Women Readers and Writers in Medieval Iberia Montserrat Piera, 2019-08-05 This book is devoted to medieval Iberian women readers and writers Focusing on the stories and texts women heard visually experienced or read and the stories that they rewrote the work explores women s experiences and cultural practices and their efforts to make sense of their place within their familial networks and communities The study is based on two methodological and interpretive threads a new paradigm to represent premodern reading and a study of women s writing or more precisely women s textualities as a process of creating words but also acts social practices emotions and ultimately affectus understood here as the embodiment of the ability to affect and be affected Women and Monastic Reform in the Medieval West, C. 1000-1500 Julie Hotchin, Jirki Thibaut, 2023 New approaches to understanding religious women s involvement in monastic reform demonstrating how women s experiences were more ambiguous and multi layered than previously assumed Over the last two decades scholarship has presented a more nuanced view of women s attitude to and agency in medieval monastic reform challenging the idea that they were by and large unwilling to accept or were necessarily hostile towards reform initiatives Rather it has shown that they actively participated in debates about the ideas and structures that shaped their religious lives whether rejecting embracing or adapting to calls for reform contingent on their circumstances Nevertheless fundamental questions regarding the gendered nature of religious reform are ripe for further examination This book brings together innovative research from a range of disciplines to re evaluate and enlarge our knowledge of women s involvement in spiritual and institutional change in female monastic communities over the period c 1000 c 1500 Contributors revise conventional narratives about women and monastic reform and earlier assumptions of reform as negative or irrelevant for women Drawing on a diverse array of visual material and textual sources it presents snapshots of reform from western Europe stretching from Ireland to Iberia Case studies focussing on a number of different topics from tenth century female saints lives to fifteenth century liturgical books from the tenth century Leominster prayerbook to archaeological remains in Ireland from embroideries and tapestries to the rebellious nuns of Sainte Croix in Poitiers offer a critical reappraisal of how monastic women and their male associates reflected individually and collectively on their spiritual ideals and institutional forms

Catherine of Lancaster and her Religious Court Poets Lesley Twomey, 2024-07-18 This book offers an integrated study of the English princess and Castilian queen Catherine of Lancaster 1373 1418 drawing on available archival architectural and poetic sources in England and Spain Catherine s mother Queen of Castile in exile and father the powerful military commander John of Gaunt raised her to take the Castilian throne This volume connects Catherine s early life providing insights into those who promoted her cause from birth as Princess of Castile and her later life as Princess of Asturias then Queen consort and finally Dowager and Co regent of Castile Her influence on the Castilian court s poetic circles has not previously been connected to her English heritage Poetry written about her and influenced by her was compiled into a songbook presented to her son Juan II The book brings new understanding of the role an Englishwoman played in Trastámara Castile's turbulent history A Companion to Spanish Women's Studies Xon de Ros, Geraldine Hazbun, 2014 This volume presents an overview of the issues and critical debates in the field of women's studies including original essays by pioneering scholars as well as by younger specialists New pathfinding models of theoretical analysis are balanced with a careful revisiting of the historical foundations of women's studies Life and Religion in the Middle Ages Flocel Sabaté, 2015-09-04 Religious experience in the European Middle Ages represented an intersection of a range of aspects of existence including everyday life relations of power and urban development among others As such religion offered a reflection of many facets of life in this period This book brings together scholars from different parts of the world who use a variety of different examples from the medieval era to show this specific path through which to reach a renewed perspective for understanding the European Middle Ages The Fabric of Marian Devotion in Isabel de Villena's Vita Christi Lesley K. Twomey, 2013 Isabel de Villena 1430-1490 is one of the most fascinating women of the Spanish Middle Ages Related to the royal family she became abbess of the Poor Clare convent the Santa Trinitat a convent founded in Valencia by Queen Maria of Castile Sor Isabel was abbess for almost 30 years Her version of the Life of Christ the Vita Christi was the first book by a woman to be printed in the kingdom of Aragon This is the first full length survey in English of Isabel's life and literary works P 4 of cover The Routledge Companion to Iberian Studies Javier Muñoz-Basols, Manuel Delgado Morales, Laura Lonsdale, 2017-03-16 This book provides a comprehensive state of the art account of the field reaffirming Iberian Studies as a dynamic and evolving discipline offering promising areas of future research It is an essential tool for research in Iberian Studies Book of devotions Constanza (de Castilla, Sor), 1998 Edited with introduction and notes by Constance L Wilkins This the first edition of the devotionalary composed by Constanza de Castilla granddaughter of Pedro I and prioress of the convent of Santa Domingo el Real de Madrid from approximately 1416 to 1465 is an important contribution to the small body of writing by medieval Spanish women available today Comprising a variety of prayers and liturgical offices in Spanish and Latin the book provides moving evidence of the beliefs experience and expression of religious women in Spain of the later Middle Ages Esta primera edición del devocionario escrito por Constanza de Castilla nieta de Pedro I y priora del convento de Santo Domingo el Real de Madrid desde aproximadamente 1416 a 1465 es una importante contribución al pequeño corpus de obras compuestas por españolas medievales Consta de una variedad de oraciones y oficios litúrgicos en español y en latín constituyendo una prueba conmovedora de la conciencia experiencia y expresión de una religiosa en la España de la baja Edad Media Death in Fifteenth Century Castile Laura Vivanco, 2004 Differences in attitudes to death and dying in two distinct social classes the ecclesiastics and the nobility The theory of the three estates made clear distinctions between the functions of the two estates which comprised the elite of medieval society the oradores ecclesiastics and the defensores warriors or nobility They had different lifestyles clothing and ways of thinking about life With regard to death the responses dictated by

Christian theology conflicted with the demands of the defensor ideology based on the defence of individual honour the pursuit of fama and the display of earthly power This book charts the progress of the dying from their preparations for death through their good or bad deaths to their burials and otherworldly fates and also analyses the responses of the bereaved Through the use of pre fifteenth century texts it is possible to demonstrate that the conflict between the orador and defensor ideologies did not begin in the fifteenth century but rather had a much older origin and it is suggested that the conflict continued after 1500 Textual sources include the Siete partidas wills chronicles religious works such as the Arte de bien morir and literary works such as C rcel de Amor and Celestina
