many of their works are on display in local museums and art galleries.
