The Book Trade of the World Sigfred Taubert, Peter Weidhaas, 1972 The Book Trade of the World Sigfred Taubert, Peter Weidhaus, 1981 The Book Trade in the Italian Renaissance Angela Nuovo, 2013-06-17 This work offers the first English language survey of the book industry in Renaissance Italy Whereas traditional accounts of the book in the Renaissance celebrate authors and literary achievement this study examines the nuts and bolts of a rapidly expanding trade that built on existing economic practices while developing new mechanisms in response to political and religious realities Approaching the book trade from the perspective of its publishers and booksellers this archive based account ranges across family ambitions and warehouse fires to publishers petitions and convivial bookshop conversation In the process it constructs a nuanced picture of trading networks production and the distribution and sale of printed books a profitable but capricious commodity Originally published in Italian as Il commercio librario nell Italia del Rinascimento Milan Franco Angeli 1998 second revised ed 2003 this present English translation has not only been updated but has also been deeply revised and The Bookshop of the World Andrew Pettegree, Arthur der Weduwen, 2019-04-02 The untold story of how augmented the Dutch conquered the European book market and became the world's greatest bibliophiles. The Dutch Golden Age has long been seen as the age of Rembrandt and Vermeer whose paintings captured the public imagination and came to represent the marvel that was the Dutch Republic Yet there is another largely overlooked marvel in the Dutch world of the seventeenth century books In this fascinating account Andrew Pettegree and Arthur der Weduwen show how the Dutch produced many more books than pictures and bought and owned more books per capita than any other part of Europe Key innovations in marketing book auctions and newspaper advertising brought stability to a market where elsewhere publishers faced bankruptcy and created a population uniquely well informed and politically engaged This book tells for the first time the remarkable story of the Dutch conquest of the European book world and shows the true extent to which these pious prosperous guarrelsome and generous people were shaped by what they read Book history at its best Robert Darnton New York Review of Books Compelling and impressive THES Book of the Week An instant classic on Dutch book history BMGN Low Countries Historical Review Clegg's International Directory of the World's Book Trade, Booksellers, Publishers, Book Book Trade Catalogues in Early Modern Europe Arthur der Weduwen, Andrew Collectors, Etc., 1940 Pettegree, Graeme Kemp, 2021-07-19 This edited collection offers in seventeen chapters the latest scholarship on book catalogues in early modern Europe Contributors discuss the role that these catalogues played in bookselling and book auctions as well as in guiding the tastes of book collectors and inspiring some of the greatest libraries of the era Catalogues in the Low Countries Britain Germany France and the Baltic region are studied as important products of the early modern book trade and as reconstructive tools for the history of the book These catalogues offer a goldmine of information on the business of books and they allow scholars to examine questions on the distribution and ownership of books that would
