The Ship of Birth Greg Delanty, 2007 The Ship of Birth records a father's responses in the time immediately before and after the birth of his child Just as material significant to the dead is placed in a ship of death so this ship of birth contains what is significant to the child the wonder and trepidation of the parents the nature of the soul the future growth of the child Greg Delanty's poems draw on his experiences in American and Irish cultures using the traditional verse structures of seventeenth century religious poets along with open modern colloquial forms to evoke the subtle interconnections of the past and future Without sentimentality or self indulgence Delanty acknowledges the dark and difficult reality that the child faces while affirming the sustaining continuity of life
