Biographies John Cones, 2015-04-01 Hollywood movies are famous for promoting negative stereotypes of all kinds especially against minorities women Southerners and Christians To what extent are biographical films selected for production according to certain biases conscious or unconscious among the Hollywood elite An expert on the U S film industry gives readers brief synopses of Hollywood biopics produced and or released from 1912 through 1994 This survey provides the basis for discussion and analysis Tracking these one sided depictions over a longer period of time the patterns of bias and the source of the problem become more clear The problem appears to be that most of the people who have green light authority in the U S film industry for either the production and or distribution of a motion picture share a common ethnic religious cultural background Thus the stories of their own cohort and those of all other ethnic religious and or cultural groups whose members seldom achieve positions of power in Hollywood are being filtered through the cultural sensibilities of a single group John Cones suggests that the solution could lie in increasing diversity at the highest levels in the U S film industry

The Art of Stereography Douglas Heil, 2017-03-02 Three dimensional stereoviews were wildly popular in the mid 19th century Yet public infatuation fueled highbrow scorn and even when they fell from favor critics retained their disdain Thus a dazzling body of photographic work has unjustly been buried This book explores how compelling images were made by carefully combining subject matter composition lighting tonality blocking and depth It draws upon the fine arts the mass media humanities history and even geology Throughout overlooked photographers are celebrated such as the one who found extraordinary visual parallels within nature anticipating Cezanne and Seurat or the one who refused to play favorites during a bitter war and found humanity on both sides or the one who took a favorite American glen and found menace all about Stereographers were actually more like film directors or television producers than large format photographers the best ones fused artistry with commercial appeal Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 A Reference Guide for English Studies

Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film

Institute,1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr The Films of Victor Mature James McKay,2013-01-11 With his rugged features and earthy sex appeal Victor Mature ushered in a new breed of postwar Hollywood actor far removed from the debonair matinee idols of the 1930s Following success as an upbeat leading man in the early 1940s Fox musicals opposite the likes of Betty Grable and Rita Hayworth he went on deliver two of his most powerful performances in My Darling Clementine 1946 and Kiss of Death 1947 But it was in the biblical epics such as Samson and Delilah 1949 The Robe 1953 and Demetrius and the Gladiators 1954 that his heartfelt acting and statuesque larger than life screen presence finally secured his place as a Hollywood icon Beginning with a concise biography this work covers Mature s film career in its entirety featuring synopses anecdotes from cast and crew and review commentary
