Don Quixote, Don Juan, and Related Subjects James A. Parr, 2004 This is a study of major figures texts and periods in Spanish literature prior to 1700 It applies and interrogates modern critical theory Contributing to its cohesiveness are the time span addressed 1330 1630 and the emphasis throughout on literary tradition and critical approaches It is inspired partly by Ramiro de Maeztu s 1926 monograph Don Quixote Don Juan y la Celestina devoted to the three characters Maeztu felt to be the most important in the Spanish literary canon include Celestina The volume is divided into three parts The first of these deals with Don Quixote the second centers around the Don Juan figure created by Tirso de Molina while the third ventures farther back in time to treat the major texts of the fourteenth fifteenth and sixteenth centuries along with the problematic period concepts Renaissance and Baroque James A Parr is Professor of Spanish at the University of California Riverside

The History and Anatomy of Auctorial Self-criticism in the European Middle Ages Anita Obermeier, 1999 This study outlines the history and anatomy of the European apology tradition from the sixth century BCE to 1500 for the first time The study examines the vernacular and Latin tales lyrics epics and prose compositions of Arabic English French German Greek Icelandic Italian Spanish and Welsh authors Three different strands of the apology tradition can be proposed The first and most pervasive strand features apologies to pagan deities and later to God The second most important strand contains literary apologies made to an earthly audience usually of women A third strand occurs more rarely and contains apologies for varying literary offenses that are directed to a more general audience The medieval theory of language privileges an imitation of the Christian master narrative and a hierarchical medieval view of authorship These notions express a medieval philosophical concern about language and its role and therefore the role of the author in cosmic history Despite the fact that women apologize for different purposes and reasons their examples illustrate on yet another level the antifeminist subtext inherent in the entire apology tradition Overall the apology tradition characterized by interauctoriality intertextuality and intratextuality enables self critical authors to refer not only backward but also primarily forward making the medieval apology a progressive strategy that engenders new literature This study would be relevant to all medievalists especially those interested in literature and the history of ideas

Molendijk, 2006 In the terms of Durkheimian sociology conversion is a fait social Although they are rarely treated as a cultural phenomenon conversions can obviously be examined for the norms values and presuppositions of the cultures in which they take place Thus conversion can help us to shed light on a particular culture At the same time the term evokes a dramatic appeal that suggests a kind of suddenness although in most cases conversion implies a more gradual process of establishing and defining a new religious identity From 21-24 May 2003 the University of Groningen hosted an international conference on Cultures of Conversion The contributions have been edited in two volumes which pay special attention to the modes of language and idiom in conversion literature the meaning and sense of religious ideological discourse the variety of rhetorical tropes and the effects of the conversion narrative with allusions to religious or political conventions and idealizations The present volume offers in depth studies of conversion that are mainly taken from the history of India Islam and Judaism ranging from the Byzantine period to the new Muslimas of the West The other volume Paradigms Poetics and Politics of Conversion in addition to stimulating case studies contains theoretical contributions on the theory of conversion with special attention to the rational choice theory and to the history of research into conversion

The Humanities in the Age of Technology Ciriaco Morón Arroyo, 2002-03 Students of the humanities confront two fundamental questions How valid and rigorous is the type of knowledge attained in these disciplines And what good is it In The Humanities in the Age of Technology Ciriaco Morón Arroyo offers a systematic inquiry into these questions and outlines the ongoing crisis of the humanities When Grown Ups Cry Jasna Jackson, 2012-09-21 Yoyo was interesting because she was always having a lot of secrets and she never shared them sometimes maybe with anyone She felt that if she will talk about it those words and things will disappear so she rather was just listening and observing and was quiet The book is about a growing up girl She was adopted and she sees things a bit different and since she was little she loves the stars the most First she saw them on the sky at night than as people too Medieval Fare Martha M. Daas, 2022-09-28 Unique in its cultural and religious makeup medieval Iberia represented a crossroads of cultures This crossroads was reflected in large and small ways On a grand scale we see the convergence of intellectual ideas and great innovations in agriculture and science On a more intimate level we see an intersection of cultures as reflected in habits of consumption The acts of producing food cooking and eating demonstrate the political realities of the land at times interdependent and at times at odds Food as an archeological and anthropological tool can help us understand a particular moment in time In considering the nature of consumption we may arrive at the heart of a culture In Medieval Fare the author explores food references found in a number of medieval Iberian texts in order to expand our knowledge of daily life in the Middle Ages By examining the depiction of food and consumption this pioneering study provides insight into the cultural religious and social complexities of medieval Iberia Spiritual Reading Angela Lou Harvey, 2015-10-23 Reading Scripture is a spiritual practice at the very heart of the Christian faith But how is it possible to encounter God in reading the words of the Bible Does reading the Christian Bible require a different approach from how one may read other texts or writings What is required of the spiritual reader to read well Seeking to answer such questions Angela Lou Harvey provides a theological exploration of the idea of spiritual reading in the context of the Western church today Drawing upon insights of theologians such as Karl Barth Henri de Lubac and Ellen F Davis the author suggests that the particulars of Christian belief profoundly shape the distinctive practice of the spiritual reading of the Bible Is the Good Book Good Enough? David K. Ryden, 2010-12-18 The political emergence of evangelical Christians has been a signal development in America in the past quarter century And while their voting tendencies have been closely scrutinized their participation in the policy debates of the day has not They continue to be caricatured as anti intellectual Bible thumpers whose views are devoid of reason logic or empirical evidence They re seen as lemmings following the cues of Dobson and Robertson and marching in lock step with the Republican party on the culture wars issues of abortion gay rights and guns Is The Good Book Good Enough remedies the neglect of this highly influential group which makes up as much as a third of the American public It offers a carefully nuanced and comprehensive portrait of evangelical attitudes on a wide range of policies and their theological underpinnings Each essay applies an evangelical lens to a contemporary issue environmentalism immigration family and same sex marriage race relations global human rights foreign policy and national security social welfare and poverty and economic policy The result thoroughly enriches our understanding of evangelicalism as a prism through which many view a wide range of policy debates
