Bibliography and Modern Book Production PERCY. FREER, 2024-08 Bibliography and Modern Book Production is a fascinating historic journey through the fields of print history, librarianship, and publishing. It covers key developments from 1494 to 1949 in bibliography and book production, from the history of scripts and paper manufacture to the origins of typefaces and printing. Although not a textbook, the book was a guide for library students in the 1950s on the essential literature of librarianship. As the first librarian appointed to Wits University in 1929, Percy Freer's near-encyclopaedic knowledge of the subject of bibliography enabled him to develop a key resource for relevant library examinations in South Africa and abroad. Due to its immense value as a historic record and to acknowledge Freer's contributions as scholar, librarian, and publisher, it is being reissued as part of the Wits University Press Re Presents series to make it accessible to scholars in book history, publishing studies, and information science.

Italo Calvino Italo Calvino, 2013-06-17

The first collection of letters in English by one of the great writers of the twentieth century. This is the first collection in English of the extraordinary letters of one of the great writers of the twentieth century. Italy's most important postwar novelist, Italo Calvino (1923-1985) achieved worldwide fame with such books as Cosmicomics, Invisible Cities, and If on a Winter's Night a Traveler. But he was also an influential literary critic, an important literary editor, and a masterful letter writer whose correspondents included Umberto Eco, Primo Levi, Gore Vidal, Leonardo Sciascia, Natalia Ginzburg, Michelangelo Antonioni, Pier Paolo Pasolini, and Luciano Berio. This book includes a generous selection of about 650 letters written between World War II and the end of Calvino's life. Selected and introduced by Michael Wood, the letters are expertly rendered into English and annotated by well-known Calvino translator Martin McLaughlin. The letters are filled with insights about Calvino's writing and that of others about Italian, American, English, and French literature, about literary criticism, and literature in general, and about culture and politics. The book also provides a kind of autobiography, documenting Calvino's Communism and his resignation from the party in 1957, his eye-opening trip to the United States in 1959-60, his move to Paris where he lived from 1967 to 1980 and his trip to his birthplace in Cuba where he met Che Guevara Some lengthy letters amount almost to critical essays while one is an appropriately brief defense of brevity and there is an even shorter reassuring note to his parents written on a scrap of paper while he and his brother were in hiding during the antifascist Resistance This is a book that will fascinate and delight Calvino fans and anyone else interested in a remarkable portrait of a great writer at work
