Fathers of the Third and Fourth Centuries: Lactantius, Venantius, Asterius, Victorinus, Dionysius, Apostolic Teaching and Constitutions, Homily, and Liturgies, Latin Christianity IV Book I Lactantius, "And Scripture Cannot Be Broken" Martin C. Albl, 2014-04-09 This work argues that many early Christian quotations of the Old Testament derive not from scriptural manuscripts but rather from authoritative written testimonia collections developed to support basic Christian beliefs Combining recent patristic studies notably on Justin and Barnabas and evidence from Qumran with detailed examination of quotations in the New Testament the book builds a fresh case for a neglected scholarly hypothesis After reviewing the scholarly literature and analogous Jewish and Greco Roman literary collections the book presents a comprehensive overview of extant testimonia traditions from the second to the fourth century C E The final chapters argue for the use of written testimonia collections in the New Testament This study offers solid evidence for a remarkably unified early Christian scriptural tradition that extended throughout the Mediterranean world Book Four of True Wisdom and Religion Lactantius, 2004-06-01 But before I begin to speak of God and His works I must first speak a few things concerning the prophets whose testimony I must now use which I have refrained from doing in the former books Above all things he who desires to comprehend the truth ought not only to apply his mind to understand the utterances of the prophets but also most diligently to inquire into the times during which each one of them existed that he may know what future events they predicted and after how many years their predictions were fulfilled The Institutes Of The Christian Religion, Books Third and Fourth John Calvin, The Institutes of the Christian Religion in Latin Institutio Christianae religionis is Calvin's most known work on Protestant theology It was first published in 1536 The book was written as an introductory textbook on the Protestant faith for those with some previous knowledge of theology and covered a broad range of theological topics from the doctrines of church and sacraments to justification by faith alone and Christian liberty The whole text consists of four books this volume including the third and fourth Apostolici: or, the History of the lives, acts, death, and martyrdoms of those who were contemporary with, or immediately succeeded the Apostles ... The fourth edition corrected. [With "Ecclesiastici: or, the History of the lives ... of the most eminent fathers of the Church, that flourish'd in the fourth century".] William CAVE (D.D.), 1716 Cyclopaedia Bibliographica: a Library Manual of Theological and General Literature, and Guide to Books for Authors, Preachers, Students, and Literary Men. Subjects. Holy Scriptures James Darling (Bookseller in London, 1797-1862.), 1859 Cyclopaedia Bibliographica James Darling, 1859 Responses to Religious Division, c. 1580-1620 Natasha Constantinidou, 2017-06-06 In this study Natasha Constantinidou considers the views articulated by the scholars Pierre Charron 1541 1603 Justus Lipsius 1547 1606 Paolo Sarpi 1552 1623 and King James VI and I 1566 1625 in response to the religious ruptures of their time Though rarely juxtaposed all four authors were deeply affected by the religious divisions In their works they denounced religious zeal focusing on non dogmatic piety Drawing on classical tradition and church history they set out to offer consolation to the people of a war torn continent and to discuss means of reconciliation Their responses sought to define the role of religion in public and private They emphasised the need for lay control of religious affairs as the only way of ensuring peace whilst circumscribing belief and its practice to the private realm
