A Study of the Geography of 1 Enoch 17-19 Coblentz Bautch, 2003-11-01 A Study of the Geography of 1 Enoch 17 19 examines the travels of the patriarch Enoch who is given a guided tour of extraordinary and at times terrifying places located throughout the cosmos Coblentz Bautch clarifies the text of 1 Enoch 17 19 by explaining how the sites described relate to one another geographically and by reconstructing the mental map of the geography that lies behind the textual descriptions Especially provocative is the consideration of sources from the ancient Near East Hebrew Bible and the world of Hellenistic Judaism that may have informed the world view of 1 Enoch 17 19 and parallel traditions Through this study an important facet of apocalypses is illumined their portrayal of geography and sacred space Shepherd of Hermas Collection [2 Books] Shepherd of Hermas, Aeterna Press, The Sacred Writings of the Pastor of Hermas (Annotated Edition) Pastor of Hermas, 2012 The Sacred Writings Of provides you with the essential works among the Early Christian writings The volumes cover the beginning of Christianity until before the promulgation of the Nicene Creed at the First Council of Nicaea Every single volume is accurately annotated including an extensive biography of the author and his life The book consists of five visions twelve mandates or commandments and ten similitudes or parables The whole book is thus concerned with the Christian virtues and their exercise It is an ethical not a theological work The intention is above all to preach repentance A single chance of restoration after fall is given to Christians and this opportunity is spoken of as something new which had never been clearly published before The writer is pained by the sins of the faithful and is sincerely anxious for their conversion and return to good works *Of the Church, five bookes.
