Bonny Dawn:

The Bonny Dawn Catherine Cookson,1997 Set against the Northumbrian coast in the 1960s the events of this love story take place over one day a day during which everyone involved discovers that the consequences of an innocent meeting are far more significant than the event itself Bonny Dawn Catherine Cookson,1996-11-01 The bonny dawn, Catherine Cookson Catherine Cookson, Bonny Dawn, the - 36 Copy Bin Catherine Cookson,1998-01-01 British Working Class women authors (born before 1962) a list Stefan Szczelkun ,2025-06-07 A collection of Wikipedia articles edited reformatted and with additions In chronological order References and sections on non literary activity are sometimes omitted hopefully not to the point of misrepresenting the author which might include feminist or political activism To my surprise the biographical material on Wikipedia was sometimes mesmerising although it was uneven Where there were gaps I have tried to fill them from other sources Refer back to the wikipedia articles for more context and references in some cases and if you have a verified source of information please update the Wikipedia article Wikipedia is published under a creative commons licence So this compilation also carries a creative commons licence Introduction Looking through Sarah Richardson s Writing on the Line 1996 I was struck by how many of the working class women writers were from North America and how many more were poets Howard Slater had made a list of British working class male novelists and I selected British woman writers from Writing on the Line and found that most of them now have Wikipedia pages I first made a list of links Wanting to take this further I first looked to focus on novels and short story writers but this category started to break up as many writers wrote in many idioms producing fact fiction poetry plays screenwriting and journalism I decided on an arbitrary cut off point of writers born before 1962 When I first made the list I was thinking how few working class women novelists had been published in this period But then the lists of books by each author started to stack up and there s plenty to read and much that I missed even really hearing about Of course it focuses on the most successful others who produced a community published autobiography or self published novel did not get a Wikipedia page and they should really be included every life counts Others only published an autobiography perhaps in the last years of life but were extraordinary writers and people We could also discuss the genre snobbery in literary circles that puts crime young peoples literature romantic and fantasy fiction and perhaps historical based narratives in a lower category than the novel Days Gone By D'lores Buckner Simmons,2019-05-20 These are stories from my childhood through adulthood written while I was a member of a memoir writing group at the Maplewood YMCA in Rochester NY Aborigines and the Sport of Kings John Maynard,2013-10-24 Aborigines and the Sport of Kings celebrates the significant and exciting Aboriginal involvement in Australian racing history A remarkable history considering that Australian Aboriginal people s first contact with the European animals caused them bewilderment and terror because violent massacres and unprovoked vicious attacks were conducted from horseback However within a short period they adapted and shed their fears Over time they caught horses and taught themselves to ride

using sheets of bark as makeshift saddles Settler accounts record Aboriginal people s uncanny affinity with horses their excellence in caring for them and in riding So moving from the skilled workers who were the backbone of the Australian pastoral industries to racing horses was an obvious step Amongst the many Aboriginal jockeys highlighted in the book are Merv Maynard Norm Rose Frank Reys Richard Lawrence Darby McCarthy and Leigh Anne Goodwin Australia s first female Aboriginal jockey to ride a winner at a metropolitan track
